365 NEW DAYS
what will you do with them?

At every turn, friends you a Prosper-
you New Year.

They are saying that money will be plentiful for you; that your investments and your crops bear rich returns. They are saying that every new year will be better than the old.

But do you know that your happiness—your health and standards of life—are not dependent on money?

We wish you a Prosperous New Year and to make it, too.

Get your free investment advice
Loan you money.
Pay you interest on Savings.

The Peoples Bank
(Cheswold, Md.)

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. John Dahlen, of Chestertown, was killed in the plane crash at Philadelphia Wednesday night. He was on his way to New York for a business conference and was scheduled to return to Chesapeake Avenue, P. O. Box 327, Chestertown, earlier today.

Mr. Dahlen leaves a widow and a son, John Dahlen, Jr., both of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Smith, who were married in 1942, celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary
this week. They have two children,
Mary and John, both of Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith, of Philadelphia, are visiting relatives in Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Smith, who have been married for 30
years, celebrated their anniversary
this week. They have two children,
John and Mary, both of Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith have celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary this week. They have two children, John and Mary, both of Chestertown.

Charles Smith has been a member of the Chestertown
Fire Department since 1952.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Smith,
who have been married for 25
years, celebrated their anniversary
this week. They have two children,
John and Mary, both of Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Smith,
who have been married for 25
years, celebrated their anniversary
this week. They have two children,
John and Mary, both of Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Smith,
who have been married for 25
years, celebrated their anniversary
this week. They have two children,
John and Mary, both of Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Smith,
who have been married for 25
years, celebrated their anniversary
this week. They have two children,
John and Mary, both of Chestertown.