Last Rites in Lynchburg for Mrs. M. W. Richardson

LYNCHBURG, Va.—Mrs. Maria Waller Richardson, 2007 Rose Street, died December 10, after being sick about ten days.

She was corresponding secretary of the Woman's State Educational and Missionary Convention of Virginia and one of the founders and a faithful member of White Rock Baptist Church, where her funeral was held Friday with the pastor, the Rev. W. E. Frye, officiating.

She was also a member of the Ladies' Aid Board which has consistently supported Virginia Seminary.

The Rev. Mr. Frye delivered the eulogy and the Rev. E. T. Hendersin read the resolutions and telegrams. Dr. M. A. Hunter, instructor at Virginia Seminary, was the official representative of the school, and President Powell also spoke.

Among those sending telegrams were: Mrs. C. E. Jones, Newport News, Va., president Woman's State Educational and Missionary Convention of Virginia; Mrs. M. E. Gordon and Dr. C. P. Madison, Norfolk, the latter president of the Virginia Baptist State Convention. Mis M. Thelma Ward, secretary of Virginia Seminary, read resolutions from the school and student council.

Mrs. Millie J. Thompson and Mrs. C. N. Hawk, of Baltimore, were among the out-of-town persons who attended the funeral. Bessie Walker sang solos and Mrs. Mildred Carlisle was organist.

Mrs. Richardson is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Jennie Campbell, Jamaica, N. Y.; Mrs. Cornelia Fowler, Newark, N. J.; Mrs. Cornelia Early, Lawrenson, Va., and one sister in Hampton.
