...HING A BULLET OUT OF HIS ...—The Greenville (S. C.) Mountaineer chronicles a singular case. Mr. William Beattie, a young gentleman of that town was shot in the eye during the war, the bullet lodging in his head—internally. The most eminent surgical skill failed to extract this ball, and Mr. Beattie has from time to time suffered much from it. A few nights ago Mr. B. was seized with a violent fit of coughing, during which he felt something fall into his mouth. It proved to be the bullet which had been hidden in his head five or six years. This bullet which weighs but a half an ounce, had worked itself slowly into the channel of the larynx, and the convulsive effort of coughing releasing its hold, it fell, by its own gravity, through the said channel.

IMPORTANT DOCTRINAL DECISION.—The Church Association of London has recently prosecuted the Rev. Mr. Bennett for teaching doctrine contrary to that held by the English Church on the Holy Communion. The reverend gentlemen, probably because he thought the court, which was not composed entirely of members of his communion, incompetent to try him on such a charge, refused to appear before it. The trial proceeded, however, notwithstanding his absence. Intelligence has been received in this city that he has been sustained in the main points of his teaching, and that the court has decided that the doctrine of the Real Presence is held by the English Church.—Newark N. J. Journal.

SPURGEON'S VIEW OF THE WAR.—Mr. Spurgeon, the great London preacher, in alluding to the Franco-Prussian war, lately said:

"I wish these kings of the earth would sometimes do their own fighting, instead of getting their soldiers to fight for them. It would not be a bad idea if Napoleon and the King of Prussia would come over to England and fight it out. I am quite sure the police would wink at the matter, and, for my own part, I would be willing to hold their coats, and I would cheer each one on, and say; "Hit him hard; I think he deserves it."

A NICE ALLY.—General Garibaldi is reported as having offered his services to Prussia. He is the same old blasphemer who declared JOHN BROWN, the Kansas horse-thief, to be superior to JESUS CHRIST. King William will hardly encourage such a restless bandit and rabid anarchist.

GLORIOUS NEWS!

The Dark Days of Extortion have passed away!

Universal Deliverance from High Prices

IS AT HAND!

LISTEN TO THE GLAD TIDINGS!

Muslins 6¼ cents, worth 10 cents; Muslins 12½ and 14 cents, worth 15 and 17 cents; Standard Prints 6¼ cents; best American and Sprague Prints 10 and 11½ cents; Jaconet Lawns to land in New York markets cost 10 cents in gold—WE SELL THEM AT 12½ cents.

GOODS ARRIVING

EVERY FEW DAYS!

Always something new; cheap and desirable. What think you of a Grenadine Shawl worth $2.75 at $1.25? Half a million dozen best 200 yards Spool Cotton 4 cents. It is a miracle! It is wonderful!! It is astonishing!!! How can it be possible? Sell goods at such prices and not fail! Best Aixlachapelle Pins and gold-eye Needles 3 cents a paper; best Aixlachapelle Broad Cloths and other articles, which have almost driven even English goods out of the American market—all these at

ONE-HALF AND QUARTER PRICES.

This is indeed a bitter pill for the so-called cheap stores, and a glorious wind-shake for the people. Altogether, it is a tremendous affair, and will call forth from its hiding place many a dollar laid by for a rainy day. Real Lace Collars, importation price $1.25, we sell them for 25 cents; Hooks and Eyes 3 cents; Hair Pins 3 cents; Hair Nets 3 cents; Ladies and Misses Lisle-thread Gloves at 12½; 15 and 20 cents; Ladies', Misses and Boys' Hose 12½ and 15 cents. Upon

RIBBONS AND VELVETS.

We are the king-bees of the city. Every thing in this line about 50 per cent. less than the usual price.

Table Linen 37½, 45 and 50 cents; superior quality 10-4 Table Linen 65 cents, 87½ cents and $1.00. Where else on earth can such bargains be had? Where elegant striped Delaines and Plaids for 10 and 12½ cents?

Why Pay War Prices for Goods,

when you can come to No. 17 West Patrick Street, and get elegant French Percals for 18, 20 and 25 cents? All 37½ Dress Goods for 20 cents; all 50 cents Dress Goods for 25 cents; Ladies' Fine linen Collars and Cuffs at 5, 8, 12½ and 15 cents. A large and well selected stock of WHITE GOODS, such as Piques, Brilliants, Plaid snd French Muslins at prices amazingly low. A complete stock of Straw Goods 50 per cent. Cheaper than the Regular Price.

FLOWERS, the rarest, choicest and fairest, at 5, 8, 10, 15 and 20 cents.

So we urge the people to be cautious in buying of houses that never take the trouble and pains to hunt for bargains, but buy of men who understand the business, men who have agents living in New York city, in the Auction Rooms of Hogourt, Gordon, Kobbe, Hoyt and Toping; men whose sharp-shooters are ever in the front; aye, buy of the house whose enormous trade is doubling every month, and who are the real defenders of the people against speculators, cormorants, and the so-called cheap stores all over the city—and never forget the name and place,
