A. K. A. Sorority Fetes High School Girl Grads

The Epsilon Omega Chapter of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority entertained the girls of the Douglass February 38 graduating class, at a tea, Sunday, at Cosmopolitan Church.

Miss Mabel E. Lockes, president of the chapter, welcomed the group and stated the reason for the gathering, which she gave as:

The inspire them to higher scholarship and nobler ideals as they enter college, normal school or the world.

Mrs. Vivian Cook, chairman of the Guidance Committee, presided and introduced the speaker, Miss Bertha McNeal, of Washington, D.C. Miss McNeal is a teacher of journalism at Dunbar High, Washington, and a member of the World Peace Conference, recently held in Geneva.

"Before the talk, however, the group was entertained by a solo from Mrs. E. D. Gray, a member of the sorority.

Miss McNeal spoke of the need for active young women in our communities. She told of her visits to Europe as delegate to the Youth Education Conference in Czechoslovokia, of how the young women and men of other lands inspired her, and how she wished that more of our young women would interest themselves in the world and others.

Mrs. Lillian Parrott, also a member of the sorority, rendered a solo. Tea was then served.
