Their Beauty Brings Them Fortunes

Child innocence and child beauty are admired everywhere, be it in home or movie. These four little beauties have just left their home to pose before the camera for French movie fans. They have been declared the four most beautiful children in Europe and the highest salaried. Upper left, is Claudie Albert, who won a $25,000 contest as the most beautiful child. Upper right, Lina LeLong; lower left La Petite Louise and lower right, Bebe Lilienne.

DENTON - Maryland

Ben Franklin liked books.

Within their covers he found wisdom—the wisdom which when put into practice, earned for him a reputation as a great American.

We observed his birthday on January 17—it having been two hundred and sixteen years since his birth at Boston.

Franklin's philosophy may be summed up in one word—THRIFT.

And the bank book is text book in the study of thrift. It was the book which Franklin heeded most because there, in black and white, was the result of his endeavors.

"Spend less than you make if you would succeed,"—said Franklin's famed "Poor Richard."
