WPA Worker Held in Fatal Gym Battle

Knifing of 3 Laid to George Allen in Basketball Tilt

George Allen, 23, WPA worker, was charged with fatally stabbing Howell Pack, 21, of 1142 Stricker Street, in a free-for-all fight during a basketball game in a recreation center at School 112 on Tuesday night.

Arraigned before Magistrate Harry Fine on Thursday, Allen, who lives at 1516 Mulberry Street, was held for a further hearing after Pack succumbed in Provident Hospital with a stab wound of the chest.

Fight Over Game

The melee was started when new at of the contestants, playing in the school gym objected to participation by Allen, said to have been an expert player.

When Harry Hurley, 23, of 1256 Stockton Street, allegedly began to fight with Allen, the latter reputedly took out a penknife and began slashing. When the affray ended, Hurley had been cut on the neck, David Jones, 19, of 1029 Harlem Avenue, cut on the finger, and Pack stabbed in the chest.

Sergeant John Schmitt of the Northwestern district arrested Hurley and Jones. The latter was fined $1 and costs, for disturbing the peace, while Hurley was held with bail for a further hearing as a State's witness.

Denies Having Knife

Allen was arrested after Pack died. The athletic instructor denied having a knife, it was said, stating that he picked up a piece of broken bottle with which to defend himself when the other three attacked him.

Several witnesses stated that Allen brandished a small pen knife, but no weapon was recovered.

Stray Bullet Kills Breadwinner, 19

A youth, the sole support of his mother, was slain by a stray bullet, Sunday, when two men sought to settle a grudge with another in a tavern at Gilmor Street and Edmondson Avenue.

The pair escaped after exchanging more than a score of shots with Patrolman Harold Weitman of the Northwestern district. Regular haunts of the alleged killers are being watched for their appearance.

Attracted by Commotion

The youth, James Bass, 19, of 400 N. Bruce Street, was struck by a bullet as he and another friend approached the tavern after being attracted by several women running from the place.

He was picked up from the pavement near the tavern in an unconscious condition and pronounced dead at Franklin Square Hospital, where he had been taken in a passing car by Nathaniel Woods of 437 N. Gilmor Street.

Death was caused by a bullet which pierced the youth's heart after entering his body below the left shoulder.

Thomas Murray, of 1512 Franklin Street, close friend of the dead youth over a long period of years, told the AFRO the following story on Monday:

Went to Side Door

"While on our way home from a neighborhood movie, we saw several women run from the tavern at Gilmor Street and Edmondson Avenue, so we went to the side door to see what the trouble was.

"As we reached the door, two men came around the corner and started shooting when within a few feet of the door. One of the bullets went inside the place and one of them struck Bass, who was directly in the line of fire.

"The injured man ran about seventy-five feet then collapsed. While another friend took him to the hospital, I got into a taxi that drove up with an officer and showed him the direction taken by the killers.

Officers Fire on Pair

"They were finally seen hiding behind a parked automobile in the 500 block of Gilmor Street. When they saw the officer, they began shooting, and he emptied his revolver at them during the exchange of shots. While the latter was reloading his weapon, the pair escaped through a nearby alley."

According to Sergeant John Schmitt, investigating the shooting, the pair entered the tavern with their hands in their pockets and demanded Clifford Smith, of 1631 Mulberry Street, to tell them where they could find another man, against whom they were reported to have had a grudge for over a year.

When Smith replied that he didn't know, the spokesman for the pair, allegedly said "I'll give you three chances to tell me what I want to know and if you don't, I'm going to kill you."

Just after Smith had been asked a second time, the proprietor succeeded in inducing the pair to leave the place. It was at this time that the women became frightened and ran through the front door.

Bass had been employed at a local soda water company for more than a year and was the sole support of his widowed mother and sister.

Body of Recluse Found Because Boy Is Curious

The curiosity of a 10-year-old boy resulted in the discovery of the body of an aged white recluse in his locked and shuttered home in the 1000 block Bennett Place, last week.

The boy, Gilbert Tyler, of 1029 Bennett Place, became suspicious and notified police when he observed that the milk and papers had not been taken in for two days.

Find Body on Floor

An investigation by Sergeant John Schmitt of Northwestern district revealed the body of Charles Maurer, 80, sprawled on the dusty floor of the front room. A candle burned nearby with its wick nearly immersed in melted tallow.

The man's aged sister, Miss Carrie Maurer, 83, was found in a weakened condition in a room on one of the upper floors of the three-story house.

She had not eaten since her brother last brought a tray of food upstairs on Wednesday morning, she said. The woman was taken to a nearby hospital and detained.

Jobless Begin Rush for Work

With the hope of getting employment early next year, the rush of the unemployed to register with the State employment offices began this week.

David L. B. Fringer, white, State director, requested persons expecting to apply for benefit after January 1, to call at the office and be interviewed for employment.

With Warren Adams, white, successor to Capt. W. K. Weaver, taking over the directorship of the employment service, organization for handling unemployment compensation applications next month is complete.

Youth, 18, Arrested on Burglary Count

Accused of looting a chain grocery store of $4.15 on Friday, Albert Dorsey, 18, of 1354 Stockton Street, was held for further hearing before Magistrate Frank Fox in the Southwestern district.

Police said two other youths who reputedly accompanied Dorsey at the time of the alleged crime escaped and are wanted for questioning.

Ten Men Fined for Attending Disorderly Party

Said to have been attending a disorderly party in a house at 619 Conway Street, Saturday night, ten men were fined $1 and costs upon appearing before a magistrate in the Western district.

Those arrested were:

John Williams, 30, of 538 Eislen Street; John Jones, 24, 619 Conway Street; James Sample, 24, 713 Saratoga Street; Calvin Gaines, 28, 629 Archer Street; John Hardy, 28, 613 Conway Street.

Nealy Saunders, 28, 921 Fayette Street; Earl Dobson, 24, 806 S. Fremont Avenue; Herman Parker, 22, 538 Conway Street; Sam Lee, 36, 737 Dover Street and William Cooper, 28, of 1057 W. Lexington Street.

Husband Wins 6-Year-Old Divorce Case, 5 Children

A suit for absolute divorce which dragged through circuit court No. 2 for six years finally ended here, last week, when George Ringgold of 2307 McCulloh Street won the case originally instituted by his wife, Mrs.-Caroling Ringgold in December, 1931.

Mr. Ringgold was also given the guardianship and custody of the five minor children, Roscoe Otia, Ruth, Mildred and Wallace Ringgold for whom he said he had provided ever since his wife left him ten years ago.

Wife Charge Cruelty

In her petition, Mrs. Ringgold charged her husband with cruelty, declaring that his treatment of her had become so unbearable she was forced to leave their home. She said he had not provided for her adequately before or since the separation which occurred on March 16, 1928. They were married on March 15, 1918.

A decree pro confesso was passed on April 1, 1932 when Ringgold failed to answer the charges preferred by his wife, but no final decree was obtained.

Three years later in October, 1935 Ringgold re-opened the case when he filed a petition requesting that the decree be stricken out so that he might answer the suit.

Denies Wife's Accusation

The petition was granted by Judge Dennis and Ringgold filed an answer denying his wife's charges of cruelty and non-support. In a cross-bill he accused his wife of desertion and asked an absolute divorce and custody of the six children George, 17; Roscoe, 16; Otai, 15; Ruth, 13; Mildred 12; and Wallace, 10.

Mrs. Ringgold who is said to be living in New York filed an answer to the cross-bill emphatically denying the desertion.

"She just wanted excitement," Ringgold testified before an examiner concerning the circumstances surrounding the separation. "I provided for her as best I could and when I came home she had gone." She said nothing to him before her departure, he stated.

He gave lack of funds as the reason he had waited so long to answer his wife's charges. During cross examination by his wife's attorney, Roy Bond Mr. Ringgold said she had never sent anything to the children except some toys to the youngest child at one time.

Mrs. Bertha C. Bowie, of 1105 W. Lanvale Street, sister of Mr. Ringgold was witness for him.

McDaniels Is Picked to Head City Workers

A new slate of officers headed by Gough McDaniels was named by the Association of Colored Municipal Employees at the Washington Junior High School on Tuesday evening.

The election, presided over by Dallas Nicholas, attorney for the group, resulted as follows: Albert Houghton, vice president; William T. Dorsey, executive secretary, who succeeded himself; and Mrs. Cornelia W. Phillips, treasurer.

Elected to the executive committee are; George F. Hucles, Dr. Bernard Harris, Harvey Payne, Mrs. Bessie Trotman, and William Carter.

Old Officers Report

Reports of the retiring officers were also made. They are: George F. Hucles, president; William T. Dorsey, executive secretary; and Mrs. Cornelia W. Phillips, treasurer.

Over 140 financial members are attached to the organization it was reported at the meeting. Membership in the Credit Union and the group insurance plan for municipal employees, were explained by Mr. Nicholas.

Officers, will be installed at a meeting on January 11.

RECITAL PRESENTED

PHILADELPHIA — Mrs. Elsie Berry, coloratura soprano pupil of Prof. W. Burton, was presented in recital on Thursday at Haven M.E. Church with Mrs. Susanna Brabhem, Mrs. M. Frederick, and Mrs. Cleopatra Phillips.

Murphy to Announce Housing Plans Soon

Interviewed by the AFRO, Tuesday, in relation to his appointment on the housing commission, this week, by Mayor Jackson, George B. Murphy, Sr., said that he was not in a position to make any definite statement regarding his duties until the commission meets.

"I have not had a formal meeting with the Housing Authority as yet. We are scheduled to have a meeting Friday morning at which time I am sure that plans for the future work of this organization will be discussed in great detail.

Worst Housing Problem

"It goes without saying that I shall be keenly interested in the development of a low-cost housing program for our group for it is generally agreed that we have by far the worst housing problems of any group in the city," he said.

Mr. Murphy, a retired school principal, is vice president of the Baltimore Urban League; member of: the board of trustees of Provident Hospital; Council of Social Agencies;

Advisory board of the Department of Public Welfare; executive committee, NAACP; committee of management, YMCA; committee of management of Home for Colored Boys and is also connected with many other civic groups.

One of Five

Mr. Murphy is one of five members sworn in by the Mayor, Tuesday, who will supervise the expenditure of Federal funds under the Wagner-Steagall Bill for lowcost housing and slum clearance.

The act sets up a fund of $500,000,000 from which cities may borrow. Baltimore's share will probably be $5,000,000.

Hit by Auto, Body Hurtles 150 Feet

A woman's body was hurtled 150 feet through the air in an automobile accident on Thursday as police reported two dead and seventeen injured in a series of mishaps.

Mrs. Cecilia Anderson, 31, of 207 N. Spring Street, died in Johns Hopkins Hospital Thursday. Her skull was fractured when she was struck by a car at Fayette and Caroline Streets.

Miss Clara Morton of 18 N. Dallas Street, said she and Mrs. Anderson were crossing Fayette Street when the latter was struck by a car operated by Sam Pollard, white, of 506 N. Kenwood Avenue, and hurled her through the air.

Driver on Bail

The driver was ordered released after bail had been posted pending an inquest on January 5.

When his truck was struck by a train at College Park, Md., John W. Durham, 29, of Washington, was instantly killed. A helper on the truck was also injured and taken to Casualty Hospital in Washington, police said.

A witness told police Durham failed to stop although the train whistle blew steadily.

Five persons were injured when the car in which they were riding ran over a nine-foot embankment along Chesapeake Avenue in Brooklyn, turned over several times, and came to a stop on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad tracks.

Driver Faces Court

Lawrence Greer, 31, the driver of 1848 Lorman Street, was charged with reckless driving. The injured were taken to South Baltimore General and Mercy Hospitals for treatments.

They were:

Joseph Butler, 33, of 1022 Stockton Street, bruises; his wife, Mrs. Marie Butler, 29, same address, contusions of the forehead and abrasions of the legs; Frederick Shackleford, 43, same address, lacerations of the face, and Mrs. Matilda Snowden, 37, same address, abrasions of the body and head injuries. Green was treated for lacerations of the head face and hand.

Two women were injured slightly when the car in which they were riding overturned at Matson Street and Chesapeake Avenue, Saturday.

The women, Miss Pauline Butler, and Miss Elsie Belle both of 540 W Conway Street, were treated for abrasions of the right ankle and lacerations of the left ankle respectively.

Recklessness Charge

The student driver, William Turner, of 126 Jasper Street, was cited for a traffic court hearing on a charge of recklessness. Neither Turner, nor Lester Barksdale of 820 W. Lexington Street, who was also in the car, was injured.

Others injured during the week were:

James Williams, 43, of 253 Mulberry Street; Charles Nash, 71 of 1100 McCulloh Street; was looking for the home of a friend and that when several people gathered around him during that excursion he promised to stay away.

Going for Drink

His explanation for being near Mount Street and Edmondson Avenue on Tuesday night when arrested was that he had just left a theatre on Harlem Avenue and was going to a tavern for a drink.

The defendant said he had a good record and had not been in any trouble for over a long period of years. The brother of his white employer appeared as a character witness.

JAMES FORREST FINED $10 ON PEEPING TOM CHARGE

Charged with peeping into the windows of two white homes in a block of W. Franklin Street, James Forrest, 44, of 434 N. Carrollton Avenue, was fined $10 and costs by Magistrate Harry Fine on Wednesday.

Forrest, treasurer of the Elbow Benders' Social Club, was arrested while driving along Mount Street near Edmondson Avenue, following complaints by Mrs. Helen Ponds of 1805 Franklin Street and Mrs. Margaret Batt of 1812 Franklin Street.

Frightened, They Say

Both women said the peeping had happened several times and always at night, and that they were frightened because, as Mrs. Ponds declared, "whenever a woman sees a colored face peeping through a window at night, she becomes frightened."

When Mrs. Ponds referred to the defendant as Mr. Forrest and the magistrate asked if she knew him, the woman stated that she had seen him in the neighborhood before, and on one occasion had warned him to stay away.

Forrest admitted being in that vicinity before, but stated that he
