ON THE SCREEN AT THE NEW LYCEUM

Lew Ayres, Laraine Day, Lionel Barrymore (In "Calling Dr. Kildare")

A hospital so practical that it was actually used by a physician to treat an accident case was constructed for a motion picture when the Craig Hospital, supposedly a modern New York institution, was erected at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer for "Calling Dr. Kildare," second of the Kildare series, with Lew Ayres and Lionel Barrymore, coming on Monday and Tuesday, August 14 and 15 to the New Lyceum Theatre.

It was so complete in detail that when Horace Hough, assistant director, tore his hand on a nail the wound was treated by Dr. Gilbert Lee, technical adviser, with the actual installation and without Hough leaving the sound stage.

The series, starting with "Young Dr. Kildare", deals with the training of Lew Ayres, a young interne, by a veteran diagnostician, enacted by Barrymore. Each story has a detective twist, with the younger man showing a bent for detection. In "Calling Dr. Kildare," Ayres clears a murder and saves an innocent suspect. Harold S. Bucquet, who directed the first picture, continued as director of the second.

Players include Laraine Day, Nat Pendleton, Lana Turner, Samuel S. Hinds, Lynne Carver, Emma Dunn, Walter Kingsford, Alma Kruger, Marie Blake, Reed Hadley and Nelt Craig.

The hospital set included surgery, treatment rooms, bacteriological and pathological laboratories and other adjuncts fo a complete hospital. Dramatic highlights include the saving of a man's life by a blood transfusion in a dark cellar, the healing of a small crippled boy and the capture of a murderer. Many details of hospital life add human interest and comedy touches.

The Hardy Family takes a fling at the seventh of the popular series, life, both romantic and dramatic, in "Andy Hardy Gets Spring Fever." showing on Wednesday and Thursday, August 16 and 17 at the New Lyceum Theatre. All the familiar faces are back. However, Lewis Stone as the Judge, Mickey Rooney as Andy and Cecilia Parker as Marian fall victims to a spirit of caprice and it is up to Fay Holden (Mother Hardy' and Sara Haden (Aunt Milly) to remain the stabilizing members. Newcomers to the cast are Helen Gilbert, a new discovery who plays Andy's latest love, and Terry Kilburn who recently scored an outstanding success in "Goodbye, Mr. Chips."

W. S. Van Dyke II, director of such pictures as "The Thin Man," "San Francisco" and "Sweethearts," is said to fully capitalize all the possibilities of the humorous situations in which the Hardy Family finds itself.

The adventurous spirit strikes the Hardys like a cyclone. In this picture, the Judge loses his usual conservativeness and almost loses everything he owns in a crooked promotion stunt. In the end, however, his good sense prevails and he turns a "gold brick' into pay dirt. Then Andy quarrels with his sweetheart, Polly Benedict, played by Ann Rutherford, and falls crazily in love with a beautiful school teacher. To win her esteem, he turns playwright-actor, and, despite his father's advice, even purposes to the older girl. Marian decides to forsake social life for a career and in return gets mixed up with the swindling promoters.

I nthe end, however, the Judge has emerged victorious; Andy gets a rude awakening and realizes that his old love, Polly, is still the best, and Marian decides she is not a career-girl. In belief, the Hardy Family returns to normal.

SUMMER BRINGS MILDEW PROBLEMS

Watch for mildew during warm, muggy spells in summer, when the relative humidity is above 60. Mildew may appear in a few hours on clothing in closets, on shower curtains and other household textiles, or on floors, furniture, leather bags or shoes which are poorly ventilated. It may appear also in badly lighted locations or if a damp house has been closed for a while.

If fabrics must be stored, put them in a dry place. Articles in trunks in the cellar often mildew because the cellar is commonly damp or poorly ventilated.

Mildew is a fungus growth, explains Miss Jessie Hinton, specialist in household management for the University of Maryland Extensive Service. Characteristic mildew spots are gray, green, yellow or black. They may vary in size from a pin point to a cent. Once in the fibers of the fabric, mildew stains are next to impossible to remove, cotton being more suseptible than woolen goods.

On leather bags or shoes a growth of mildew can be brushed off if found promptly, and the article can be washed. Cloth bindings of books contain 50 per cent or more of starch and gum and are a favorable place for mildew fungi to flourish. A coat of clear lacquer on the covers and back will protect book covers from mildew and also from roaches and silverfish.

When several articles start mildewing. the whole house probably needs to be thoroughly dried out and aired. Even in summer, a good remedy is to run the heating plant for a few hours, leaving the windows open for air circulation.

Floors and woodwork may need wiping with a damp cloth containing a little kerosene.

North Dakota Accident Causes

Carelessness, inattention and thoughtlessness were attributed by North Dakota's safety engineer as being responsible for 64 per cent of the state's automobile accidents.

Tons of Foie Gras

More than 1,000 tons of foie gras or fattened goose liver come out of Alsace each year. The delicacy is also produced in Perigord and Gascony. "Pate de foie gras," its most popular form, was first made about 150 years ago, but goose livers themselves have been popular since ancient times. Formerly the geese were given a diet of figs, but today they are force fed and kept in confinement so that their livers will grow especially large.

You Weigh Less on Hot Day

When a person weighs himself on a hot day on ordinary scales the weight is less than on a cold day. Warm air buoys up both the brass weights on the scale and possibly the person being weighed.

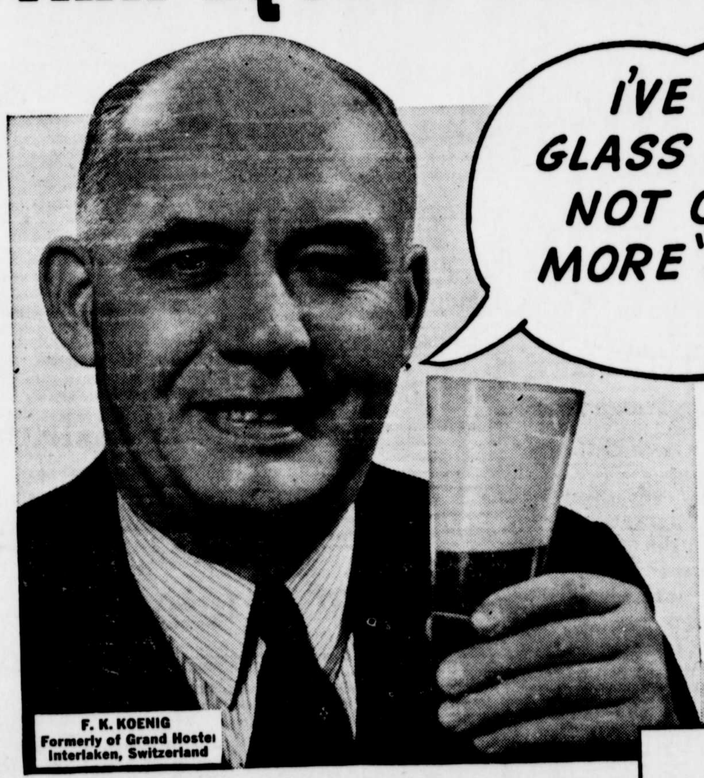
WHO ELSE WANTS TO TRY THE U.S. BEER THAT EQUALS EUROPE'S BEST BEERS!



Gunther's is Maryland's own . . . the beer that International experts call equal in every way to the world-famous beers from abroad

DRY AND BEER-Y. Not a trace of sweetness. Light in body . . . right in the complete beer effect. No extra solids to make it heavy. And because it isn't sweet and heavy, it doesn't "fill you up"!

This is Gunther's "Special Dry Lager." The beer that International experts agree is equal in every way to Europe's finest brews.

Moreover, you don't have to pay 20¢ or 30¢, the usual asking price for some of those great-name beers from abroad.

Who else wants to join those thousands who live in Maryland and D. C. who have made Gunther's the largest-selling beer in this area?

Why Gunther's Costs So Little

Is big volume alone the secret of a low cost for such a fine beer? By no means. Even though Gunther's buys the best ingredients in the biggest quantities of any brewery in the South and thus saves money . . .

There are no long haul freight charges added to the cost of your glass of Gunther's. No import taxes. In addition, all of Gunther's beer is made right here and most all of it is sold here. This one fact means a saving of from 30¢ to 50¢ a case that out-of-state brewers have to pay "middlemen" for handling their beer for them.

Think these savings over...and you'll know why Gunther's can offer you a glass of beer that is equal to the world's most famous beers...yet charge you no more than regular beer prices.
