CHURCH NOTES

RADIANT LIVING

"Artificially Colored"

By Rev. C. M. Griffeth

Pastor Ridgely M. E. Church

Ridgely, Md.

It was at a fruitstand that I noticed it first. It was on some small sized organges. In small letters, harily noticable, were two words, "Artificially Colored."

Of course this was not the first time I had seen these words. But I had never noticed them on oranges before.

Small undersized oranges, picked green and soaked in chemicals to give them sufficient lure to sell! Thus man would outstrip the slow pace of nature.

There is so much artificial color in life!

"I'm so glad to see you!" purred the hostess to her friend, as she welcomed her at the front door. But what she was really thinking was: "I don't see why you had to show up just now!"

A welcome, artificially colored! And as her caller arose to leave, the hostess exclaimed: "Oh, don't be in a hurry, it is time to go yet!" But all during the visit she was saying to herself: "I don't see why you have to stay all afternoon!"

Painted lips and painted cheeks may also have their lure. But when artificiality is discovered, its falseness no longer attracts but repells. The color remains, but the lure is gone.

All articificiality is a mask of insincerity, a false front, behind which hides the immature, the deficient, the undeveloped, hoping to be accepted as genuine.

The world is fed up on artificiality. It is hungry for genuineness.

True color comes from a proper exposure to the sun. The true coloring of the heart and life, reflecting its genuineness in the face, comes from a sufficient exposure to the radiance of the Divine Mind.

If we wish to be attractive and winsome, let us seek to be genuine.

Announcement.

We are pleased to announce another substantial reduction in our rates.

This new schedule has been passed upon by the Public Service Commission of Maryland as evidenced by their Order No. 34542, dated July 25th, 1939, and will result in varying savings on all bills up to a full 10 per cent.

The NET rates in the new One-meter Lighting Schedule will be as follows:

First 25 Kilowatt Hours, per month	9c Net
Next 75 Kilowatt Hours per Month	6c Net
Next 100 Kilowatt Hours, per Month	4c Net
Excess over 200 Kilowatt Hours, per Month	3c Net
Minimum Charge per Month	$1.25 Net

These rates will be applicable to all of the service territory of the company for Lighting, Heating, Cooking, Refrigeration and Domestic Motors up to 2 H. P.

A corresponding reduction has also been made in the Commercial Lighting Rates.

It is hoped that these reductions will further stimulate the wider use of electricity in the homes of all of our consumers.

The new rates become effective August 1st, 1939, and will be reflected in the bills rendered on August 31st, 1939.
