CHURCH ITEMS.

Sacred Heart Church was well filled Sunday and Father Heavey preached a strong sermon. The choir consisting of Mrs. J. W. Cain, Mrs. J. Romie McCauley, Miss Mary Rogers, Messrs. Jas. Cain and Schaubert, and Mrs. Nesbit Trenchard, organist, furnished good music.

Sunday was a "Big Day" in Christ M. P. Church and fine audiences participated in all services. Dr. Little was at his best and preached two masterly sermons. The music comprised:

My Redeemer Lives.....T. D. Williams
Day of Hope.....H. W. Porter
Who Shall Behold Morning-Lowden

The choir comprised Sopranos, Misses Eva Hurlock, Edith Fallowfield, Flora Wheatley, Ida Coleman; altos, Mrs. J. H. Thompson, Marie Russell, Misses Addie Hurlock, Hallie Kelley; tenors, J. Hyde Thompson, Fred G. Usilton, H. L. Cliff; basses, James Shuster, L. Sparks, Howard Dodd, Webster Hague; Miss Clara Usilton, organist.

A special Easter service was held in the Sunday School and $25.00 raised for Home Missionary. Prof. Ronald Watts addressed the school on "The Dandelion."

The Song Service at 6:45 was led by Mrs. T. H. Sowers, the program including solos by Miss Addie Hurlock and little Miss Ruth Allen; recitations by Laura Nicholson, Virginia Lottie and readings by Miss Bessie Wheatley and Mr. C. C. Jones.

Dr. H. B. Martin preached a special sermon to the members of Christ Lodge and others in Emmanuel Church Friday. It was special in more ways than one and struck a responsive chord in many breasts. Good music was furnished.

Prof. E. J. Clarke has been assisting Dr. Martin in the conduct of Lenten services.

Mrs. White's Bible Class will give a box social on Friday evening, May 1st, at the home of Mrs. Matthews.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson will hold pentecostal meetings over the Enterprise office for two weeks. Everybody is cordially invited to come.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:35 p. m. Sunday School at 2:15 p. m. Epworth League meeting 8:45 p. m. Morning subject: "The Glory of the Cross." All are cordially invited.

This is a great year for young ministers of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, as six of them have found delightful and accomplished "helpmeets" since Conference adjourned about a month ago.

The members of the M. P. Church have declined to receive Rev. Mr. Phillips, the minister sent by the Conference recently to Dover and Leipsic and word to that effect was telegraphed to the president of the conference on Thursday of last week.

The old vestry of Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown, were re-elected at a meeting held on Monday last at the church. Dr. W. Frank Hines was elected delegate to the Eastern Diocese Convention to be held at Centerville the first week in May. Capt. C. E. Crane was elected alternate.

Regular Sunday morning service in Grace Presbyterian Church, Kennedyville, beginning Sunday May 31st. Rev. Clarence Baker will have charge of the church service for the summer. Mr. Baker has spent the winter in Auburn Theological Seminary, Auburn, N. Y., and is a member of the class of 1909.

The following officers of St. James M. P. Sunday school were elected Sunday: Superintendent, Robert G. Nicholson; assistant, John Gale; secretary, John H. Hesse; organist, Miss Addie Gale; assistant, Miss Edna Edwards; librarian, Wilbur Kendall.

Rev. E. S. Fooks and family arrived at Kennedyville and were given a hearty reception. Two ladies who had heard the new pastor Sunday and were favorably impressed. Dr. J. M. Sheridan will preach there next Sunday evening, and at St. James the morning.

DEATH DOINGS.

WILLIAM E. BIGGERS. Mr. William E. Biggers died at his home at Goose Hill Sunday after an illness of several months, aged 61. He is survived by a widow, four daughters and three sons. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning conducted by Rev. Leonard White, interment at Old Union Cemetery; J. E. Ferguson, undertaker.

DANIEL E. EVANS. Mr. Daniel E. Evans, of Baltimore, well-known in Kent, died at his residence on last Monday. The deceased was an uncle to Mrs. Thomas Willis, of Chestertown.

LUCAS ALRICH. Mr. Lucas Alrich, a former resident of this county, died last Saturday at the home of his son, Mr. Frank C. Alrich, Relay, Baltimore. The deceased was 87 years old, and was born in Wilmington, Del. He moved to Kent county about thirty years ago and was engaged in agricultural pursuits until two years ago when he removed to Relay. Five sons and two daughters survive him. The body was brought to Kent for burial and funeral services were held Tuesday from Christ M. P. Church, Dr. Little officiating. He was an upright man and a good citizen.

MARIA E. BENSON. Mrs. Maria E. Benson died in Westminster Sunday. She was connected with many of the prominent families of Kent, Queen Anne's and Talbot counties. She was a daughter of the late John B. Thomas, one of the "glorious nineteen" Van Buren electors of State Senators. The late Judge P. B. Hopper was her uncle and the present Judge P. B. Hopper, of the Second judicial circuit, is her nephew. She was the widow of Rev. Dr. Benjamin F. Benson, an eminent clergyman of the Methodist Protestant Church. She was in her seventy-fourth year and for 60 years or more of her life was a devoted member of the Methodist Protestant Church. One daughter and two sons survive her—Mrs. John Merriell, of Sudlersville; Rev. Frank T. Benson, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church at Denton, and Prof. Howard L. Benson, a teacher of music.

MRS. MARTHA BOYD. Mrs. Martha Boyd, of Germantown, Pa., died on Wednesday last very suddenly. She leaves a husband and six children. She was a sister-in-law of Mr. H. L. Boyd and a sister of Ex-Sheriff Andrew Medders, John Medders and Mrs. Hannah Gooding, of Kent. She was buried at Germantown.

CAPT. J. E. WALTERS, SR. Capt. J. E. Walters, Sr., died at his home, near Centerville, Tuesday afternoon after an illness of about three weeks. He was born October 3, 1832, at Waters Landing, on the upper Chester River. He was the eldest son of the late Capt. Samuel C. Walters, who for many years sailed a vessel from the above-named landing, carrying cargoes of grain to Baltimore and returning laden with merchandise to Millington, Sudlersville and other nearby towns and villages. The deceased upon the death of his father succeeded to his father's business and for some years conducted it successfully. Disposing of this business during the early seventies, he moved to Millington, and about 1877 was appointed a brakeman on the O. & K. R. R., and moved his family to Centerville, where he had since resided. About 10 or 12 years ago he engaged in farming on a farm within a mile and a half of Centerville, purchased by his son-in-law, Frank Marks, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. It was on this farm that he died. Captain Walters leaves two daughters (Mrs. William Thawley, who made her home with him, and Mrs. Mollie Marks, of Baltimore), two sons (J. Edward, Jr., of Centerville, and Charles, of Philadelphia), two brothers (Capt. Samuel C. and Benjamin Walters, of Kent county) and one sister (Mrs. John Dulin, of Millington).

DR. J. A. CATTIN. The body of Dr. J. A. Cattin was brought to Chestertown yesterday and interred in Chester Cemetery; J. E. Ferguson, undertaker.

JAMES BOONE. Mr. James Boone died Saturday at his home in Queen Anne's on the Spitcher farm, aged 70. Interment yesterday in Chester Cemetery; J. E. Ferguson, undertaker.

A Rare Chance.—Mr. Warren C. Hurlock, representative of Sanders & Stayman, the reliable Baltimore piano dealers, will have a large display of pianos in and look at these instruments. Read their big advertisement in the News.

CHURCH ITEMS.

At high noon Thursday Miss Alverda May Edwards, of Millington, became the bride of Mr. John James Jolls, of Middletown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. McCook at the home of the bride, Miss Lottie Jolls, sister of the groom, and wore a hat to match. The young couple went to Middletown Thursday afternoon and were tendered a reception at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jolls.

Thursday morning at 9 o'clock St. Anne's Church was the scene of a very quiet wedding. Miss Beulah V. Crawford, daughter of Mrs. Louise P. Crawford, of Warwick, Md., becoming the bride of Mr. George Albert Pedrick, of New Castle. The ceremony was witnessed by Miss May Roe, of Massey, Md. The bride wore a brown traveling suit and hat to match. The young couple were immediately driven to the station where they boarded the 9:27 train for New York City. They will reside in New Castle.

Horse Notes.—Mr. Nelson the well-known horse dealer, purchased valuable horses last week from Messrs. George B. McWhorter, James Greenwood, Robert Moffett and others.

A valuable driving mare, belonging to Rev. E. B. Taylor, had a leg broken by the kick of another horse while at pasture on the farm of Mr. Charles Willis. The mare has a promising foal by her side. She had to be killed.

Henrietta, 2:19, belonging to Mr. Geo. Jones, has dropped a filly colt by Belton, 2:17.

Mr. D. B. McMenamin has added to his stable Margaret S., of Philadelphia, 2:12. This trotter at one time held the world's trotting record for a short time.

This Easter dance held in Stam's Hall Tuesday was a delightful affair. The decorations were especially beautiful. The patronesses were:

Mr.—James A. Pearce, James D. Lucas, Lewis W. Wickes, Thomas T. Craven, Edw. J. Clark, Wilbur W. Hubbard, James G. Beck, Arthur Brasley.

Easter Essentials

THE Glad Easter Season is near at hand. It is above all others, the season when the fair sex has a desire to be becomingly attired and present a most pleasing appearance. It, too, is a season of the year when one can be neatly arrayed in the season's very newest articles of wearing apparel at little expense and this adds much toward making the appearance pleasing. The Ladies' Store will prove a great benefit to the economical buyer who avail themselves of the extremely attractive prices placed upon the Easter essentials.

Our lines in all departments is complete and the showings for this season are vast and varied and well within the reach of all.

EASTER SHOES

The robins are here and Glorious Easter is but a few days off. Our spring showing of practical, dainty and exclusive footwear styles has never been equaled in Chestertown. It is ready for your inspection. You will find scores of styles for Ladies and Misses.

Styles never found and never dreamed of in ordinary shoe stores. Before selecting your Easter Shoes, stop in and see what we have to offer.

Our prices will please.

Dress Goods

Our Spring Showing for Spring was never so varied and never so complete as it is this Spring. All the newest and best things the market affords are to be found here, in any shade desired and at saving prices. Browns are very strong again this Spring, also Copenhagen Blue, they are to be found here in abundance. Come and look them over before you select your Spring outfit.

Millinery

The most foremost of all Easter essentials is the head gear. The ladies you know all feel much out of order and out of style if they awake on Easter morn knowing that they are obliged to don an old, last year's made over hat. This need not be as Jefferson's Millinery Parlor has a bounteous supply of the season's very newest hats and trimmings with the trimmers working night and day, turning out millinery that will suit all and giving expression to last thought dame fashion.
