A beautiful Norway maple tree about 12 inches in diameter was removed by Mr. Walter Sparks with his engine from Mr. Herman Klein's and transplanted in Dr. Frank Smith's yard.

According to a Paris fashion paper the long sleeve is soon to be with us again. The short sleeve has had quite a prolonged popularity and it is to be hoped we mean expected, that it will disappear shortly.

Mr. Floyd Ward is employed by Messrs. Henry Kieck of and sociably. He reports them as being in temporary quarters and pursuing their hard-won business.

A new type of engine is attracting the attention of Mr. Walter Sparks. He has recently purchased a portable gasoline six horse power engine which he will use in doing light work such as sawing wood &c., saving the expense attending the use of his heavy engines.

Mr. Lingo, of Philadelphia, a noble christian gentleman, known by many of our church people by his attendance at our church services, while near Centreville is the guest of Miss Rose Comegys.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

Miss May Dreka is visiting her parents in this village.

There were no services in the historic M. E. Church on Sunday owing to the pastor attending conference.

Mrs. Fletcher Caulk returned home on Saturday after a fortnight sojourn to her mother and sisters in Philadelphia.

We are pleased to report there is some little improvement in Master John F. Ernest, who has been critically ill for the past week.

Rev. C. M. Cullum preached an eloquent sermon in the Rehoboth M. P. Church on Sunday morning to an interesting congregation. Mrs. Frederick Robinson rendered some very eloquent and sweet music in the absence of our faithful organist, Mrs. John F. Ernest, who was necessitated to be absent owing to the illness of her son.

We feel most sorry to report the serious illness of Mr. Augustus Dreka, our eldest resident, who is lying critically ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Eva Kieckof, of Washington, D. C., with no hopes of recovery. Mr. Dreka left here in the early fall to visit his daughter for the winter, and we all sincerely trust Mr. Dreka will recover soon and return to Sassafras.

Our town was greatly shocked to learn on Monday of the death of Mrs. William Price, whose husband died only a few months ago. On Saturday morning her son, Mr. M. Price, who was in Sassafras that morning, was quickly summoned to the bedside of his mother, the message stated she was very ill. No one thought her death would be soon. She died on Monday morning about 7 o'clock, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. B. F. Simmons, near Warwick.

A Proud Fisherman.—We have often noted good fishing by the gentlemen and we now record a fine catch by one of Kent's lady anglers. Mrs. John A. Watts, of Morgane, caught a twenty inch carp in Morgan Creek this week with hook and line being the second one she has caught. She was very proud of her luck. Can any other Kent county lady beat this?

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ROCK HALL ITEMS.

There is some road mending in this section now going on.

Captain Ashley has shown the local police force how to get busy. He has been running in a number of tongs for having more than 5 per cent. undersized oysters in their catch.

The griping of the times in Baltimore is having a telling effect here; the wrapping of the steamer is looking after the dull business in the city. This is much regretted by the employes.

Since the close of dredging season Capt. Lum Ashley has been giving close attention to Chester river, as a result the Queen Anne's tongmen, some 75 or 100 crews, have left the river and are now working in Eastern Bay. The hidden hand has no charms for Ashley therefore the river becomes unsafe for violators of the cull law.

Another report is current that Commanders higher up than has been allowing dredgers 20 per cent. undersized oysters and tongs 10 per cent. while our District Commander only allows 5 per cent. It would be puzzling if there wasn't a reason for it. The steamer is looking after the plant buyers and suppressing overgrown measuring tubs.

We understand that Rural Carrier Wm. W. Clayton intends to remove to Pennsylvania and start up a line of business more congenial and profitable than mail carrying has been to him. This move will certainly be regrettable to many of our people. There are several applicants for the position of Rural Carrier. Mr. Clayton has faithfully served since its establishment.

The Knights of Pythias paid Capt. W. T. George a fraternal visit on Sunday. The captain has been a member of the order here for 20 years but for the past 5 years has been prevented from attending lodge by reason of the infirmities of old age. Sunday's visitors delighted the Captain and Mrs. George to a high degree and no doubt the visiting Knights were also delighted in their act of fraternalism.

Considerable inquiry was made on Monday as to whether there was much indisposition among the people on the day before or whether there was much intervisitation. The cause of the inquiry being the attendance upon the Methodist church service. The day was a lovely one and the small attendance at the church was somewhat of a surprise. Those who did attend enjoyed a good treat from a man who has been fortunate enough to be the type of the old Galilean fisherman and knew whereof he spoke.

As was expected our beloved pastor Rev. Warren Burr, goes to other fields on Monday conference year. There are many expressions of sorrow among the M. E. Society. Mr. Burr has been an indefatigable and faithful among us for five years breaking all previous records for this charge. He and his faithful wife carry with them the prayers and best wishes of our people for their future, Rock Hall's loss is North East's gain. A good man and wife goes to good people. Mr. Burr will preach here tomorrow morning and evening.

Nelson G. Ryan who was one of the crew of the ill-fated schooner, Wm. H. Skinner, which was wrecked between Frying Pan shoals and Cape Lookout, on the Carolina Coast on February 15th, reports a harrowing tale of seven days suspense and suffering in mid ocean before being picked up by the British Steamer Brayley and carried to Belfast, Ireland, to which port the steamer was bound. After remaining two days in Belfast the crew were shipped to Liverpool where they secured passage for New York. Nelson says they fell into good hands and well cared for throughout the trip. He says such a rampage of wind and wave experienced by them is not so terrible after all and talks of giving old ocean another trial. He better stick to the dear old Chesapeake, it is much better in every way.

Our oystermen are wearing a broader smile these days than has been their wont for quite a while. They are finding oysters in great abundance and the price jumped from 15 to 25 cents a bushel. Chester river and Grey's Inn Creeks daily presents a scene of bustle and thrift such as has not been witnessed for many years. Oysters in the river are in much better condition than Swan Point's as a consequence, buyers are having less trouble in disposing of their cargoes in the city and can afford to pay better prices. The buyers have been severely criticized for the low prices of oysters prevailing through the season but present conditions shows that the buyers were handicapped by the poor condition of the bayside oyster. There are no set of buyers on the bay more ready and willing to pay their prices than our own.

The Stauffer house and lot on Court Street, Chestertown, was sold at public sale on Tuesday last and purchased by Mr. J. A. Stauffer, of Locust Grove, for $305.

The Ladies Aid Society held an Apron Bazaar at the home of Mrs. Supplee, on Idlewild ave. March 21 for the benefit of the church.

Capt. George Moore is having his pretty cottage improved on Idlewild ave. by painting it in attractive colors by Mr. Frank Bowman.

The Epworth League will be led Sunday evening by Miss Carrie Karas. The awakening of China and the gospel opportunity. A cordial welcome awaits you.

It was a mistake in the paper about the death of Mrs. Samuel Brice, it was Mrs. Thos. Brice, who leaves a husband, Capt. Thos. Brice two sons Hydie and Howard and one daughter Ida to whom we extend our greatest sympathy.

First Lambs to Market.—The first lambs from Kent were sent to the Philadelphia markets on Tuesday by Mr. J. Walter Skirven. Sixteen fine ones were sent away being grown by Messrs. J. R. Usilton, W. T. Nicholson and H. C. Willis. Mr. B. Kramer also sent some fine lambs on Wednesday from the flock of Mr. Alfred Bramble.

Fine Sport.—Messrs. C. E. Crane, H. P. Skipper, W. E. Moody and Frank E. Dwyer enjoyed a fine day's sport yesterday morning off Mr. Skipper's shore shooting for ducks. They bagged 36. "The shooting sounded like the Battle of Santiago," was the way a neighbor expressed it.

Shwrecked on The Ocean.—Captain Samuel Fowler, of Chestertown, and Captain Nelson Ryan, of Rock Hall were among the crew of the "Wm. B. Skinner" a three masted schooner which was wrecked in the Atlantic Ocean a few days ago. The boat was a complete wreck and they made a narrow escape before being picked up by a passing ship and brought to harbor. They returned to Kent this week.
