as affording ample grounds of justification for any conflagration which may have taken place on the coast and as calling loudly for severe retribution which I trust when opportunities shall offer will not fail to inflict.

I have received your Private Letter of the 24th of May.

Major Genl. Pours Brigades consisting of 4 Regiments have arrived from France and I understand that more troops from thence conveyed by the Genl. and Pengeur having General and Robinson on board are ever.

I thank you for the

Sir,

Your most obedient

humble servant
