FASHIONS Beauty Hints

Spaghetti Ideal Dish for Meatless Day Dinner Menu

Any homemaker can make that favorite, Italian spaghetti, provided she follows a tested recipe. Simplicity and select ingredients that are superior and fresh.

Spaghetti is particularly good when an informal snack is planned and can be used to advantage on a day when there is no roast on the menu.

With a centerpiece of colorful gourds in a gaily painted Italian pottery bowl and a pair of bright candles, your table is set. Your guests will gather around the festive board to help themselves to the best spaghetti this side of Venice. A crisp, green salad and a filler-up-per selection of radishes, olives, celery and pickles will complete the light menu.

SPAGHETTI ITALIAN

2 pound round steak, grilled
6 tablespoons butter
2 small green pepper, sliced
1 small onion, sliced
2 cups canned tomatoes
1 bay leaf
½ cup button mushrooms
Salt and pepper
Worcestershire sauce
1 package spaghetti
½ cup grated Italian cheese

Cook the ground round steak, butter, green pepper and onion in a frying pan over very low heat for 10 minutes. Stir occasionally, breaking up the meat with a fork. Add the tomatoes and bay leaf, and simmer slowly 20 minutes, or until most of the tomato juice has cooked away. Add the mushrooms and seasonings to taste. Boil the spaghetti (without breaking) in salted water, drain well and arrange it on a large platter. Pour the tomato sauce into the center and sprinkle it thickly with grated cheese. Serve with additional grated cheese.

MACARONI IMPERIAL

1 cup uncooked macaroni, broken in inch pieces
½ cup soft bread crumbs
¼ cup melted butter
2 tablespoons red pepper, finely chopped
2 tablespoons green pepper, finely chopped
1½ teaspoons grated onions
1½ teaspoons salt
1 cup grated American cheese.
1¼ cups milk, scalded
3 egg yolks, well beaten.
3 egg whites, stiffly beaten.

Cook macaroni in large amount of boiling, salted water, until tender. Drain. Combine bread crumbs, butter, red and green pepper, onion, salt and cheese. Add milk. Pour over egg yolks, stirring well. Add macaroni; then fold in egg whites. Pour into well-greased casserole, place in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 60 to 70 minutes, or until firm. This recipe serves six persons.

SPAGHETTI AND MEAT DISH

¼ of 8-ounce pkg. spaghetti
½ onion, minced
2 tablespoons fat
½ lb. ground beef
½ teaspoon chili powder
1 teaspoon flour
1 cup tomato puree
¼ cup grated American cheese
1 teaspoon salt
and pork
1 teaspoon salt
¼ cup grated American cheese

Cook spaghetti in boiling salted water until tender. Drain. Slice onion. Melt fat in frying pan, put in onion and cook over ½ low heat 3 minutes. Add meat and cook, stirring it constantly until well-browned. While meat cooks, measure chili powder, flour and salt. Mix together in a cup or mixing bowl, add tomato puree to them, blending well. Stir in meat. Add cooked spaghetti. Turn into a greased baking dish, sprinkle cheese over the top. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) about 45 minutes. This recipe serves four or five persons.

WASHINGTON

In the spring of 1935, a group of young women, employed at the Recorder of Deeds Office, decided upon an enjoyable manner in which to bind social ties among their particular group.

Concluding that the playing of cards was a most entertaining medium, they organized the Coronets Bridge Club and mapped out card tournaments and social events to cover all seasons.

Mrs. Hooker Was Head

Bernice Walker, of 1616 Ninth Street, Northwest, now Mrs. Bernice Hooker, was the club's first president. Originally elected to assist in further establishment of the Coronets were Gladys Coleman, social secretary; and Margaret Dickinson, treasurer. Original members also included Hilda Banks and Hattie Soloman.

Inviting guests to each meeting, every Monday night, when bridge was played and social acquaintances were established, the club was a success from the start. The membership grew until they decided to restrict membership to a small, select group.

At each weekly meeting, bridge is played and two prizes are awarded. The club, though only two years old, has already two successful tournaments to its credit.

Christmas Banquet

Every Christmas, the Coronets entertain by giving a banquet. All year round they give little parties among themselves, with bridge as the reigning feature. In the summer when social events are on the decline, frequent picnics and beach parties are enjoyed.

The present officers of the Coronets Bridge Club are: Mrs. Bernice Hooker, president; Nellie Cheatham, secretary; and Hattie Soloman, treasurer.

REV. THOMAS TELLS M. E. MINISTERS SOME OF PREACHERS ARE FAKING

The Rev. R. W. S. Thomas told the M.E. ministers on Wednesday that some defense-preaching is not preaching, but mere sham.

Speaking on the subject, "The Minister, the World's Physician, Teacher and Defender," the pastor said, "The defender is not to be measured by his ability to be a money-getter, or by his acrobatic performance, or because he is a theologian, but because he is a prophet crying aloud and sparing not."

In More Exacting

Continuing, he told the preachers, "The task of the minister today is becoming more and more exacting.

"The acute questions of social life, the tense situation of capital and labor, the high standard of education, the many attractions that keep many people from the church demand a well-trained man.

"A man strong in character and deed, who cannot be bought by the tantalizing and tricky utterances of the flatterer.

Universe Unfinished

"The best thing about our universe is that it is unfinished, undone, and that we are called in as co-workers in the finishing of it.

"The world is full of ills, and a physician is needed. Nations are in a state of delirium tremens; they are hacking away on one another, they are throwing bombs that destroy life and property. Each claims a religion. What kind is it? Very much diseased. The right physician is needed.

Discrimination

"Discrimination in housing, employment, wages, opportunity, law enforcement and privileges exist, and the cry everywhere is, 'O Lord, how long?'"

He added that "The minister must be educationally and spiritually poised, strong in mind, clean in manners and speech, in hands, garments and pocket. He must not be afraid to speak his mind and must have the courage of his conviction."

Money Counts

Following the pike ear . . .

Following the preacher's address, ministers attacked that part of his talk dealing with money-getting. The pastors from the floor declared that in this age a money-raising has to be considered, because it is a vital factor in the existence of the church.

The Rev. W. A. C. Hughes of Philadelphia, a visitor to the meeting, said that one of the things that has threatened the Christian church in America, is the hurry to get out of the church before the job is completed.

He declared that the saddest spot in America today is Harlem. The Philadelphian declared that one out of every seven persons is on the relief rolls.

Cannot Adjust Selves

The Rev. Mr. Hughes said that the trouble with Harlem is that sections of the country whge colored people have been neglected send many of their numbers to Harlem, and they have been unable to adjust themselves in a highly organized community.

Some preachers in various parts, he said, earn $2.50 per week, with six and eight persons in their families.

Sunday School Will Celebrate

A five-night observance of Sunday School Week under direction of the Rev. M. I. Tynes, superintendent, will be conducted at the First Baptist Church of which the Rev. M. T. Waters is pastor, beginning on Monday.

Others Participate

On Evangelist Night, the Rev. T. S. Hendershott, pastor of the United Baptist Church, will speak and Dr. Miles F. Connor will be the speaker on Adult Night. The Rev. Ward Verby will be speaker on Friday evening and Robert Johnson, superintendent of Perkins Square Sunday school will preside.

Lutheran Pastor Urges Humility

Christians must cultivate and practice humility, and be ready to fill even the lowlier sphere, the Rev. J. Lenhlichting, pastor of St. Matthew Lutheran Church, told his congregation on Sunday at the Druid Hill YMCA.

The Young People's Society will hold its second regular meeting of the month on Sunday at the church at 4 p.m., and the newly-elected officers will take charge.

Rev. J. T. Bond Holds Churches Neglect Youth

Presiding Elder Tells AME'S Debt 'Is Big Problem

The churches today are not putting on an attractive program for the youth with the result that they're hard to hold, the AME preachers were told on Monday by the Rev. John T. Bond, presiding elder.

In an address entitled, "The Colored Churches of Today," the pastor told his fellow preachers that they did not want to acknowledge the fact that the church has weakened in its spiritual fervor. He asked what had become of the old-time class meeting and other evidences of church solidarity.

Continuing, he said:

Membership Increased

"There are many churches, varied in denomination. The statistics for 1935 give a grand total of 650,000 . . . over as the membership of the African Methodist Episcopal Church alone.

"These are greatly increased when we take in the other larger religious bodies.

Has Had 57 Bishops

"From its organization, we have had fifty-seven bishops, today there are fifteen episcopal districts and ninety-one conferences with bishops presiding, and one bishop located.

"The annual conferences are subdivided into what is styled presiding elders' districts with 276 presiding elders. Serving in these respective churches are approximately 7,000 pastors.

Churches In Debt

"Colored people are worshipping in some of the largest church buildings in the country and have contracted to pay enormous sums for them.

"If many of these buildings were sold today they would barely bring the interest paid on some of them in a single year. The colored churches are burdened with the large bonded indebtedness. If these debts were smaller the membership would be larger and congregations would grow in leaps and bounds."

Harper Temple Has Drill Team Meeting

Bethel Begins Educational Council Drive

Funeral services were held on Sunday for the Rev. Cornelius Hooper, pastor of the AME Zion Church at Rhodesdale, Md., who succumbed on January 20 from injuries received in an auto accident on Christmas, Eve.

Following the rites conducted by the Rev. S. Patterson, presiding elder of the Salisbury district, the body was interred at Smithfield, Md. Survivors are a widow, Mrs. Annie Hooper, and other relatives.

The Rev. Mr. Hooper, 42, whose local address was 1028 McCullon Street, died in the City Hospital, suffering from complications after his left foot had been amputated.

Mr. Hooper was visiting friends in South Baltimore while spending the holidays in this city. As he reached the intersection of Sharp and Hamburg Streets, the wheels of an approaching car became stuck in the trolley tracks.

Dined in Wall

In an attempt to get out of the rut the driver swerved the machine to one side, causing it to skid over the slippery street. Before the operator could right the car, it mounted the curbing and pinned Mr. Hooper against a wall.

The victim was taken to South Baltimore General Hospital in a municipal ambulance and later transferred to City Hospital.

The motorist, James Carr, white, of 2203 Roland Avenue, originally charged with reckless driving, was rearrested and placed under $1000 bail pending the action of Auto Coroner Hubert T. Gurley.
