Provident Wards Radiate Yuletide

That Christmas cheer be shared by inmates of Provident Hospital, nurses of the institution, aided by other employees, have trimmed trees in each of the six wards.

As early as Thanksgiving, one of the nurses in each ward was put in charge of a box for donations from visitors. From these contributions trees and all the trimmings were bought.

On Thursday, the members of the Junior Civic League, juvenile auxiliary of the Co-operative Women's Civic League, visited the wards and sang Christmas carols. The sponsors are Mrs. Katrine White and Miss Emma Davis.

People's Christian Takes Crown in Mortgage Rally

Raising $555.30, the People's Christian Church of East Baltimore was crowned, "Miss East Baltimore" last week at Waters Church, for leading the city churches who competed in the rally for funds to help defray mortgage expenses.

Second to Miss East Baltimore came Waters A.M.E. Church, $419.43; United Baptist, $290.70; Grace Memorial, $277; First Baptist, $252.56; Zion Baptist, $250.70; St. Paul Baptist, $133.05; Mt. Ararat, $64.56, and Mt. Hebron, $46.70.

The amount raised was $2,367.50, including $77.50 collected at Waters Church the night of the crowning.

Strike Delays Ship Sailing 10 Weeks

For the first time in ten weeks, a Merchant Miners steamer sailed, Tuesday, for Southern ports, a strike of longshoremen in October having resulted in the closing of the Baltimore terminals.

CHRISTMAS DAY

Hark! throughout Christendom joy bells are ringing
From mountain and valley, o'er land and o'er sea,
Sweet choral melodies pealing and thrilling,
Echoes of ages from far Galilee.

Christmas is here,
Merry-old Christmas,

Gift-bearing, heart-touching, joy-bearing Christmas,
Day of grand memories, King of the Year.

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

IN MEMORIAMS

SEAY—In constant and loving memory of a dearly beloved husband, Samuel Earl Seay, who died December 24, 1933.
"The voice is mute and stilled
The heart that loved us well and true.
Ah, bitter was the trial to part
From one so good as you."
EVA SEAY, wife.

SAUNDERS—In memory of Cornelius Saunders who died December 25, 1936.
There is someone who misses you sadly,
And finds the time long since you went.
There is some one who thinks of you always,
And tries to be brave and content.
Gone is the face one loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear.
'Tis sad but true, we wonder why
The best are always the first to die.

THE FAMILY
Surrounded by friends I am lonesome,
In the midst of my joys I am blue;
With a smile on my face I've a heartache
Longing dear loved one, for you.
JIMMIE

HURLEY—In loving remembrance of our baby, Milbert, Jr., who died December 25, 1936, age 7 months 20 days.
In a little snow white casket
Nestled all among the flowers
Lies a pure and sacred lily
That for a little while was ours.
His heartbroken mother and daddy,
MR. AND MRS. MILBERT HURLEY, SR.

BLAKE—In memory of John E. Blake, who died December 26, 1936.
His smiling way and pleasant face
Are a pleasure to recall;
He had a kindly word for each,
And died beloved by all.
Some day, we know not when,
To clasp his hand in the better land.
Never to part again
From Sister MARGARETE and THOMAS BLAKE

TABB—In loving memory of our dear mother, Carrie L., who departed this life December 25, 1935.
Peaceful be thy rest, dear Mother,
It is sweet to dwell thy name,
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.
The flowers we placed upon your snow white grave,
May wither and decay,
But the love we had for you will never fade away.
By her sons,
WILLIAM, JOHN, LLOYD and STAPLETON TABB and sister, SARAH.

CHATMAN—In loving remembrance of our dear mother, MAGGIE CHATMAN, who departed this life one year ago today, December 29.
Sunshine passes; shadows fall;
Love, remembrance outlasts all.
And though the years be many or few,
They are filled with remembrance, dear mother, of you.
Loving daughter and son-in-law and grandson, BLANCHE, BUSTER, and CHARLES.

SORRELL—In loving remembrance of our dear sister, SUSIE SORRELL, who departed this life one year ago.
One year has passed since that sad day
When the one we loved was called away;
God took her home—it was His will;
Within our hearts she liveth still.
By her sisters:
SOPHIE SIDDONS, MAMIE LEWIS, and nephew, CHARLES LESTER.

THOMPSON—A tribute of love to the memory of our dear mother, Cecelia Thompson, who passed away eight years ago, December 29, 1929.
"God's will be done," and tho' you're gone
Unto your heavenly rest,
Fond memories still remain, dear mother,
With those who loved you best.
Her loving daughters,
CORA T. JONES, CLARA M. THOMPSON and EVA T. MOORE.

SMALLWOOD — In memory of our dear mother, JENNIE SMALLWOOD, who departed this life December 22, 1912.
A wonderful mother and aid.
One who was better God never made;
One in a million, that mother, was you.
Sleep on, dear mother, and take your rest.
Her loving sons, RAYMOND and WASHINGTON SMALLWOOD.

LAYTON — In sad and loving memory of my dear sister, FRANCES LAYTON, of Whitestone, Va., who died one year ago, December, 1936.
One year has passed since that sad day
When the one we loved was called away.
God took her home—it was His will;
Within our hearts she liveth still.
By her sister,
MARY E. BOOKER.

SEWELL—In memory of my devoted husband, JOHN I., who departed this life one year ago today.
"Gone but not forgotten."
Wife, MARGARET A.
Jamaica, L.I.

Though Busy with Her Police Work, Mrs. V. H. Whyte Spreads Cheer too

Though busy with her routine police duties, Mrs. Violet Hill Whyte, Northwestern district policewoman, found time this week to help make many homes merry on Christmas through the distribution of baskets and toys.

Many of the families who will receive Christmas baskets on Saturday morning from the police of Northwestern district owe their gratitude to the efforts of Mrs. Whyte, who turned in names and also investigated the cases of several.

Crownsville Remembered

The AFRO learned that a committee, representing the Young People's Forum and the Faustina Club selected Mrs. Whyte as the person to arrange the distribution of toys to forty-five feeble-minded children at the Crownsville Sanatorium.

The committee will distribute the gifts on Saturday to thirty-five girls and ten boys. Mrs. Whyte has enlisted the services of three white social workers in helping her with the purchase of these articles.

It was also announced that Mrs. Whyte was selected by the forum committee to aid in the distribution of fruit and utility baskets to the forty-one inmates of the Marine Hospital. The Rev. M. Hodges of Trinity AME Church was also chosen a member of the forum committee.

On Grand Jury

W. EMERSON BROWN, of 529 Cumberland Street, who was among the twenty-three men selected this week by the Supreme Bench of Baltimore to serve as a member of the January term grand jury.

Card of Thanks

My motto is: Give honor to whom honor is due. I refer to the Mutual Benefit Society located at 407 W. Franklin Street. I have been a member of this society for twenty years. During that time, they have taken care of me during illness and have paid me in full on four death policies.

Mutual Benefit Society agents are the last word in politeness. From my heart, in appreciation I wish success, many years of service and a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to the president, secretary, and all those who make Mutual Benefit Society possible.

(Signed) MRS. OLIVIA WRIGHT
1010 W. Lanvale Street.

BASS—The family of the late James R. Bass wish to express their sincere thanks and appreciation to their many friends who were so kind to them during their recent bereavement, and also to thank them for the beautiful floral offerings.
