NIGHT LIFE IN THE CLUBS
By Knight Klubber

And I heard him exclaim,
Ere he drove out of sight,
Merry Christmas to all,
And to all a good night—

The little stanza brings you greetings from not only the Knight Klubber but the town's popular after-dark spots whose ad. appear elsewhere.

* * *

Dropped in at the ARGYLE CAFE, Argyle Avenue and Hoffman Street, and found a cozy retreat being pepped for an early opening. Beer is dispensed by kooler kee system.

* * *

The COCKTAIL LOUNGE and CAFE of Clark's Hotel will swing into their respective second and third anniversaries on Christmas Eve. A gala time has been arranged for each night. Monday and Wednesday nights are profitable times for the patrons. Turk and his orchestra and Pinkie White are the entertaining features.

* * *

Helen (Lynn) Colbert, popular torch singer, is one of the main features of Sammy Lewis's revue at JIMMIE'S PLANTATION. Others in the set-up include: Mozzenda, the Africa Princess; Nancie LaMar, Charles Hall and Baby Lewis. Spot sports a mean swing combo.

Special features include an amateur contest on Wednesday night.

* * *

The BIG APPLE is in a cheerful mood for the Yuletide season. Everyone seems happy sipping, dining and exchanging the season's greetings.

* * *

Bertie Brooks will put a special matinee at the BIRD'S NEST on Christmas Day with Willie Haywood's Swingsters and Dukey entertaining.

* * *

Geneva Howard, the sweet songstress, is now parading at PAUL'S CAFE each Sunday afternoon with Naomi and her Aces.

Walter Todd and his orchestra are here each night.

* * *

Wendall Wilson, the chief mogul of the VILMA TAVERN, wishes you the tops for 1938 and believe you me he is dishing out some of the tastiest eggnog on the stroll.

* * *

Don't forget to drop in at ALLEN'S CAFE, and pay your respects, during the Yuletide.

* * *

Joe Quile, manager of LITTLE WILLIE'S INN, broadcasts greetings and the assurance that Earla Johnson and Banjo Denny's Orchestra are all set to give out some real entertainment during the holidays.

* * *

The SAVOY GRILL is going ahead with Jimmy Young, sensational D.C. singer. The usual courteous and prompt service will prevail during the holidays under the supervision of Julia Woodard, head waitress.

* * *

Pearl Thomas, the sentimental gal from D.C., is raising havoc at the CLUB WONDERLAND; Lillian Lorraine, the lady of swing, continues to break it up, and Tove and a hot band swing gally on.

* * *

CLUB UBANGI will have a special matinee on Christmas. The usual Monday matinee will bring out one of our popular social clubs as guest of honor.

* * *

COMEDY CLUB has special matinees booked in for Christmas and New Year's with Ed Wharton's band and the cream of entertainment with Vernon Hutchins, emcee, supported by Dot (the real) McCoy, Happy Jack, Marion Miller, the lass of the golden voice.

* * *

The OLD LELAND CAFE is decorated as befits the holiday season and believe you me Wesley Gore and his employees are all set to show you the grandest time during the holiday season.

* * *

Many thanks to all of you for those beautiful cards and tokens of appreciation for my efforts to entertain you with the topics of nite life.

Your K. K.,
GEORGE D. TYLER.

Lincoln Has Gala Bill for Christmas

The De Luxe Lincoln Theatre will present a gala of first-run pictures Christmas week.

Saturday, December 25, Christmas Day, the presentation will be "Duke Comes Back," a thrilling story of the prize ring and the return of an ex-champ.

Also Saturday, Sunday, and Monday, December 25, 26, 27, Buck Jones in "Headin' East." Buck Jones crashes New York to blast a mob of gangsters.

Sunday and Monday, December 26, 27, the hilarious comedy drama, "Breakfast for Two," starring Barbara Stanwyck and Herbert Marshall, will be shown.

Children

Tuesday and Wednesday, December 28, 29, the De Luxe Lincoln Theatre presents "What Becomes of the Children," a sensational and daring drama of innocent victims—and children of divorced parents.

On the same program a thrill-packed Western, "Square Shooters," with Tim McCoy.

Thursday and Friday, December 30, 31, "It Happened in Hollywood," starring Richard Dix, also on the same program, "Law

Carey Has Three Films on Bill

The Carey Theatre will show the Three Mesquiteers in "The Trigger Trio," Sunday and Monday, plus Gene Autrey in "Public Cowboy No. 1," plus "Flight from Glory," with Chester Morris, Whitney Bourne, and Onslow Severns.

A three-header on one bill is something almost unheard of, especially when all are pictures of the first calibre.

"Flight from Glory" possesses distinctive entertainment features such as an unusual scene for its action, which takes place on a flying field of a mining supply company in the South American Andes, and a group of characters seldom encountered in motion pictures.

TEDDY HILL RETURNS

NEW YORK. — Teddy Hill and his Swanee Rhythm orchestra will return to the Savoy Ballroom, December 22, for an indefinite stay. He will broadcast three times weekly over an NBC network.

Out-of-Door

The Out-of-Door Girls' Club was entertained by Mrs. B. Robinson of 310 N. Fremont Avenue. Plans for a supper were made. Refreshments were served. Mrs. D. Nelson is president, and Mrs. O. Miller is secretary.

Tom Keene in "Glory Trail" at Lafayette

Tom Keene will be seen in "The Glory Trail," thrilling historical drama, at the Lafayette Theatre, January 1.

The picture is from a story based on the true historical facts surrounding the pioneer days of the great covered wagon era.

A distinctive cast will support the star in this picture, including:

Joan Barclay, James Bush, Ann Hovey, Walter Long, Frank Melton, Captain E. H. Calvert, John Lester Johnson, and Etta McDaniel.

Lynn Shores was the director.

Fremont Shows All-Colored Film; Souls Sea

A double feature that is a double feature, "Children of Circumstance" and "Souls at Sea," will be shown at the Fremont Theatre, Sunday and Monday.

The first picture has an all-colored cast, and was filmed right here in Baltimore, with Mrs. Catherine Alexander, Ollington Smith of Morgan College, and Mrs. Yoland Dullois Williams in the leading roles.

"Souls at Sea," the second feature, is easily one of the best shows of 1937. Played by Gary Cooper and George Raft, it is a gripping portrayal of the slave trade and of the suffering and sorrow that came with it.

Olympe Bradna and Frances Dee have the romantic female leads.
