A True Likeness of

NAPOLEON THE GREAT.

The HAT, represents the Prussian Eagle, who has taken hold of Napoleon, without any hope of his release.

The FACE, is formed of a few of the many thousand victims, who fell a sacrifice to his great thirst of glory.

The COLLAR, is the great effusion of blood occasioned by his unlimited ambition.

The COAT, is a piece of the map representing the Confederation of the Rhine. Napoleon lost battles on all the places marked thereon.

The STAR, was but a Spider's web, whose threads were spread all over Germany; but in the EPAULETTE, is seen the hand of the Almighty destroying the web, and killing the Spider who had taken its seat there, where a good heart ought to have been.

The above for Sale by
