Chatting With Sully

Buona Sera! The day, he nice, no? Come state? Io parlate Italiano, Americano? Capite lo vo?

Ah, I speel-a da gossip now, eh? Signorina Elizabeth Harris is being pursued by da Willy Goodwin-ga giovanni. Da Ruth Hardy-ga Zella craves the love of John Roth, but-a da Florence Smith-ga cramp-a da style. E vita.

Vera Turner-ga eye on da seventh heaven when-a da James Berry, is near her. No stuff-a. Sorry Garrett carries da books for Marie Rideout from da school, but Charles Williams has her heart. Every leedle fiber of Geraldine Wilson crazy about da comp-ga Carlton Hackett, while Beulah Brooks likes da safety patrolman at-a school-130. Da Rosalee Wilson-Robert Wilson affair is steel-a on-a da go, weeth no interruptions. Thank-a, Zeek.

Wonder-a da Peppy Cole were honored at da Wednesday night dancerg at Knights. Emmett Jones and Dorothy Byrd made-a da love on-a dance floor. Chick Sheppard chose Frankie Brown.

Strange-a, but true. No sooner had da Gandhi, Damon Hatton to you-a greet Miss Ruth Mae Whyte, da Creesmus present, but what she geeva them da gate. Sono disappointed. How-a-ever, Henry Larkins is steel the object of Doris Curtis's attention. Jeanie Hunt ess starring een French at da Junior College. Hey-a-Hey! Bessie Mae Stafford ess trying to decide whether he's take Signorina Betty Shell or Margaret Palmer to comedy-a-rama. Theenk hard.

John Britton, Frances Wheeler, and Earl Smeeth were stood up again by da East Side Ice Club, day. East's a habit by now. Joe Russ has what-a you call a "personality" vest. Keet seems-a that George Mason likes to escort Betty Weaver from-a da school. Allen Peck has been beat-a model-ess in da company of Ruth Jackson. They're together again. Lucy Pitts is one-a da trail-ers of Cheenk Smeeth. Da lad is Lawrence Wood, da cutter at dudes. Albert Bryant, of late, ess crushing an East Side lass.

Don't-a forgeet da Renos are giving their fourth annual-ess dance tonight at da Odd Fellows' Hall. Weeth Johnnie Christian playing da moosic, and like Christmas da honored guest. Lawrence Tinson's pace-y of-a da Renos, and-a Jeemy France, treasurer. Keet-a comes ven-ess-a Saturday night. Irvin Dyson-Eunice Brooks affair ess one-a da rosy-a affair. Wonder what's a-become of Juanita Calaman-ess? Sweet Bell Kenny came to town! Non so.

The Gerald Valentine-Aubrey Sanders affair ess cooled, but kindled. Eet seems-shat-a Arnett Frisby, Jr., has-a da eye on Elva Bowser. Da Floyd Adams-Helen Stafford romance continues to flow on-ess da same smooth way. Marsden (Muzzy) Brown ess-a-ing hard-a on Emily Westly. He's-a determined, that-a boy. The Nelson Christie-Rachel Benner setto seems-a on for-a da ice.

When-a Bernard Fowler held-a forth at hees apartmento, da crowd that-a was held a very good time. Food and drink were plenty. Mr. Bernard Fowler, supplied da moosic, and how! Those who attended were: Bernard Fowler, Zelma and Alyce Forrest, Julia Knight, Margaret Fields, Dollie Waters, Ada Fields, Elmira Evans, Mildred Dawes, Mercedes Rankin, Hazel Scott, Marie Neal, Lela Ware, Lena Johnson, Stanley Burley, Vernon Lockley, Clifford Dorsey, James Smith, Eugene Mosby, John Smith, William Bethea, Oliver Henderson, Marshall Dobbin, William Hughes, Billy Woods, Lawrence Snowden, Chink Smith, Napoleon Asbby, and Melvin Smith.

Da charming Julia Knight and John Smeeth laid-a dair gamble, and Beely Woods and Margaret Fields followed their example. There was mooch-a bliss between Lawrence Snowden and Inez Hassell. An inundation of affection flooded da hearts of Mildred Dawes and Bill Hughes, while da Oliver Henderson glovenlu whispered soothing words to Ada Fields. Eeet ess true love between Daverell Pembroke and Joseph Knight.

Da Ritmi Girls gave-a da swell party at-a Sugar Hill house. Mary Woods and Richard Spriggs were-a hot-a-a devoted. Vera Smith and George Carter had-a da case of high pressure affection for each other, while Henry Watts had-a da good time weeth Dot Vray. Vivian Clark and-a da Shad Brown didn't make-a da grade so good. After da shindig, da crowd went to da Strand, where-a da Wednesday night dancing class was still-a going full tilt. Thanx to you, M. J.

Effie Liggans, that-a leetle girl who talks so gently, has had-a her heart captured by Jeemy Miller. Hilda Cruze's love for-a da Fredrick Woodland has cooled as how that's-a all. We all wonder what weeth-ee-tongs. Ruth Wheeler and-a da Earl Smeeth did the movies, Monday night. They're together again.

Ralph Chambers ess-a da source of heat for Dorothy Williams' sofa. Bill Jarvis no longer holds a fascination for Frances Williams. Da girl's love has cooled. That's-a all. We al wonder who Roland Rogers weel-a do when he finds that. William Lyles walks Martha Baynor from-a da school, so regularly Ethel Horton is simply gushing over Gate Taylor. A bootlfool theeng la-a da real love.

Eeet oooness een that-a many twelve B girls are-a envious of Vernon Jones and Veronica Bell. Eeet ess a hold on Eugene Carter. Don't-a fight over them, girls, Rae Carson, is very worried over some-a local lad, while Hortense Milburn has-a her troubles weeth her new male. Eet's a hard-a game, love! Major Jones ess-a the only lad who-a seems to make a hit-a with Veronica Veronica Grinnell.

Twas Cecil Sandleman who was bitterly disappointed by Katie Watson. McKinley Moody has attracted da affections of Mrs. Dorothy Torence and Hilda Lane. Maxine Wallace and Lucy Hall have sworn off-a da males for da rest of their lives. Try an' make-a me believe-a dat! You no foola da Sully. Julius Rogers and Hilda Lane called on Marie Agnes Wilson-a da leetle visit.

We wonder who da leetle lass who-a fainted over da Wm. Williams at a Morgan prom. She couldn-a take-a da sight. Ruby Gwynn-Vernon Gardner affair ess going as smooth-a as oil. It ess never in calm weather. Well, I-a must-a da speeling da beans-on-a ever'body.

Ta-ta da Renos. Donteel-a Tuesday, your-a scribe say, "Buon giorno!"

DANCE HALLS

By LINDY LOU

HELLO, EVERYBODY:

Winter is getting its work in—plenty of snow and sleet. Only Old Sol is trying mighty hard to push his head out of the clouds.

Dancers are due to the season of the year when dance fans are a bit undecided where to go, there being so much going on. No matter how hard one tries there is bound to be a collision on dance dates.

For instance, this Friday night there are three dances that are scheduled. The Renos will have a dance at Odd Fellows'; the Wakaps will have theirs at the Douglass, in the talent contest on Wednesday, January 23, Mr. Sully will sing, "Solitude" and "Stars Fell on Alabama." Next Wednesday night with the Blue Jay orchestra at the Douglass Auditorium.

CORRECTION—The Del Monte Club is not holding a dawn dance as rumor reports.

P.S.—Margaret Grey, a graduate of Douglass and a Junior College student, won first prize in the talent contest on Wednesday evening. Her selection was "Sweet Adeline." She will sing, "Solitude" and "Stars Fell on Alabama." Next Wednesday night with the Blue Jay orchestra at the Douglass Auditorium.

CORRECTION—The Del Monte Club is not holding a dawn dance as rumor reports.

To Aid in President's Birthday Party
