In Baltimore, Rev. Dr. F. T Little, of Chestertown, will succeed President John S. Bowers at Allnutt Memorial Church.

W. T. Gilly, a prominent dealer in Pennington Gap, Va., was so bothered with kidney and bladder trouble that he could not attend to business. He says, "I had severe pains in my back and kidneys and had to get up ten to fifteen times each night. Saw Foley Kidney Pills advertised and bought two bottles, and soon felt great relief, and was entirely cured. No longer disturbed at night, but sleep till morning." For sale by C. H. Winter Injury of Shrubs and Fruits.

The very serious winter weather in January and February has caused quite extensive injuries to many shrubs and trees in Maryland, and no doubt during the coming season, and probably in years following, many obscure troubles will be noticed which can be referred back to the weather this past year. Of course, the buds of peach and some other fruit tress have been practically all killed in many parts of the State. As a rule, the fruit buds of other species have not been hurt much, and as the ground was fortunately covered by snow, the roots of all plants did not suffer, and the small herbaceous trees being enterely covered will come out in unusually good condition. The most serious injury has been to the wood of many trees and shrubs. Many shrubs usually hardy have been killed to the snow line, although in many cases the bark and buds appear alright, the wood and cambium, however, being entirely dead. This applies especially to California privet hedge and most roses, also to some spireas and other ornamental shrubs. If these shrubs are cut back now to the uninjured wood, they will in most cases recover, also buds at the base of the plants. The wood of peach trees in some parts of the State, where the temperature went to 20 below zero or more has been killed and in such cases if the trees are cut back to the wood a half inch in diameter, they will usually make a better recovery than if cut very severely. Some varities of apple show wood which is blackened even worse than the peach wood, but growers should not be alarmed as trees so affected will recover much better than peach and usually need very little treatment except to give them best conditions for active growth.
