To Observe Negro Health Week Here Starting Sunday

Program Will Last For Eight Days

The twenty-second annual National Negro Health Week will be observed in Kent county this year, starting on Sunday, March 29, with "mobilization day," and ending on Sunday, April 5, "report and follow up day."

As has been the custom in past years here the week's program will feature a parade in Chestertown on the night of Monday, March 30. The parade will be held at 7 P. M. and will be followed by a mass meeting in Bethel A. M. E. Church. One of the features of the mass meeting will be a playlet presented by the fourth, fifth and sixth grades of Garnet School, Chestertown.

In addition to the opening and closing days the various days of the week of celebration have been designated as follows:

Monday, March 30—Home Health Day.

Tuesday, March 31—Community Sanitation Day.

Wednesday, April 1—Special Campaign Day.

Thursday, April 2—Adults' Health Day.

Friday, April 3—School Health Day.

Saturday, April 4—General Clean-Up Day.

AT THE MOVIES NEXT WEEK

Individually among the most popular stars of the film world; collectively the greatest star triumvirate of them all, Clark Gable, Jean Harlow and Myrna Loy will be seen together for the first time in Merto-Goldwyn-Mayer's new giant production, 'Wife Versus Secretary,' filmization of the widely-read Faith Baldwn novel.

The new picture which comes to the New Lyceum Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 30, 31 and April 1, was directed by Clarence Brown whose recent triumphs were 'Ah Wilderness!' and Anna Karenina.' It was produced by Hunt Stromberg, responsible for such hits as 'Rose Marie,' 'Forsawing All Others' and 'Naughty Marietta.' Norman Krasna, John Lee Mahin and Alice Duer Miller collaborated on the screen adaptation.

Supporting the remarkable trio of stars is a prominent cast including such screen headliners as May Robinson, George Barbier, James Stewart, Hobart Cavanaugh and also Gilbert Emery, Margaret Irving, Billy Newell Majorie Gateson, Gloria Holden and Tom Dugan.

The story presenting a society "eternal triangle" from a new viewpoint; casts Gabel as Van Sanford, the successful business man very much in love with his wife, Linda, played by Miss Loy. Jean Harlow as Whitney, the secretary, is the "other woman" who brings about an emotional crisis in the life of her employer.

Van, millionaire magazine publisher, returns from a vacation to find Whitey, his secretary, in complete command of his affairs. He conceive the idea of combining his magazine with another, thus gaining control of the field.

Linda, his wife, visits the office. While Van sees Whitey only be an efficient secretary, Linda sees her as a woman. She is not jealous, but a series on incidents convince her that it would be well if Whitey were out of Van's office.

Dave, just another fellow on a salary, wants to marry Whitey. When she refuses him, Dave is convinced that she loves Van.

Linda begins to consider Whitey a menace to her happiness and quarrels with her husband, but they patch up the differences. Van suggests a second honeymoon trip to Havana. When the time arrives for the trip, he finds that he cannot take Linda. In order to swing the magazine deal he must go alone and attend a convention of magazine publishers.

Whitey makes a discovery concerning the activities of a rival magazine which might ruin Van's plan. She telephones him and he urges her to take the first plane to Havana. After two days and nights of nerve-whacking work they put the deal through. Then they relax, enjoying a dinner and a few dances together. It is two A. M. when they arrive at the hotel. Whitey enters Van's room to get her notes. The telephone rings. Whitey answers it. It is Linda.

Believing that Van and Whitey have tricked her, Linda plans to sail for Europe. At the boat she finds Whitey, who tells her she is a fool to leave—that if she does, Van will turn to her. She admits frankly that she wants Linda to go, but she also tells her that Van would never be happy with anyone else, although she is willing to take her second best. Linda is apparently deaf to her plea and Whitey returns to the office. Van is hers for the taking. But her earnestness has convinced Linda, who returns to find Van waiting for her with open arms. Dave and Whitey are reconciled.

One of the most amazing and dramatic court cases in history comes to life as poignant, gripping drama, in "The Voice of Bugle Ann," based on Mackinley Kantor's famous novel, and incidently gives Lionel Barrymore one of the most gripping rolls since "The Copperhead" and "A Free Soul." the colorful story of Missouri hunters and their famous hounds, is coming to the New Lyceum on Friday and Saturday, April 3rd and 4th.

Barrymore plays Spring Davis, the old farmer who kills a man to avenge his dog, and makes a drabatic plea in court for dogs as man's best friends. The dramatic action is played against an interesting background, for with a pack of actual Missouri hounds, thrills of fox-hunting are staged. There is a love romance running through the graphic story, in the hands of Eric Linden, last seen with Barrymore in "Ah Wilderness!" and Maureen O'Sullivan.

Richard Thorps directed the picture with deft skill that brings out all the human touches and shows the great attachment between the hill people and their hunting animals. Barrymore makes an eloquent appeal, in which some of Senator George Vest's tribute to the rog adds drama to oratory.

Two more of the "Ah Wilderness!" cast appear again with Barrymore in the new picture, Spring Byington as the mother and Charles Grapewin as the faithful friend. Others include Henry Wadsworth, James Macklin, Dudley Digges, Jonathan Hale and Billy Newell. Among scenes filmed in Missouri are nside glimpses of Jefferson City Penitentiary, where the prison sequence is laid. John W. Considine, Jr., produced the picture.

Dr. Miles NERVINE "Did the work" says Miss Glivar WHY DON'T YOU TRY IT?

After more than three months of suffering from a nervous ailment, Miss Glivar used Dr. Miles Nervine which gave her such splendid results that she wrote us an enthusiastic letter.

If you suffer from "Nerves." If you lie awake nights start at sudden noises, tire easily, are cranky, blue and fidgety, your nerves are probably out of order.

Quiet and relax them with the same medicine that "did the work" for this Colorado girl.

Whether your "Nerves" have troubled you for hours or for years, you'll find this time-tested remedy effective.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Raris' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25c.

FOR THOSE WHO REMAIN

When death visits a home, the first concern is to perform the last service to the loved one in a becoming manner. What ever is done must express all the reverance and affection that is felt at such a time. But in addition to this a further responsibility rests upon the funeral director. It is his privilege and duty to lessen as far as lies with in his power, the burdens laid upon those who remain. By countless little acts of thoughtfulness he can make the way easier for them.

We consider this part of our work as important as any other. Our highest aim is to have our patrons look upon us as trusted friends, ready and anxious to render sympathetic assistance to those who remain behind.

Don't Guess But Know

Whether the "Pain" Remedy You Use is SAFE?

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

THE person to ask whether the preparation you or your family are taking for the relief of headaches is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly about Genuine BAYER ASPIRIN.

He will tell you that before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin most "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as bad for the stomach and, often, for the heart. Which is food for thought if you seek quick, safe relief.

Scientists rate Bayer Aspirin among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and the pains of rheumatism, neuritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved it safe for the average person to use regularly. In your own interest remember this.

You can get Genuine Bayer Aspirin at any drug store — simply by asking for it by its full name, BAYER ASPIRIN. Make it a point to do this — and see that you get what you want.
