Portable Bake Oven.

The Most Economical and Best Oven in Use.

THE undersigned offer to the public BLODGETT & SWEET'S PATENT PORTABLE BAKE OVEN, which they unhesitatingly pronounce the best in use. It will roast at the same time as many different kinds of meat as the Oven can contain, and each piece will be perfectly sweet and free from the grease arising from the different varieties, as their gasses are let off through an escape pipe at the top.

For baking Bread and Pastry it is without a rival, the oven being under the perfect control of the operator.

In point of Economy it is not excelled, the heat required being generated within the oven. We have in our possession certificates showing that it will save over ordinary ovens 75 per cent. of fuel. For Summer use it is particularly desirable—the material of which it is made, being a non-conductor; there no is radiation of heat.

In short it is The Oven, and should be in use in every family.

We would call attention to the following extracts from letters in our possession:

* * * * I have given your Oven a fair and full trial in my family, and feel no hesitation in saying that it is decidedly the best and most economical Oven for baking bread, meat, fowls, &c., that I have seen in use. * *
JAMES V'D. STEWART, Chemist,
S. E. corner Hanover and Camden Sts.

* * * * I am prepared to say, without hesitation, that in every particular it is far superior to anything of the kind of which I have any knowledge. The convenience, facility of management, elegance of performance, and economy of both time and fuel, of this Oven, can only be appreciated by those who have used it. * * * *

SIR HENRY CLINTON.

This thorough-bred Horse, and celebrated Trotter, will be let to mares the present season, at the low price of Ten Dollars. If more than two mares are sent by one owner, Eight Dollars each will only be charged. No insurance under any circumstancee.

☞ Fifty Cents to theGroom in every case.

This fine Northern bred trotter was purchased by his present owner with the sole view of improving the breed of draft horses in this section of country, and, looking to his own performances as a fast trotter, and to those of his stock on Long Island, it is believed that no more suitable horse for that purpose could have been selected. SIR HENRY CLINTON has proved himself to be a sure foal getter—as his last season's standing most fully attests.

PEDIGREE:

Sir Henry Clinton was foaled on Long Island, and was got by HENRY DUROC, (a fine race horse,) his dam by imported ROMAX. Through his sire he traces to the celebrated Henry, Eclipse, Old Duroc and Messenger—all fast horses as well as the fastest of trotters. Flying Dutchman, Lady Suffolk, Taconi, and nearly all the fastest trotters of the North are of this family of horses.

He will stand at the stables of his owner, in Upper Marlborough, on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays.

On the other days of the week he will visit the plantations of those who may be disposed to patronize him.

☞ The season will commence on the first of April and end on the first of July.
April 1, 1857—tf

BEN BOLT.

This finely formed young horse will be let to mares the ensuing season, commencing on the 20th March, and ending on the 13th of June, at $15 the season, to be discharged by the payment of $10, if paid within the season—insurance $20. Fifty cents to the groom in each case. ☞ A good groom will be provided, but no liability for accidents.

He will stand at Upper Marlborough on Monday; (the place for standing on Wednesday will be fixed hereafter;) at Queen Anne on Saturday of each week; and the remainder of the week at the subscriber's farm.

☞ Where there are three or more mares to be let on one farm the horse will be sent, if the distance be convenient.

BEN BOLT

is a chestnut sorrel, full sixteen hands high, finely formed, and is one of the best saddle and harness horses in the county. The subscriber deems it unnecessary to give a lengthy description, as the horse's appearance and action is his best recommendation. He is six years old next grass. He is by the celebrated horse "RED BUCK," out of a thorough-bred RATTLER mare. He has proved himself a sure foal getter.

PROSPECTUS OF THE SOUTH,

A DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER,
Published at Richmond, Va.

BEFORE the close of the present month, the subscriber will issue the first number of a newspaper which he proposes to publish in Daily and Semi-weekly editions, and which he intends to devote to the service of the South, the interests of the State, and to the support of the principles of the Democratic Party. But the paper will not be so exclusively political, that its columns will only interest the politician; nor so subservient to party as to spare the misconduct of bad men; to betray principle for the sake of power, or to disguise its convictions at the suggestion of expediency.

I shall endeaver to commend it to intelligent persons of all classes, by diligence in the collection of news, by imparting something of agricultural, commercial and literary interest to its columns, and by venturing an outspoken and emphatic opinion on the topics of the day, no matter what the hazard of conflict with prejudice or of offence to the self-appointed leaders of party. The organ of no clique, in the interest of no faction, and with no partial purpose to serve, the paper will address itself to the honest judgment of the people, and for support will rely upon their appreciation of energy and enterprise and their love of plain talk and independent opinion. There may be particular individuals to whom this sort of discussion will not be very acceptable, but if I can conciliate the favor of the masses, I may survive the opposition of ignorant or interested critics. No doubt servile spirits will be shocked at my zeal in the defence of the South; still I have the consolatory assurance that there are plenty of brave and true men in Virginia, upon whose sympathy and support I may rely with absolute security. And so believing I embark upon the enterprise, with no misgiving as to the result.

"THE SOUTH" will be of an equal size with the leading papers of the city; and will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates: Daily seven dollars a year, Semi-Weekly five dollars—payable in advance.

Money may be sent by mail to the address of
ROGER A. PRYOR,
Editor and Proprietor.

SARATOGA.

For the benefit of those wishing the services of my horse SARATOGA, I will let him to mares at my private stable, near Upper Marlborough, at $30 the season, to be discharged by the payment of $20, if paid within the season. The season commencing on the 15th of March and ending the 1st of July.

☞ As he will have no other stand, there will be no disappointment in sending to him.

He is so well known, a description is unnecessary. His pedigree traces to the most fashionable strains, and he is closely allied to the first trotting horses of the day. His appearance does full credit to his stock, combining in an eminent degree the points of a first class Road Horse, with the most perfect disposition.

☞ Mares from a distance will be pastured free of charge, and every care bestowed, though no liability for accidents.

☞ For further particulars, address the undersigned, Upper Marlboro' Post Office, Prince George's County, Maryland.
