ARE YOU MARRIED? IF SO THIS IS WHAT THE NEW TAX LAW SAVES YOU

Washington, Dec. 20.—The following table shows the total income tax a married man (without dependents or children) will pay uder the new tax law, together with a comparison of what he has paid under the old law.

Income	old law.	new law.
$ 2,500	$ 20	None
3,000	40	20
4,000	80	60
5,000	120	100
6,000	170	160
7,000	270	250
8,000	370	340
10,000	590	520
12,000	830	720
14,000	1,090	950
16,000	1,370	1,180
18,000	1,670	1,440
20,000	2,560	1,720
25,000	2,560	2,280

If he has children or other dependents he is entitled to an additional $400 exemption for each child or other dependent. Under the old law he was entitled to only $200 exemption. These exemptions apply only to those with incomes of less than $5,000 a year. Under the new law, however, a married man with six children would be entitled to $4,900 exemptions before he began t o pay any income tax $2,500 exemption as a married man and $400 for each of the six children.

A feature of the new law not generally recognized is that there is no change whatever in the tax laws for this year, other than in the individual income class. Corporations and partnerships will continue to pay taxes under the old law passed in 1918. The new tax regulations covering corporations and partnerships do not become effective until January 1, 1922, and the first taxes collected under them will not be till March, 1923. It will, therefore, be more than 16 months before a corporation or a partnership will feel the effect, in actual tax payments, of the new law.

VILLAGE POSTMISTRESS CAN HAVE HUSBAND AND JOB,TOO

Washington, Dec. 21.—No longer will the village postmistress have to choose between her job and matrimony. She may have both, so Postmaster General Hays has just ruled following a long personal appeal from Mrs. H. Gardner, member of the Civil Service Commission.

There has been no law on the subject, but heretofore the practice in the Postoffice Department when a postmistress marries has been to require that she secure a new appointment execute a new bond, or pass a civil service examination in competition with others seeking the office.

Mrs. Gardner termed it an obviously unjust condition." The opinion of the solicitor of the department was asked and his recommendation, on which the Postmaster General acted, was not only that there was no legal obstacle other than department rulings, but that the old regulations were a restriction upon marriage and therefore "against public policy."

The man who is always parting with his money is not necessarily "a man of parts."
