T. BYRNE'S ACADEMY

Is now open for the reception of pupils, at No. 37, Ann st. Fell's Point. The design of the Institution is to give a complete English and Scientific course of Education to youth intended for Mechanical, Mercantile or Nautical employments; and experience has proved that one half of the time formerly spent in acquiring any degree of Education is more than saved as Byrne thinks one reality worth ten thousand theories, and that parents indulge their sons in removing at pleasure from one institution to another, merely to gratify a boy who has been taught every thing and learned nothing. To prevent an imposition by the teacher as well as the taught, the progress of the pupils will be occasionally inspected by Mr. Crosbie, late master of the Military and Marine Academy, Dorset street, and a member of the incorporated society of Literary teachers in the city of Dublin.
