

P.S.

Sir: The natives tribes at cape palmas and the Goaway natives, raise with arms, a gainst the Colonist at cape palmas, and we expected hostility to take place every day, but our good Governor has settled it, without any war, and trade & commerce, are going on as usual, in palm oil and Calm wood &c &c.

The late emigrants that arrived here, by the packet, have taken the fever, and doing well, many are dead.
