Dr James Mathis,
General Agent, Md. State Col Soc

Dear Sir: I beg leave to make the worthy managers, a tender of my services, to fill any permanent situation, in the colonies, that may be convenient and agreeable, for them to place me in. My time shall be wholly given, to the business of my employers. I am employed by the governor at present, to teach the Ladies School, you will please answer this note by the return of the packet, and you will truly oblige the absent.

Sir Respectfully yours

Thomas H. Groff
