Swags to Fling Party, but Guests Must Provide Drinks

The Swags, who each year it seems, reach a new high in hilarity, will give a half-pint ball, on the 14th, and if you are to believe the members, guests may bring anything from milk up, or rather just as it's a fourth of a quart.

The Swags, who include William Gosnell, Claude Urquhart, Dr. Maurice Doles, Charles Wesley Gaines, James Johnson, Dr. Tell Pfeiffer, William A. Simms, Dr. Thomas S. B. Wilkins, Dr. Charles Woodland and Charles Woodland and Charles Law, have been notoriously daring in their entertaining.

From their garden party on the Howard Estate in Fullerton Md., in 1933 to their tacky ball, a year ago, where a clothes line of unmentionables was a part of their decorative scheme, they kept the natives in stitches nevertheless, each mother's son and daughter scrambling for a bid for fear of missing the fun.

The half-pint ball on Valentine evening, and it will not be a costume dance the dress being left entirely to the guests who may wear anything from rags to ancient costumes, has flamed the fires of imagination and whether the contents will flame the affair (it being entirely left to what the natives brings the hosts point out) has yet to be seen. Anyway the town waits with bated breath.

MISS WILSON WED TO OLIVER CHRISTMAS

Miss Anna Wilson, daughter of Harry Wilson of 718 N. Mount St., was married to Oliver Christmas, Jr. at Sharp Street M.E. Church, Tuesday evening at 6:30 with the pastor, the Rev. Robert F. Coates, officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore white satin and carried an armbouquet of yellow roses. Her frock made with very full three-quarter length sleeves had a full bodice, fitted skirt that flared at the bottom, the added flare carrying into a split front and a slight train at the back. Her veil was of lace and brush length.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Agnes Wilson, maid of honor who wore an identical dress in orchid satin. Earl Tutman was best man.

Frocks of the bridemaids were of blue satin, on primary lines with the panels at the back opening from neck to waist, and with puffed sleeves.

The accessories of bride and attendants were in silver, and the attendants carried bouquets of sweet peas, the maid of honor's being an arm arrangement.

Bridesmaids included Misses Marion B. Jackson, Miss Clara Corbin, Miss Bertha Ross, Miss Anita Hammond, and Miss Eleanor Hammond.

The small sister of the groom served as flower girl and the ushers included Berman Bridge, Harold Hall, Thomas Wilson, Carlton Mitchell and John Hannugh.

A reception at the home of the bride followed the wedding.

By CHARLOTTE WILLIAMS

Hi Kids! Here I am again with plenty of gossip.

Albert Trent will bring Mildred Scott to commencement. Maurice Tucker cares a great deal for Mary L. Jones, Graham Jones and all Sylvia Johnson cares for.

Vi Thomas would like to see Audrey Augustus to the class day program.

Mildred Moore and Emma Brown are having a letter contest. Frank Boston and Mary Wilson are still that way. It seems as though Lewis Hall has forgotten everything. What has happened to Ella Green? Ann Lee and Robert Campbell are engaged. Albert Tabb has been holding back about something for the first time in it's life. Bet I know. I think it's Billie.

Chester France is taking Lottie Mae Wooden to commencement. Lucy Harden and Cepha Brooks's affair is in bloom. Wonder who's taking Effie Liggans to commencement. Howard Liggans attained his bachelor of arts degree yet? Why doesn't Lloyd Nicholas leave Rosa Wilson alone? Can't he see the girl likes Nelson Christie?

Bertha Gaver and Charles Downes and Cecelia Harden, Carrie Johnson declares that Courtney (Blanche) Keene means not her central idea. Why does Christine Scott give that come up and see me soon?

Theda Hill still thinks she goes with Paul King. Cordelia Chew is a girl of sweet sixteen in Baby Talk. Donald Mack seems a bit interested in Hytolia Young. Sarah Monet has eyes only for Simon Carter. Mary Brooks and Reginald Young are very much in love. Same with Reginald Willis and Roberta Hackett. Elbourd Brown is seeing Lucille Williams very often.

Theodore Smith has a crush on Rosa Nixon, but it doesn't seem a thing. Roland (Sleepy) Brooks is interested in Ruth Carter. Jeanette Bruce these days.

Clarence Blake and Elsie Harris have their troubles, but true love never runs smoothly. The talk of the town is Mamie Smith, Margaret Brown, Jesse Davis is a little interested in these days.

Alfred Porter and Carrie Owens are making good time as usual. Charlie Phillips and Mabel Brown think she goes with Albert Edwards.

Bernice Randall says Matthews Wallace is her one and only. The talk of the town is Bertha Gaver and Albert Edwards affair has broken up. It is said that Robert Richards's heart beats a double time for Lilly Smith.

Who is the Herbert Rice that Gertrude Dotson talks about?

Elizabeth Cooper wishes to be introduced to Calvin Page. Wonder if George Dorsey is going to give Dorothy Thomas a ticket to commencement? Elaine Manns still feels the same way about Herbert Augustus. David Forest attends the Morgan games with Lucian Howard. It seems as if a certain lad is keeping Claire Pratt in suspense concerning commencement.

Wilbert Ballard and Margaret Whittington are going to be married immediately after graduation. Edward Watson is puzzled as to whom he will take to class day and commencement.

Marshall Stewart is cheating on Emma Brown via Katherine Langford. Charles Hundley has now renewed his acquaintance with Bessie Suggs. Theodore Campbell teaches Alma Green other things besides French. Hunne Smith says it is still none other than Milburn Davis. What has happened to the Ernest Hammond-Arnetta Williams affair?

Annie Sterling, Charles Downs and Helen Bugess form another of the many triangles.

It is true that Milton Branch will accompany Bernice Morris to class day exercises? Wonder who is it that calls Arthur Wilson Dimples.

It has been said that Eugene Dyson goes in a trance when Lucia Palla's name is called.

It seems in through mail that Gladys Smith calls on Joe Bradley when he is home. It must be love. Holly and Alvin Trent are having it out as to who will take Marie Edwards to class day. Edward Witton has been visiting Cecelia Johnson quite often here lately. I can't seem to find out from Dorothy Mimms whether it is Charles Hundley, Charles Shipley or maybe no one.

Dorothea Green likes to hold William Pinderhughes's hand. Tis Earl Grant and Carl Grant who are lovey-dovey these days. It seems as though Lilly Williams has a crush on John Lane. Who does Marshall Stewart always like to write on a certain girl with Nime Smith? Is LeRoy Davis a man or a mouse?

Does Emma Parker like Winfred White? Anna Bradley seems to like the Bradley boys and the eldeen blue seem with Stanley Brooks and Jerome Brown.

Elaine Oliver swears she owns Stanly Brooks. Catherine Lindsay is looking for a b.f. since J. B. has slowed off although he says he didn't mean a word of it.

The Dorothy Palm-Bernard Armstrong affair is really too much. Lee Orange is rushing Emily Simms most much these days! I hear that the Mabel Hope and John Jefferson love affair is washed up.

Charles Johnson is rushin. Al Palm and Mamie Taylor. Ida Wilson is in love with Leonard Johnson class.

See you at class day exercises. Goodbye.

To Sing at Luncheon

MISS MARION JACKSON, who, with Mrs. Lillian Matthews Parrott, will be soloist at the annual luncheon of the Co-operative Women's Civic League, here, February 15.

Gadabout-ing in Baltimore

With LULA JONES GARRETT

Awake betimes to breakfast plutocratically on goats' milk and breast of capon, and to watch the sun move mist-mountains over the bay.

With a hi-ho, down to a little serious house-cleaning. Stacks of sardine cans to be tossed out and a vacuum cleaner to fix. But puttering around occasionally in your own kingdom engenders a very subwell feeling of entity and contentment. Which is probably insidious. For as one E. O'Neill has it, "Contentment is a sty for eaters and sleepers." Aw, nerts—to the news of the day:

THISA AND THATA

Mrs. Cora Tucker of McDaniels, making a brave dash to save articles in a burning room of her home, was overcome by smoke and laid low for a day. Mrs. Howard Young is convalescing at the Rev. Joshua Fuller is in Johns Hopkins Hospital, where an operation about the head, tucked him away. Mrs. Fannie Alexander Cardozo, while still at Johns Hopkins Hospital, is improving nicely.

Mrs. Ellen Tingle and Miss Myrtle C. Bennett were in Snow Hill for the week-end. Mrs. Tingle visited her mother, Mrs. Fannie Roxborough, while Miss Bennett, guest of E. W. Duffy, was house guest of Mrs. Florence Tull. Mrs. Bessie Jenkins, superintendent of Provident Hospital is off to Durham, N.C. to attend the conference of hospital superintendents which the Rosenwald folks hold in that city. Mrs. Desadora Thomas admitted a cold could defeat her holiday, but has gone to bed.

Mrs. Eliza Myers, of Myrtle Cottage, Miss Catherine Jones, Edith Carter; and Lillian Thomas, Carroll Penton, Frank Burnes and James Stubbs.

MRS. FANNIE VALENTINE CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Fannie Valentine entertained a few of her friends on her birthday at a party on Tuesday at her residence, 1340 N. Fremont Avenue.

The dining room was gayly decorated.

Dancing and cards were enjoyed.

Among those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Norris Diggs, Mrs. Winnie Hill, Solomon Seymour, Annie Dent, William Dent, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Hayes, Joseph Tolson, William Brown, John Otte of Washington, and Miss Christine Garnett, from Fredericksburg, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Urquhart, Mr. and Mrs. Barton Mormon, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Law;

Misses Bertie Howard, Agnes Wilson, Beatrice Truman, Suzette Bennett;

Mesdames Ethel Covington, Gertrude Wilkins and Margaret Matthews.

Hiram Butler, James Lewis, Edward Ewing, George Lyles and Dr. Maurice Doles.

WITH THE SOROS

Mrs. Louise Johnson Lovette was the guest speaker on the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Founders' Day program, Sunday.

The meeting was held at the YWCA.

A large number attended including the members of Epsilon Omega, Alpha Delta chapters and every Alpha Kappa Alpha woman in the city.

In her address, Mrs. Lovette charged her sorors to pledge themselves to unselfish endeavor and to live up to the principles conceived by the members of the first chapter organized in 1908 at Howard University.

The sorors complimented for shouldering the responsibility of such honor as the recent Mississippi health project. Commendation was given also for individual programs undertaken resulting in betterment. Mention was made of the fact that the possession of such characteristics by 1500 colored women will enable them to continue to effectively mold public opinion and make other races see that colored women are interested and are doing something to correct conditions in communities.

Thus A.K.A. women have allied themselves with such organizations as the Negro Business League and improvement. One way in which this sorority functions is to gather facts and present them geographically so those best fitted to mend correct, the audience was told.

By continuing such activities, the speaker said, increasing educational opportunities, fellowships and scholarships together with the continuance of high scholastic standards, colored women will hold high the torch.

The founders were commended for their vision and mention was made of the wise action of Nellie Quander in forming the chapter, resulted in the incorporation of Alpha Kappa Alpha.

Mrs. Lavette was born and reared in Baltimore. She has an A.B. degree from Howard University and is about to complete the requirements for a master's degree at Northwestern University. Her field field of study here is playwriting.

Mrs. Lovette works in the Cardozo High School at Washington, D.C., where she is in charge of drama.

In community and civic affairs she is very active. She is past basilleus of the Washington chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha, a member of the Mu Mu Chapter, worker in the project at Camp Tremont and of the community House program in Washington.

Appearing on the program in addition to the speaker were the Fisher of Epsilon Omega chapter in a vocal selection, followed by a lecture interpretation of "Moonlight Sonata," by Beethoven, and, "To a Wild Rose," by McDowell. Alpha Delta members sang the national anthem.

Mrs. Edna Over Gray, North Atlantic regional director, was presented by the local president and mistress of ceremonies, Mrs. Viola Carter Mayer. Mrs. Gray gave a welcome to the members and guests present.

After the program the hostess chapter, Epsilon Omega, poured for the largest sorors. The chairmen responsible for this affair were Mrs. Pearl Bruce Davis and Miss Mildred Jones.
