130 Dollars Reward.

Absconded from Georgetown, where he was bound to a Blacksmith, a Negro Man called SAM, about 24 years old, 5 feet 10 inches high, slender and very black, oval face, a scar over one eye, stands generally with one foot forward, and seems to drag his feet, having a very slovenly walk, notwithstanding is very active and healthy, apt to get drunk, and very quarrelsome; he is a good Blacksmith, and probably will endeavor to hire as a free man. He is well known to most of the stage drivers, as the man with whom he lived did all the work for Mr. Crawford's tavern.——He went away the 5th July, and was apprehended at M'Coy's, between this and Baltimore, but escaped the same night; he was again seen and taken, at Gunpowder Ferry, between Baltimore and Susquehanna, about the last of October, but escaped again.

I will give one hundred dollars if said Negro is lodged in Baltimore jail, and information given so that I get him again; or one hundred and thirty dollars if put in jail at the City of Washington. JOHN THRELKELD,
Georgetown, Nov. 24.

Land for sale

The subscriber will sell

314 Acres of Land,

Situate on the lower part of Elkrige, in Anne Arundel county, about 4 miles below M'Coy's Tavern. This Land is heavily timbered with Oak, Hickory and Pine, and a large quantity of Ship Timber could be worked out of some of the Oaks. It is a soil well adapted to farming, and produces all kinds of small grain and tobacco; it is only 15 or 16 miles from the city of Baltimore, and has the great advantages of that Market; it is convenient to several mills—there is a valuable saw mill within one mile. There has lately been discovered on this land a good Sulphur Spring, by judges supposed to be the best in Maryland, and promises to be of great utility. There are some improvements on it, now occupied by tenants. Any person inclined to purchase can view the property, and know the terms by applying on the premises to JAMES O'ROURKE.

FOR SALE,
