Begin Now

Come and have it explained

The Christmas Savings Idea is not new, but it is not generally known here how it works.

We will have six classes of savings, which can be worked either up or down, that is, increasing and decreasing each week from the smallest to the largest, until the last week the opposite amount is paid, viz:—

In the 2c class, the first week, paying UP, 2c is paid in; the next week, 4c; the next, 6c; the next 8c, each week adding 2c. At the end of 50 weeks when the Christmas checks are sent out, you will receive $26.74.

If you decide to pay DOWN, $1.00 is paid in the first week, 98c the second, 96c the third, decreasing 2c each week. The last week only 2c is paid, and then you receive a check for $27.09.

The same method applies to the other classes.

4% interest is paid on these acounts as soon as $5 is paid.

How to Save

EXCELLENT SPEAKERS TO ADDRESS MARYLAND AGRICULTURAL SOC.

College Park, Md. Dec. 31.—The new attitude of the business man to the farmer, the important part that agriculture is playing in national legislation, proposed Maryland laws bearing on the farming industry and details of the recently organized State-wide purchasing corporation, will be among the important subjects discussed by leading speakers at the annual meeting of the Maryland Agricultural Society and affiliated organizations at the Southern Hotel, Baltimore, January 10 to 12.

The program for the joint sessions announced by Dr. Thomas B. Symons, Secretary of the organization, includes the following speakers: A. S. Goldsborough, of the Baltimore Merchants and Manufacturer's Association, on "The Natural Brotherhood of the Maryland Farmer and the Baltimore Business Man;" Senator Irvine L. Lenroot of Wisconsin on "Some Phases of the Agricultural Problem;" Senator T. H. Caraway, of Arkansas on "The Farmer's Viewpoint on Legislation;" Gray Silver, Washington representative of the American Farm Bureau Federation; Governor Albert C. Ritchie; State Senators Orlando Harrison, Frank W. Mish, R. S. Snader and S. L. Byrn; Dr. A. F. Woods, president of the University of Maryland; C. E. Bryan, president of the Agricultural Corporation of Maryland; J. H. Kimble, of Port Deposit; and D. G. Harry, of Pylesville, now president of the Maryland Agricultural Society. The address of welcome will be made by Mayor W. F. Broening and the response by R. D. Sloan, of Lonaconing.

The joint sessions will be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons and on Thursday morning when officers will be elected. Meetings of the affiliated organizations will be on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings. A theatre party for Wednesday evening has been arranged for all members of the organizations by the Merchants and Manufacturers Association.

The marketing of farm products will be given more than usual consideration by the affiliated organizations. The State Horticultural Society has secured two well-known authorities, J. C. Folger, of the International Apple Shippers Association, and C. E. Bassett, of the North American Fruit Exchange, who will discuss fruit and vegetable marketing at the meeting of the organization Wednesday morning.

The Maryland Crop Improvement Association at its meeting on Tuesday morning, will listen to a discussion of the wheat grading standards which have an important bearing on the marketing of the Maryland wheat crop. Harold Anderson, an expert from the United States Department of Agriculture, and J. W. Henderson, of Germantown, are scheduled to take the leading part in this discussion.

Henry S. Horkheimer, of Baltimore, and A. Loffler, of Washington, are both business men who have consented to address the Sheep Growers' Association Tuesday morning in an effort to point out the market requirements for both wool and mutton. Mr. Horkheimer will show how wool should be graded to demand the best market price, while Mr. Loffler will similarly point out the qualities in sheep and lambs for which buyers offer the best prices.

Richard Patee, manager of the New England Milk Producers' Association, will discuss the best methods of marketing dairy products before the members of the State Dairymen's Association on Wednesday morning. The Maryland Tobacco Growers have likewise planned marketing discussions which will be led by W. Mitchell Digges of Charles County, and G. I. Gardner, manager of the organization, at the meeting Wednesday morning.

IT'S NOT AN IRISH POTATO

Washington, Jan. 2.—The name of Irish potato is a misnomer, for the potato is really a native of America. It was discovered here in 1588 by Europeans and first used by them as an article of food. It is found growing wild in various parts of South America. It is used as food all over the world.

The reason it wasc alled the Irish potato is that it was adopted as one of the chief articles of food by the Irish people and is one of the principal food products of Ireland. The potato famine in Ireland in 1845-46 resulted in many deaths from starvation and caused many of the Irish to emigrate to America. The population of Ireland has decreased from 8,000,000 in 1845 to less than 4,500,000 in 1921.
