The Fast Sailing Schooner

ELIZA ANN,

Capt. John A. Catruf, Master, Capacity 5,500 bushels, makes regular trips between Wye River and its tributaries and Baltimore. Grain and all other kinds of freight freighted on moderate terms. Ample store room for grain at Skipton Landing. Orders left with George E. Bowdoin & Co., Bowley's Wharf; Kenley & Tilghman, Bowley's Wharf, and Emory & Neavitt, 83 South street, Baltimore, promptly attended to. The patronage of the public solicited. All orders for goods must be accompanied with the CASH. Orders received at Skipton by the Captain or J. A. F. Neal.

N. B.—The Granary at Skipton Landing has been raised two feet above tide, thoroughly repaired and strengthened, and made perfectly secure for the storage of grain. Having leased the granary for a number of years, and embarked generously in the boating business, I have ample granary and boating facilities for accommodating the business of the neighborhood, and respectfully solicit the public patronage. TO FARMERS.

I have for sale a new variety of wheat which has been grown in the counties of Queen Anne's and Talbot for the past six years. The yield has never been less than 18 bushels for one seeding and has been as high as 40 for one. The grain in appearance is like Fultz. The great virtue of this wheat lies in the strength of the straw, and the size of the head. I really believe some of the heads in my field this year contained as many as 85 grains. I have a limited quantity which I desire to sell for seed, and shall be glad to give further particulars to any desiring to try what I consider an unusually productive wheat. Price at the barn $2.00 per bushel. Samples may be seen at Dawson & Bros., and the office of this paper.

SOUTHERN INDUSTRIES.

What the South Wants is Action and Common Sense.

[illegible] of Georgia, the Industrial South, says: I am tired of hearing the depreciating cry "We want Yankee brains and enterprise." We don't want any such thing, we want Southern brain and enterprise. The South wants [illegible] The old ruling class was not, and is not, a more inefficient class than the same strata in New England. On the contrary, history shows that they compared ourselves to the King of Beasts, the Lion, excelled the North. We had more good statesmen and orators than the North. Our military men were the foremost. In manners and taste the South, with all her smaller cities and sparse population, was at least equal, and abroad held superior to the North. In physical development they are, and have been, superiors of the North. Slavery prevented manufactures and commerce, and interfered with common education, and therefore, was a block to most of the progress of modern civilization, mechanic arts, roads, buildings, ships, and all that. It prevented inventions and the intelligent use of the bounties already shown. It shared against economy and self restrain. But slavery is gone, and gone forever, and the road to progress lies full and free before us.

If we take the old slave line as the border of the South, we have a larger and better surface and soil than the North, and also better climes. We are the place of the great world's staples, cotton, corn (maize), tobacco and rice. There are yet vast fields to be occupied with the sugar cane. The cotton and all these other staples should reach their highest preparation for consumption. We have all the minerals of the world.

We have the clime for the best peaches, apples and cherries, not to speak of the orange, banana, lemon and many small fruits. The vine and silk culture must succeed here, if any where in America. The South has the best timber; the wood of the sunny clime is firmer, stronger and more varied than in the North, and its growth more rapid. When the forestry becomes an art and culture, as it will, the South will be the place of the highest success.

When sorghum and the sugar beet, the one for stock and the other for sugar, shall become great staples, and they will in time, the South will be the place for their culture. We have also the site for flax and hemp, and the best wheat and barley.

There is plenty of capital in the South for all legitimate purposes. Where comes the money for our foreign travel, our summer watering places, our extravagance in household and personal decoration? We have enough to begin with, and more will join us if need be, as in our new cotton factories.

We should begin with the manufacture of such of our staples as maize, wheat and oats, in distilling and in grinding—in wool as well as cotton.—We should move slowly, first crawl, then toddle, then up and walk as the boy and man. Let all the talkers of a city, and village, and cross roads, get together and "strike out" by forming a joint stock company to make horse shoes, hoes, axes, especially the wooden parts of the same. For this the best machinery known should be used to save the expenditure of the labor. Much of this must be imported—import also the skilled men to operate it at the beginning. Everywhere let one intelligent man study the surroundings. At one place he believes, needs, chisel and ax handles, and all that is best, at another coal mining, slate, clay and such industries as are proper; staves, railroad ties and barrels.

[illegible] to the fact, for it must at some time rival cotton. The beet has not been a success in America, because it has been grown down North—the South is the place. The company should start on a small scale, raise some beets themselves, engage others, send prudent men to France and other countries to study their machinery and methods, and then enlarge operations only with successful experience. I stake my reputation for judgment on this industry. Sugar is one of the greatest luxuries of life, is a most agreeable and wholesome food. It grows (the beet) in the purest and most healthy climes, it gives employment to men, women and children, and the refuse is a most valuable food for stock. Who will deserve the gratitude of all America and the world by making the beet sugar cultivation a success?

Northern productions may excel ours in some fruits, but they are few. The potato does best there now under our present culture, but the South has learned something about potatoes, and begins to rival them. Some Northern apples now excel ours, but it is because vermin do not destroy them. After long experience, I believe the apple is best south of thirty-eight degrees north. They have beaten us in hay only because we allowed them to do so. Their climate may allow them to [illegible] better grazing for cows and sheep, [illegible] before in butter and cheese. [illegible] field lies open for [illegible] I know that last year, [illegible] in Kentucky, the [illegible] grass, all through, and there is no doubt better feed than red clover for sheep, cows or cattle.

In fishing the North now is ahead of us, but the South is full of the finest fish, and the time is near when they will be utilized. All our sea coasts are full of fine fish, and if the carp, the "domestic fish," succeeds at all, it must be in the South. We have but one thing to contend against, and that is self-satisfaction.

Pigs, says a writer, will not always eat, and never can be fattened upon raw potatoes, while, if they are boiled, next to boiled peas, perhaps, will bring them to the greatest weight they are capable of attaining, and to greater perfection than anything else that may be continuously used with safety. It is the experience of every successful farmer that one bushel of corn meal mixed with four bushels of boiled potatoes gives a very satisfactory feed for pigs.

Paint applied to buildings in autumn is more durable than if applied at any other time.

Malaria, Chills and Fever and Bilious attacks positively cured with Conroy's Scarlet Gum Pills—an infallible remedy: never fail to cure the most obstinate, long standing cases where Quinine and all other remedies had failed. They are prepared expressly for malarious sections. In double boxes, two kinds of Pills, containing a strong cathartic and a chill breaker, sugar-coated; contain no Quinine or Mercury, causing no griping, sickening or mild and efficient. Certain in their action and harmless. They effectually cleanse the system, and give new life and tone to the body. As a household remedy they are unrivaled. For Liver Complaint their equal is not known; one box will have a wonderful effect on the worst case. They are used and prescribed by Physicians. THE GOLDEN SHEAF.

A Fertilizer specially adapted to the Soil of the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

$20 PER TON.

Sold at a very small profit on cost of production and clear of Agents' commissions.

THIS COMPOSTED NO ARCANE

Made Without Sand or Dirt.

FOR SALE BY

THE OXFORD GUANO CO., Oxford, Md.

W. H. SETH, Secretary.

The attention of the farmer who desires to secure a good fertilizer at a reasonable price, is respectfully called to the above named brand.

The object of the manufacturers has been to originate a compound of plant foods directly adapted to the soil of the Eastern Shore of Maryland, and to fix the price therefor at the lowest possible figures; cutting off all agents fees of $5 and $6 per ton and adding to the actual cost only a very small profit. We think this fertilizer has as much intrinsic value as most of the high priced manures, and feel confident that farmers who may think proper to use it will say that in its effects upon the soil, it will equal them.

The analysis, as made by Prof G. A. Liebig, shows it to contain:—

Ammonia, from	.75 to 1.25 per cent.
Phosphoric Lime, from	5.00 to 7.00 "
Lime	32.10 "
Carbonic Acid	26.07 "

The lime and carbon, which are essential to plant growth, are obtained from oyster shells [illegible] instead of being burnt. This combined with nearly disposable vegetable matter, acts as a carrier for the chemicals, and is a most valuable assistant to their action.

We are also manufacturing ground lime, which we propose to put upon the market at a low price. aug30-3m

Favorite's Graetorex, No. 5,898,

Sire Graetorex, 4,218; Grand-Sire Rex, 1,330. Dam, Gay Primrose, 10,645. Dropped May 15th, 1881. Bred by Lyman A. Mills, Middlefield, Connecticut.

Among the Jersey families of recognized excellence none stand higher than the Rex family. Graetorex 4,218 stands at the head of the Broadmoor farm herd, Portland, Maine, at $100 per service, and Rex 1,330 is at the head of the Simpson herd, New York, and stands also at $100 per service (see advertisement "Country Gentleman"). Rex 1,330 is considered the best bull in America, and was purchased last December by his present owner at a cost of $3,500. "Favorite of the Elms" 1856, the Grand-dam of Gay Primrose, has a butter record of 17 pounds 5 ounces per week, and her owner, Mr. John J. Holly, of New Jersey, has refused $2,000 for her.

At the auction sale of the herd of Jersey cattle of Messrs. Corps, Maddux & Co., at New York on Friday, May 12th, 65 head of cattle brought an average of $622.77 per head. This sale shows the present value of high-bred Jerseys.

Meat Market.

This is to inform the public that I have purchased the stand in the Easton Market lately occupied by Mr. Caleb Griffin, and will be in the market every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, with a well-stocked stall of the best of meat—veal, lamb, mutton, beef, pork, &c. I solicit a share of the public patronage.

The highest market price paid for beeves, veals, lambs, muttons and porkers. Shall be glad to hear from those having well fatted stock for sale.

L. G. DAWSON.

BRICK AND TILE.

Salmon Brick, Arch Brick, Red Brick, Paving Brick, Well Brick, Pressed Brick, and from 2 to 7 inches vent, at all prices, from $12 to $75 per thousand.

WE are now prepared to deliver bricks in any part of Talbot county, or anywhere on the water or on railroad out of the county, at 20 per cent. BELOW OLD PRICES, for the cash. We have a heavy stock on hand, of splendid quality, and are determined to command the brick trade of this section. If SUPERIOR BRICKS and LOW FIGURES will do it.

Our stock of Tile is very heavy, and we sell it very low for cash; but are prepared to enter into arrangements with farmers, who may want to put in tile, and who may not have the cash, to give them six or nine months credit. The tile ought to go in, and the spring land be made productive, and we are willing to help those who are short of money.

We invite a call from all those in want of either brick or Tile.
