MUSINGS

"What constitutes a State"; One man, one chief, one lordly potentate? Is it to have a Mighty (?) Heritage "To strut and fret his hour upon the stage,"

Whilst hirelings fleece with sordid stealth The coffers of the Commonwealth? Does foul corruption breed repute For our escutcheon? Who can refute

The vile abuse of greatness and degree— The shade that stains our grand (?) autocracy? Great Caesar, howl! have we a god That the bourgeois should tremble at his nod?

Should we not vote to vindicate With this one act at our command, The honor'd name of Maryland? E'en tho' "His Nibs" should scale the sky Through realms where naught but visions fly,

We know full well he'll never gain The height to which he would attain. Fate stalks abroad with potent might;

A factor which will surely smite His One ambition most complete, With final and deserved defeat. Galena, Md.

Are we not masters of our fate?

Candidates For State Offices Address Meeting

Ritchie Lauds Senator S. Scott Beck

W. F. Russell Acted As Chair-

Last night was a Democratic night in Chestertown when nearly 500 loyals gathered in the Old Lyceum Theatre here to pay homage to their party's chieftan, Governor Albert C. Ritchie, and other Democratic candidates for State offices. The meeting here last night followed a dinner at the Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church at which Governor Ritchie was the honored guest and was the second gathering of a five-day tour of Eastern Shore counties by Democratic candidates.

With the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company band furnishing music and loud speakers broadcasting the speaking to a few knotted gatherings who could not make their way into the auditorium the rally was called the most enthusiastic that the Governor and his party had met in tours about the State. Mrs. Charles W. Whaland, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee for Kent county, served as temporary chairman of the rally and introduced former-Senator William F. Russell, who acted as permanent chairman for the evening. Major William Preston Lane, candidate for Attorney-General and named but a few days ago to succeed the late Thomas H. Robinson, was the nomination for the Presidency and be elected to that office in 1932.

Following Major Lane came Governor Ritchie who said that this would be the last time he would ask the people of Kent county to vote for
