1770 JUNE 26 JASSON WELCH & CO. TO JAMES CHEVERS

SIDE ONE

Mr James Cheston

Cadiz 27 March 1770

Sir

We Can from the Inclosed Copy of our last by the Juno Capt Allen for Philadelphia We have since received none of Your favours neither have we any particular novelty to Impart further than that the Weather Continues as favourable as Can be Wished for the Country & that prices of wheat are upon the Decline & will be more so upon the arrival of any Considerable foreign Importations, We dont think that American Wheat would at present obtain above 55 reals as Opportunities offer or alterations happen We shall Continue to Your orders & saluteing Your remain Sincerely

Yrs

Cadiz 24 June 1770

We refer You to the Inclosing Copy Your last we have since received none of Your favours the Present Serves Chiefly to Inform You that our Crop having Turned out even better than expectation both of wheat & Barley & from the advices we have from other Places we are of Opinion that it will not be safe to Speculate this Season in American produce to this part of the World but as far as Prices may decline so as to enable us to be Lord here
