IN THE FIELD OF RELIGION

$52,000 Reported at S.C. Conference; $200 Are Appointed

COLUMBIA, S.C.—With reports of $41,000 in Episcopal assessments, $10,000 for Claflin College, and a $1,000 AWS increase in pension and relief funds, the list and appointments of two hundred and ninety ministers by Bishop Matthew W. Clair, the 130th annual session of the South Carolina M.E. Conference, Lee Street colored church, adjourned During the session, the addition of 1,700 new members in the area was added to the report. Congressional caucus chosen as the meeting place for the 131st annual session.

Mrs. The Laymen's Conference, C. W. Matthew Caldwell, president, also ended its Sundays Sunday. S. J. McDonald is presiding the prior of the laymen; R. K. Gordon, Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Edna Mrs. Edna Mrs. Edna