That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

DOAN'S PILLS

Spinach Royal Sets New Style In Greens

Setting the present style for spinach is Spinach Royal. It's very hard to imagine that there's a person living who won't like it this way, but of course, as a man in the food business once said "if everyone liked the same thing, he probably wouldn't be in business!"

SPINACH ROYAL

2 cups noodles, cooked and blanched
2 cups spinach, cooked
2-3 cup American cheese, cut in thin slices
½ teaspoon salt
1½ cups white sauce

Line a casserole or baking dish with butter. Arrange noodles, spinach and cheese in layers in the order listed. Season with salt and cover with white sauce. Garnish with paprika. Bake in a moderate oven (350 F.) for 20 to 30 minutes. Serves 4-6.

Fresh Rhubarb Refrigerator Cake

The groundhog casts his shadow to announce the coming of spring; but it is the arrival of rhubarb at the neighborhood grocery that really clinches the good news. The spring premier of rhubarb means special good news for the housewife because it is an adaptable fruit that gives a pleasing tang to a variety of dressing stand-bys. Here is a favorite short-cut rhubarb dessert:

FRESH RHUBARB REFRIGERATOR CAKE

1 1-3 cups (1 can) sweetened condensed milk
¼ cup lemon juice
1 cup unsweetened stewed fresh rhubarb
24 vanilla wafers

Blend together sweetened condensed milk and lemon juice, and prepared fruit. Line narrow oblong pan or spring form cake pan with wax paper. Cover with fruit mixture Add layer of wafers, alternating in this way until fruit mixture is used; finishing with layer of wafers. Let stand in refrigerator for six hours or more. To serve turn out on small platter. Cut in slices and serve plain. Serves 8.

A Sauce For Fine Green Salad

A complicated salad has no place on the table of a discriminating hostess, for she had found that simple greens dressed with a tasty dressing is in much better taste. Here is a fine full flavored dressing that is just ideal for plain greens.

CURRY DRESSING

5 tablespoons olive oil
2 tablespoons tarragon vinegar
¼ teaspoon curry powder
¾ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon onion juice

Dissolve the curry powder in the vinegar and add it to the other ingredients. Put in a small glsas jar, set in the ice box, and shake well before serving.

Demand for farm labor on Maryland farms on January 1 of this year was 90 percent of normal—the highest since January 1, 1926, according to the Maryland Crop Reporting Service. The report goes on to state that supply of farm labor was 80 percent of normal on January 1, which was equal to the January 1927 level and the lowest since the beginning of 1926.

A Salad To Tempt Anyone

There are those who really do not care for salads—this is really true and such people are seen every day in the week—now—should you happen to be entertaining one of those people nad want to serve a salad—here is one that will prove pleasing, to one and all.

SALAD TEMPTATION

2 large fresh pears, sliced
3 teaspoons sugar, if desired
4 teaspoons lemon juice
⅛ teaspoon salt
1 cucumber, sliced

Combine pears, sugar and lemon juice. Add salt, the cucumbers and toss together lightly. Arrange on crisp lettuce. Serve with mayonnaise or French dressing. Serves six.

Baltimore Crab Soup

As a tasty a soup as can be prepared is right in season now. It's crab soup, Baltimore style; and for a crab lover, nothing finer can be offered.

CRAB SOUP, BALTIMORE STYLE

1 cup crab meat
2 tablespoons butter
1 tablespoon flour
1 onion, finely chopped
1 piece celery
2 sprigs parsley
Dash tabasco sauce
Salt and pepper to taste
2 cups water
3 cups scalded milk

Brown the onion in the melted butter, add the flour and blend. Add the water, seasoning, celery, parsley and crab meat. Let simmer for 30 minutes. When ready to serve add the scalded milk.

Stuffed Lettuce Leaves

1 onion chopped
2 tablespoons butter
1 cup chopped chicken
1 cup soft bread crumbs
1 egg, beaten
Pepper
Outside lettuce leaves

Fry the onion in the butter until brown, add the crumbs, chicken seasoning, and beaten egg. Put 2 or 3 tablespoons of the mixture in the centers of large lettuce leaves. Roll and place in a buttered baking dish. Cover with grated cheese. Bake in a moderate oven until leaves are tender. Serve with a plain white sauce. Peas, carrots or mushrooms may be added. If preferred, tomato sauce may be used.

Egg whites cannot be whipped successfully before the eggs are three days old. "Stiff but not dry" means until they will cling to the bowl when inverted, stage for meringue. When egg whites are to be used in a cake they are whipped until large bubbles have disappeared and the egg whites have begun to cling around edges of pan.
