48,000,000 Urge Costigan-Wagner Anti-Lynch Bill

NEW YORK — Organizations with a total membership of forty-eight million persons representing all religious faiths, all racial groups of both races, are actively supporting passage of the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill in the coming session of Congress, according to Walter White, secretary of the NAACP.

As a means of indicating to Congress the public demand for action to authorize Federal aid in suppressing the lynching, a petition has been drafted and sent to governors, mayors of cities, editors, business men and others with the request that they add their names.

A memorial has also been sent to President Roosevelt calling his attention to the lynching of 3,068 persons since 1882 and asking him to place the Costigan-Wagner bill on his "must" program.

Among the organizations (and membership) which have endorsed the bill are:

Federal Council of Churches, 20,000,000; American Federation of Labor, 3,000,000; National Baptist Convention, 3,196,623; Protestant Episcopal Church, 2,000,000; YMCA, 857,241; YWCA, 404,632; NAACP, 100,000; Presbyterian Board of National Missions, 1,969,768; Colored Methodist Episcopal Church, 1,000,000; Congregational and Christian Churches, 1,000,000.
