Obituary

MRS. MINNIE J. SPARKS

Mrs. Minnie J. Sparks, widow of the late Walter S. Sparks, died of heart trouble at the home of her daughter, Mr. H. F. Denny near Wye Mills, last Thursday. She had been in declining health for the past two years and was 78.

Daughter of the late William McClyment and Frances Hopkins McClyment, she was a native of Parsons Island, Talbot County. She was born Feb. 26, 1858. Her late husband, who was a retired farmer, died March 8, 1933.

She is survived by five sons and three daughters, namely: Clarence Sparks, Chester, Pa., Grayson and Oscar Sparks, of Centreville, Milton Sparks, of Wye Mills, and Bordley Sparks, of Baltimore; Mrs. Charles Butler, Carmichael, Mrs. H. F. Denny, Wye Mills, and Mrs. Kennard Thomas, Centreville. She also leaves twenty-three grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held from the home of Mrs. Denny Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by the Rev. J. P. Kelly, pastor of Wye Mills M. E. Church. Interment was in Chesterfield Cemetery, Centreville.

The pall bearers were James and Henry Truitt, Walter Denny, Francis and James Sparks, and Richard Thomas.

MRS. SARAH M. LEAVERTON

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Mullikin Leaverton, widow of the late Thomas E. Leaverton, were held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clinton Henry near Easton last Thursday at 2 p. m. The Rev. John French of Cordova was in charge of the services assisted by the Rev. Barry Fox. Interment was in Spring Hill Cemetery, Easton.

Mrs. Leaverton died March 17 following a general breakdown which she had suffered two months ago.

Daughter of the late Jesse and Ellen Mullikin, she was born at Trappe, August 13, 1852. Her husband preceded her to the grave a number of years ago.

She was an active member of Matthewson M. E. Church, and her lovable, cheerful disposition had endeared her to all with whom she came in contact.

Surviving are four daughters and two sons, Mrs. Clinton Henry, Mrs. Herman D. Roe and Mrs. L. Howard Smith, near Easton, Mrs. Rufus Callahan of Willoughby, T. Edward Leaverton, Torresdale, Pa., and Erson R. Leaverton, of Wye Mills. Twenty grandchildren also remain.

The pall bearers were the Messrs. H. H. Price, J. Milton Barwick, Dawson Stafford, Al Jones, Barry Fox and Ed Dawkins.

OWENS L. PHILLIPS

Owens Leroy Phillips, well known resident of Centreville and a leader in county Masonic circles, died at his home on Commerce Street about 6 o'clock Tuesday evening following three weeks illness. He was 55 years old.

Death was due to a complication of diseases.

Mr. Phillips was born on Kent Island, the son of the late John O. and Laura Champion Phillips. His father was a magistrate on Kent Island for thirty years.

Practically all of Mr. Phillips' life was spent in Queen Anne's county. For many years he was manager of the Shop Company store in Centreville, after which he became head of the clothing and shoe department of Alfred M. Green and Son, a position he held for fourteen years. Thereafter he engaged in business for himself.

Mr. Phillips was a member of Centreville Lodge, No. 180, A. F. & A. M., for eighteen years and was a past master of the lodge. He had long been chairman of the Memorial committee and each May he made it his task to assure that all Masonic graves in Queen Anne's county were decorated and properly marked.

He was active in the affairs of the Good Will Fire Company. He was a member of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church and served on the official board. Aside from his interest in these organizations Mr. Phillips' chief hobby was sailing.

He married the former Miss Dorothy Emory, daughter of the late William C. Emory, in 1910.

Besides his wife he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. William Baker of Baltimore and Miss Helen Phillips of Centreville; a brother, Rev. Clayborne Phillips of Burgess Store, Va.; and a half-sister, Mrs. Wade H. Ariedge of Chester.

Funeral services will be conducted in Grace Methodist Protestant Church Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. L. Colvin Randall assisted by the Rev. Roy T. Thawley, pastor of Centreville Methodist Episcopal Church. The Good Will Fire Company will attend in a body.

Interment is to be in Chesterfield cemetery where Masonic services will be held.

WELCOME SIGNS AT QUEENSTOWN

Signs welcoming visitors to Queenstown are being erected at the three entrances to the town this week by the Lions Club. The markers are attractive blue disks and carry the Lion insignia.
