VIRGINIA

Lynchburg Society

By JOHN HUGHES

LYNCHBURG, Va.—Mr. and Mrs. William Rose of Philadelphia are spending the winter here.

Mrs. Alberta Robson of Philadelphia has returned after visiting her mother for several days.

Mrs. James Trinizar and children left Monday for George to attend the funeral of her father, Mr. O'Kelly.

Miss Louise Coleman has been ill for the past week.

Thomas W. Hughes is visiting in Amherst, Va.

Mrs. Rowena White has returned from Richmond and Portsmouth, where she visited for a week.

Little Lillian Fisher, who has been ill for several days, is out again.

Mrs. Estelle Martin of Albany, N.Y., is guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Weeden.

Little Hermonine Ward, who has been at the Lynchburg Hospital for several weeks suffering from severe burns, is now improving at her home on Point Street.

Misses Thelma Pryor, Maggie Robinson, Beatrice Edmonds, Mary Bell, Messrs. Emmuel Palmer, Edward David, Kenneth Eldridge, James McHenry, Clarence Hughes, Jr., F. Rice, Ollie White, Orville Thaxton, Jr., and Mr. Hightower attended the Rev. Charles Bonsano's attended confirmation services at St. Philips Episcopal Church in Petersburg.

Miss Dorothea Jones left the city last week to accept a position as teacher in Petersburg.

GOLDEN STARS MEET

Andrew Scott was host to the Golden Star Club, Sunday. Messrs. Luther Allen, Lacy Jones, Ernest Thaxton, Samuel Bradley, Thomas Deane, James Vanison, Jack Daniels, Henry White, Thomas Capps, Wilbur Wade, John Vaughans and Lawrence Dean were present.

TROPOLIS SOCIETY

The Tropolis Society met Friday at the home of Mrs. Hillie Greene. Present were:

Mesdames M. M. McDonald, Indie Cargle, Marie Ward, Gertie Jones, Mrs. Florence Moore, Fannie Stewart, Pannie Peachy, Carrie Brooner and Youtha Figg.

* * *

MRS. JORDAN HOSTESS

The Claudia Club met, Friday evening, with Mrs. Mabel Jordan as hostess. An entertainment was rendered by group games. Prizes were awarded to Mesdames Georgia Saunder, Ori Harris and Pauline Weeden.

Other members present were:

Mesdames Bessie Bondurant, Bessie Brown, Mabe Rose, Thelma Hughes, Vivian Colter, Clarissa Carney, Minnie Wade, Bertha Bailey, Mittie Cheeseboro, Bradley, Nancy Goldsberry, Allie Chitlin, Lucinda Bowlin, Hattie and Mrs. Estelle Martin of Albany, N.Y.

MRS. WHITE HOSTESS

Mrs. Alice White of Sixth Street was hostess to the Deacon Auxiliary of the Eighth Street Baptist Church, Tuesday evening.

Present were:

Mesdames Youtha Figg, Ora Calloway, M. M. McDonald, Mary Curtis, Maria Wade, Daniels, Henry Jones, Ophelia Fisher, Mary Franklin, Lucy Green, Ethel White, Ruth Patterson, Pauline Reed, Theone Waugh, Signora Isbelle, Anna Hall, Henry Green and the Rev. Mr. Jordan.

ARTISTIC SOCIAL CLUB

The Artistic Social Club met Friday evening at the residence of Mrs. Ethel Chorton.

Members attending were:

Mesdames Grandfather Younger, Cornie Hankins, Edith Blanga, Georgia Smith, Ina Flint and Mr. Brandolyn Wells.

* * *

M. E. BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Ethel Merriman was hostess, Tuesday, to the M.M. Bridge Club.

Those playing were:

Mesdames Myrtle Spencer, Ella Scott, Fannie Womack, Willie Ferguson, Pauline Weeden, Vivian Thompson, Lillian Smith, Misses Hattie Cunningham, Margaret Pendleton.

Messrs. Jesse Merriman and Benjamin Rose of Philadelphia were guests.

* * *

YOUTH CONFERENCE PLANNED

The second annual youth conference of the Lynchburg District, W.C.T.U., conducted, February 15 to 17. The Friday night session will be held at Court Street Baptist Church, the Sunday afternoon session at the Bethel Baptist Church.

The closing session will be at Court Street Baptist Church. The Rev. James T. Young, director of religious activities of Virginia State College, will deliver the sermon, Sunday morning, and preach the closing message, Sunday afternoon.

YWCA NOTES

Characteristic sketches of outstanding women were sponsored by the religious committee of Phyllis Wheatley YWCA, Sunday, for the vesper program. Mrs. Anne Gardner, poet, was guest speaker.

Starting with an annual meeting at St. Luke's Hall, Monday, a week of social activities known as YWCA, will be observed. A reception for mothers by Girl Reserves is scheduled for Monday. Membership guest night will be Wednesday; health pilgrimage to Dunbar School, Thursday; tea by the Business and Professiones, Friday; fun night; Saturday. Musical numbers with Prof. Harry Burwell as guest of honor, Sunday, and presentation of Golden Lacy, lyric soprano, in recital at Court Street Baptist Church, concluding the week.

The annual meeting program included the reading of a poem on an inspiration by Mrs. Ernest Thaxton, "Behold Me Over Yonder." ceremonial by the Girl Reserves, and a musical program and a report on the election. A reception in honor of the newly elected officers and those whose six-year terms expire, was a feature of the program.

AMONG THE CHURCHES

Sermons contributed by Mrs. Theodore Roberts Rutherford, chairman: Mrs. Sallie Washington, Mrs. Julia Lowery, Mrs. Leona Goode and Mrs. Rose Evans.

WEST VIRGINIA

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS

By CLARIE M. BERRY

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W.Va.—Mrs. Ernest Thaxton left Friday for Bordoock, Pa., to attend the funeral of her sister.

The Bethune Grade School has improved its playground under the direction of Charles Summers Arte.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Grant are improving from Miami, Fla., where he has been visiting his son.

William Taylor of the Lewisburg Boiling High School football team, spent the Christmas holidays with his mother in Charleston, W.Va.

Mrs. Ada Jones Burns motored to Pinceville, Va., to spend the holidays with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mays of New York City, formerly of White Sulphur Springs, spent a few days with friends and relatives here. Mrs. Dandridge, before her marriage, was Miss Louise Allen.

Mrs. Mary Booker is spending a few days with friends and relatives in Buchanan, W.Va.

Mrs. Rosa Lee Lightfoot after spending a few days in Lexington, Va., returned to her home in Lynchburg, Va.

Mrs. Odell Williams of New York City was the house guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Beatrice Williams, Mrs. Marvin Baker, during the holidays.

Mrs. Ella Washington, student of Bluefield W.Va., is visiting relatives here.

Miss Ruth Ann Jones of New York and White Sulphur was home over the holidays.

Mrs. Ella Mae Jones, who underwent a tonsil operation with Prof. Harry Burwell as guest of honor, Sunday, and presentation of Golden Lacy, lyric soprano, in recital at Court Street Baptist Church, concluding the week.

The annual meeting program included the reading of a poem on an inspiration by Mrs. Ernest Thaxton, "Behold Me Over Yonder." ceremonial by the Girl Reserves, and a musical program and a report on the election. A reception in honor of the newly elected officers and those whose six-year terms expire, was a feature of the program.

AMONG THE CHURCHES

Sermons contributed by Mrs. Theodore Roberts Rutherford, chairman: Mrs. Sallie Washington, Mrs. Julia Lowery, Mrs. Leona Goode and Mrs. Rose Evans.

CAROLINA

CAROLINA, W.Va. — The monthly meeting of the parent-teacher association was held Friday evening at the Carolina Grade School, with the president, E. L. Gaines, in charge.

The prayer bead met with Mrs. Ivory Jones on Tuesday evening.

Ralph Bailey, who has been ill, is be well again.

Mrs. William Allen is in Birmingham, Ala., where her aunt is very ill.

Mrs. Willie Wilson is visiting her son in Newark, Ohio.

Don't forget your copy of the AFRO-AMERICAN. See Mary Johnson and Lucy Green.

MARTINSBURG

By OSCAR JONES

11 West Green Street

MARTINSBURG, W.Va.—The teachers of Summer High School gave a program at Mt. Zion ME Church. The program consisted of short talks by Miss Bertha Ford, Mr. Williams, a piano solo by Miss Ruth Williams, a duet by Miss Mae Candody and James, and reading by Miss Miss Green and Mr. Woods. The senior class presented by Miss Gaines, furnished the music.

The West Virginia Troubadors have been filling a long engagement at Rosedale Sanitorium for the past week.

The orchestra consists of:

Orlo Thomas, Grant Arrington, Claude Harris, Samuel Woods, Samuel Nash, Jesse Williams, Jesse Lee Jones, Jr. Jones assisted greatly by such artists as Miss Ruth Williams, Miss Mae Candy, Miss Pauline Fisher, Richard Schuyler, Jesse Gibson and Tyree Daughtery.

A musical revue will be given at Summer High School, Friday, January 25. The revue features the West Virginia Troubadors and other local talent, and is directed by Oscar Jones and Miss Bertha Ford and Miss Jones, for the benefit of the Summer High School Athletic Association, the Choral Club and the Junior Recreation Club.

Mrs. Ethel Jones, who underwent a tonsil operation by Quarterback Bill Jones, has started basketball practice, after an undefeated season in football. They scored 278 points to their opponents' 12.

The American Legion held a dance at the Elks.

The Elks entertained J. A. Jackson at a banquet, Monday night.

The teachers of Summer High School and other friends showered Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Williams with many gifts.

Mrs. Ethel Jones Williams was presented a literary and musical program at her home, Friday night.

Mrs. Ora Hughes, regular residence of Washington, D.C., is visiting Friday, February 1, the school will be observed in honor of the parent-teacher association.

CHARLES TOWN

By PAUL L. MORRIS

411 S. Lawrence Street

CHARLES TOWN, W.Va.—Miss Lizzie Jones is ill.

Mrs. Berkley Taylor, who has been sick, is able to be up. She will spend the rest of the winter with her daughter.

Mrs. Ethel Lee is ill.

Miss Anna Galloway, who came home to spend New Year's Day, is still here with her parents.

Miss Mary Ellen Rideout has returned from Washington, where she has been visiting her cousin.

Several sermons are being held at Wainwright First Baptist Church. The Rev. J. H. Jones is pastor.

Mrs. R. W. Dabney, evangelist, of the Ladies' Aid of the Bethel Church, spent at Brunswick, Md., on January 11 and 12.

Mrs. Ora Hughes, who spent at Brunswick, Md., at the Sunday School convention.

Mrs. Alfred Bayloe is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ellis Wilson.

Robert Williams is seeking the whereabouts of his sister, Mary Williams, daughter of Jack Williams. Mary left Mt. Pleasant and moved to Baltimore, and has not been heard of since.

Theodore Clark of Hatch Hill has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams, Sr., for a few days.

Mrs. Ethel Baxter, of Pennsylvania, was a few days here visiting relatives and friends.

Misses Lucille Baylor, Christine White, Elizabeth Lockett and Clara Rideout were callers, Sunday evening, at the home of Mrs. Mary F. Morris, guests of her daughter, Miss Cleo M. Morris.

Mrs. Ella Taylor and son, Daniel, Jr., and Rudolph, spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Littleton Brown.

CHARLESTOWN, W.Va.—Miss Angelique Washington, of Washington, one Morgan co. of Harrisburg, has returned home after visiting friends here.

Among those remain sick who are convalescent are: Mrs. Wainwright, Mrs. Ethel Washington, Miss Anna Galloway, Miss Laura Morgan and Miss Hallie Rutherford.

The officers of Blue Ridge Lodge No. 113, K. P.'s, for the ensuing year, were installed at their last meeting, January 11, by E. G. Washington, of Harper's Ferry, District Deputy. The local lodge will be the host of the district convention which convenes here every time in May, with T. G. Nutter presiding.

ONLEY

ONLEY, Va.—Samuel L. Burton attended the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Daisy S. Floyd in Melfa, Va.

MARTINSBURG

MARTINSBURG, W.Va.—J. A. Jackson was the guest speaker at Mt. Zion M.E. Church, Sunday night.

The Rev. J. H. Woods attended the White Ministerial Alliance of this city.

The Parent-Teacher Association meets at the Summer High School on the second Monday in each month.

Oscar Jones is presenting a review at Summer School on January 25.

The teachers in the city and county will present a program at Mt. Zion M.E. Church, next Sunday evening.

Miss Rebecca of North Charles Street is ill at her home. Miss Ruth Williams is home from Hampton.

Guests were:

Misses Bertha Lee, Tamie Wood, Mildred Williams, Nannie Brown, Helena Ford, Anna Dixon;

Messrs. Clinton Ford, Paul Morgan, Ernest Romans and Calvin Harrison.

The Lincoln School children are served hot lunches every day under the CWA project. J. H. Lewis is principal; Mrs. Lillian Hamilton, assistant, and Mrs. Wyne Wilson is supervisor of the cooking.

Mrs. Belle Gilmore is sick.

Mrs. Allen Worrell is confined to her home with a cold.

Miss Ida Washington continued to be ill.

Miss Lillian Hamilton attended the Upper Potomac River Club meeting at Moorefield, W.Va., Saturday.

Mrs. Ethel Washington entertained the Smart Set Club.

RIDGELEY

RIDGELEY, W.Va.—Mrs. Harry Beckward is visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Burn Johnson, of Lumberport, W.Va.

Master James Galloway, of Patterson Creek is back in school after several days' illness.

Master Joseph Gales fell and broke a bone in his arm.

Mrs. Susan Redmond spent the week-end with her daughter, Mrs. John Cooper, of Cumberland, Md.

Charles Green Sr., is able to be about again.

Harry Beckward is on the sick list.

George Pope spent the week-end in Baltimore.

Hickory's Lodge Number Fourteen met, Friday night, for the purpose of installing officers for the ensuing year. The officers are:

HICKORY

By MISS MENZIE HENDERSON

HICKORY, W.Va.—Rev. Lawson Crider, of Alexandria, Va., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Preston Crider.

Albert Coquett, who has been in Hinton for a few days, returned home last week.

Miss Minnie Copening, who was called home Monday on account of the death of her father, left Wednesday for Sunday for Memphis, Tenn.

Mrs. Ethel Jones, who the week-end in Bluefield.

Mrs. E. L. McFall left Friday afternoon for Hinton, where she will spend the week-end.

Edward Giles, of Lenoir, was in the city Monday on business.

Mrs. Ada Washington, who has been ill is recuperating.

Mrs. Ethel Carter had as her guests, Sunday, Misses Pearson and Mr. Mr. K. C. Holt, the Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jones, the four-course dinner was served.

Miss Thomas Lee Jones, who has been in New York City and Baltimore for several months, returned home.

Mrs. Flossie Simrel, of Washington, D.C., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Ella Jones.

Miss Mildred Copening left Sunday afternoon for Newport News, where she will spend the week-end.

Miss Alice Ransour.

The out-of-town people who attended the funeral of John Frank Jenkins, were Mesdames Ethel Jones, Ella Jones, Ella Ricks, Queen S. Bolton, Cora Boyd.

Mrs. Bruce Wartick left Sunday for Greenville to attend the funeral of her

North Carolina

MT. AIREY

By MRS. G. T. FRANKLIN

MT. AIRY, N.C.—The basketball teams went to North Wilkesboro, N.C., Monday night. The girls defeated the girls' team and brother and granddaughter, Miss Ora Hughes, Mr. Jesse Gilmer, Franklin, Ralphfell Crawford, Ernest Wilson and Reverdy Sandlemon, moved to Winston-Salem, Monday. They went to see Mrs. Ina Sandlemon.

Miss Mary Lewis, Mrs. Chanie Thompson and Mrs. Ada Sandlemon visited in Winston-Salem, Sunday.

Mrs. Mamie Hughes is ill at her home on South Street.

A. C. Crawford and two sons, Charles and Alphonso Crawford, of Columbus, Ohio, spent the week-end with their parents on Rockford Street.

Mesdames Williams and Mrs. Edward Williams were very ill at their home on Williams Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, Sr., spent Friday in Greensboro, N.C., visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jones.

An entertainment was given at the home of Miss Lucy Staples, Saturday night.

Mrs. Mamie Hammock is very ill.

ROCKY MOUNT

ROCKY MOUNT, N.C.—Mrs. Margarette Ricks was called to Bristol, Pa., on account of the death of her father, Mr. brother, Albert Rowe, of that city. On her return Mrs. Ricks spent several days in New York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore.

The Mu-So-Lit Club met with Mrs. Sandlin, Tuesday evening. Officers for the year were elected, program for the year was mapped out and prepared.

Mesdames Mrs. E. C. Hunter, Mrs. B. Lawrence, Mrs. A. Sherrod, Mrs. I. Edgerton, Mrs. L. Mann, Mr. Rowe, and M Mrs. Mrs. Mrs.