Mrs. Josephine Montgomery Webb

The passing of Mrs. Josephine Montgomery Webb in Boston, on January 1, 1937, was quite a shock to her relatives and friends, for her illness was quite brief.

Mrs. Webb, although residing in Boston for several years, was a native of Charleston, S. C. A granddmother, the late Mrs. A. M. Montgomery, was a member of the Century Society of Charleston, S. C., an organization founded over one hundred years ago by free-born people of Charleston.

Two of Mrs. Webb's grandnieces (brothers of her grandfather) were among the early settlers of Liberia, and a daughter of one of her uncles was the FIRST wife of the late Bishop Ferguson, of the Episcopal Church of Liberia.

Whenever Bishop Ferguson visited Charleston, S. C., he was always entertained by Mrs. Webb's grandparents.

Mrs. Webb was buried beside her husband, Nathan, who preceded her by almost 18 years. She was greatly missed by her brothers and sisters who adored her. She leaves to mourn her loss two brothers in Washington, D. C.—Mr. Joe H. Montgomery, Mr. Raymond A. Montgomery, Sr., sisters—Mrs. Fletcher and Mrs. E. Gantte, in Roxbury, Mass., Mrs. Thos. Reid, and in Montclair, N. J., Mr. J. M. Owens, of 129 Harrington Avenue.

One uncle in Charleston, Mr. W. S. Montgomery, who has been a veteryman in Saint Marks Episcopal Church for a number of years.

May the soul of Mrs. Webb rest in peace.
