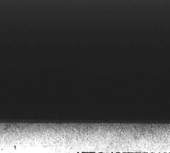
Quaker City

SARA E. NEELY



Society Editor

Society and Clubs

Club Bu Bastis Has Its First Formal Dance

An array of belles and beaux were present at the Club Bu Bastis's first annual formal dance held at Essie Marie's Studio, Thursday evening.

Demonstrating current versions of the dance were noted:

Miss Maxine Jefferson in white satin daringly accented with a red chiffon cape; Miss Nan Fletcher in black net, banded with lace:

Black Velvet-Yellow Roses

Miss Rosalie Brisbane distinctive in black velvet and yellow roses; Miss Thelma Isley, in a smart burnt orange crepe backless model; Miss Ruth Gibee, chic in red and black net;

Miss Claudine Wylie, looking well in dark blue crepe accented with red around the decolletage and wearing rhinestone accessories;

Miss Anna Hastler, who selected a peach taffeta gown; Miss Clara Marable, in an extermely becoming onyx-hued taffeta, highlighted with red and gardenias;

Miss Grace Wiley, garbed in white satin and crowned with gardenias; Miss Thomasina Brisbane, in peach slipper satin and wearing a juliet cap of the same material;

Miss Essie Davis, regal in white crepe girded with rhinestones; Miss Cecelia Woodby, donned old rose moire, gardenia trimmed and wore a silver headdress;

Miss Myrtle Bullock, in an ebony-hued crepe with a bodice of silver sequins; Miss Louise Martin, in red taffeta, red rosebud adorned; Miss Alberta Knight, who arrived wearing a red crepe sequin trimmed gown; Miss Grace Mitchell in black chiffon with a beaded tunic and gold accessories.

Other guests were:

MESSRS. AND MESDAMES
G. E. Arnold — L. Anderson

MESDAMES
Willa M. Wideman — Evelyn Johnson
Ethel Bunch

MISSES
Anabelle Matthews — M. Scarbough
Flora Grasty — Fanzore Hughes
Anna Gardiner — Ruth Hughes
Anna Bailey — Myrtle Bullock
E. Gentry — Viola Johnson
Dorothy Gross — Inez Wideman
Elizabeth White — Betty Simms
Helen Snowden — Martina Jefferson
Alice Washington — Geraldine Pierson
Dorothy Butler — Luetenia Brooks
Thelma Isley — Ann Jones
Florence Allen — Johnnie Gray
Peggy Levell

MESSRS.
Rufus Murray — John Threadgill
L. Turner — James F. Browne
Caleb James — Charles F. Green
Raymond James — James Fleming
Edgar Patrick — Joseph F. Johnson
Clifton Jackson — Clinton J. Duncan
Thomas Baker — Jerome Jefferson
Lester Lewis — Alfred Lewis
Charles Givens — Albert C. Dillon
Larry Reaves — Albert Threadgill
James Blake — John Logan, Jr.
Elmer Baxter — John Hughes
Aldman Pierson — Artie Bailey
Robert Harris — Jasper A. Banks
Thomas Coleman — Warren Williams
Robert Cooper — Thomas McCree
Harry Jones — Jerome Jones
Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Jenkins, Dr. Voight Jones.

The members of the Club Bu Bastis are:

Ruth Gibee, president; Grace Wiley, vice president; Grace Baker, recording secretary; Claudine Wilie, financial secretary;

Mary Davis, business manager; Clara Marable, assistant business manager; Pearl Smiley, treasurer; Thomasina Brisbane, publicity manager;

Florette Baker, Anna Hassler, Frankiynne Murphy, Alberta Mase, Ida McClhes and Otto Reid, advisor.

Among The Clubs

Elate

W. Matthew McCoy was reelected to the presidency of the Elate Club during services at the home of Ellwood Pierce, 1917 N. Nineteenth Street, Monday.

Other officers are: Charles Clarke, vice president; Edward Lee, treasurer; Ellwood Pierce, secretary; Howard Faunleroy, financial secretary; Walter Chambers, assistant secretary; Arthur Fulcron, business manager; Raymond Spearman, chaplain.

Other members are John Williams, Russell Saunders, Jesse Ford, Leslie Hart, Frank Allen, and Lawrence Thomas.

* * *

Fun Makers

The Philadelphia Fun Makers met last week with Miss Irene Williams of 1359 S. Patton Street as hostess.

After plans were made for a tea to be given soon, supper was served, and the group played games.

* * *

Orange Blossom

Club Orange Blossom met at the home of Louise Roundtree, 1318 Guenther Street.

Following business transactions a buffet supper was served, and novelty games played.

Golden Rod

Mrs. Daisy Horton was hostess to the Golden Rod Club, Tuesday, at 223 N. Hobart Street, while plans were made for a seance tea to be given at the home of Mrs. Washington, 5835 Thompson Street in the near future.

Refreshments were served after business transactions. Mrs. Cyur is president of the club, and Mrs. Mary Wiley, secretary.

* * *

Amicus

Club Amicus held its regular meeting Monday at the home of its secretary, Miss Beatrice Morse, 1027 Ellsworth Street.

Card games were played after the business session. The prize was awarded to Miss Velma Wilcher, who also won the grand prize for the highest score during the past six weeks.

A repeast was served by the hostess.

* * *

Atos

The Atos Club met Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Smith, 5809 Haverford Avenue, with Mrs. Philip Saltus and Mrs. L. B. Thompson receiving the first and second prizes respectively, at cards.

Miss Elsie Smith kept score and received a gift. Other guests were Mesdames Robert Henry, Prince Edwards, Paul Wilson, Harvey Reynolds of Harrisburg and George Hutchins. The club awards went to Mrs. Walter Livingston, first; Mrs. Edward Howell, second and Mrs. Joseph Oliver, third.

Supper served with the bonus chosing a spring color scheme of yellow and green. Jonquils lent a golden note to the decorations.

Mrs. Oliver presented a hat case from the club to Mrs. William Rodgers, who sailed last Saturday for South America. Gifts were presented Mrs. Rodgers and her children, who will accompany her, by Mrs. Smith.

Other members present were:

Mesdames James Lennon, Harrison E. Meekins, Harry Turner, John Modgett, P.L. Bowser and Mozam Hosein.

* * *

Monday Afternoon Po-Ke-Na

Mrs. Beulah Trigg of 1208 N. Fifty-seventh Street, was hostess to the Monday Afternoon Po-Ke-No Players' Club.

Mrs. Lillian Martin and Mrs. Mae Ingersoll were guests. Luncheon was served. Mrs. Sophie Emerson and Mrs. Martin were the fortunate winners of the corner pots.

* * *

Trixter s

The Trixters' Club meeting was held Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis of 5927 Arch Street.

At cards Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Terry were the winners of the prize. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Leake Ragland were other present.

* * *

Duces

When the meeting of Club Duces was held, Friday, at the home of president, election of officers took place.

Those now holding office are Amos Borokington, president; John Jones, vice president; Luther Lucas, financial secretary; Clarence Davis, recording secretary; Brauk Devlin, treasurer; Lucius Odom, business manager; Benjamin Brown, assistant business manager, and Samuel Benston, chaplain.

* * *

Whozits

At the regular meeting of the Whozits' Club, Saturday, at the home of Miss Marguerite Chisholm and Miss Vivian Chisholm, 520 N. Fifty-eighth Street, plans were completed for a "thug party."

Following a social hour, supper was served.

Those present were:

Misses Marion Washington, Edwina Carry, Olga Hazell, Faith Matthias, Agnes Cuyjet, Mary Bradford, Mary Hill, Daisy Carter, Mesdames T. Paige Anderson, Charles Shorter and A. Wilson Simkins.

* * *

J.Q.'s

The J.Q.'s Club meeting was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. Gerald Amonnitti of 5575 Blakenlore Street.

Pinochle was played with the guest awards going to Mesdames Howard Townes, first and Elmer Nichols, second. Club prizes were won by Mesdames Dorothy Fagens, first; Phyllis Berry, second, and Rebecca Abele, booby. A gift was given Mrs. Sylvia Jackson, scorekeeper.

Other guests were Mesdames Weaver Blondin, Robert Abele and Albert Mathews. Other members present were Mesdames Lenora Ashe, Gladys Hurley, Marion Jackson, Laura Nash, Grace Marshall and Armita Rodgers.

* * *

Girl Friends

The meeting of the Girl Friends' Club was held Saturday at the home of Mrs. Weaver at 450 Winona Avenue.

The guests of the evening included Mesdames Orin C. Evans, Clarence Monroe, William Paul, Enos Andrews, Harry Hurley, John G. Baugh, William Warrick, Gerald Ammonitti, and Marian Jackson.

At cards, the guest winners were Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Paul. The club awards were won by Mrs. Grace DeLoach, Mrs. Spencer Jackson and Mrs. Joseph Rainey. Mrs. Warrick was scorekeeper and received a gift.

Other members present were:

Mesdames Franklyn Norris, Joseph Tabourne, Howard Thomas, Richard Waltier, C. Rushton Long, George Young and Miss Mildred Brazington.

* * *

Philadelphia Duplicate Whist

The meeting of the Philadelphia Duplicate Whist Club was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Mae Stewart, Thursday. The vice president, George Moody, presided.

The journalist, Miss Edith Johnson, was absent because she had been called to the bedside of her ill mother in Virginia, who later died.

Following the completion of business, Homer Fauntleroy gave a resume of the "Event that Made History in 1937." The speaker was also the winner of the honors in the spelling bee and was presented with the January's silver key, while Miss Theresa Bryant and Howard Brooks were in close competition.

Frederick Guilford, guest of the chapter, joined the members in an after-club discussion and cocktails.

* * *

J. HARRIS KEYS ARE GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harris Key entertained, Thursday in the modernistic basement of their home, 5219 Pulaski Avenue, Germantown.

The guests played cards and danced among the novelty decorations. The hostess served dinner.

Among those present were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Lawrence Limbery, Leon Addington, Frank Wiggins, Harvey James, Richard Hamilton, Albert Budd, Raymond Pickett, Wendell Williams, Frazier Flemings, William Johnson;

Mrs. Sophie Rose, Mrs. Ethel Collick, Mrs. Mary Hill, Mrs. Susie Powell, Zack Johnson, Louis Blakely.

* * *

MRS. FRISBY IS HOST

Mrs. Marion Frisby of 1931 Mountain Street, feted Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Spiers of Philadelphia and New York at a dinner, Sunday.

The hostess was attired in a pale blue satin house coat which matched the attractive decorations.

Guests present were:

Misses Violet Marcus, Phylomena Rodriquez, Lillian and Margaret Frisby; Messrs. Linwood Jackson, William Johnson, Leon Williams and George Davies.

* * *

HOSTESS AT SOCIAL

Miss Ethel Dickerson of 3843 Olive Street, was hostess at a social Sunday following a recital given by the Young Peoples' Choral Society, which was held

Younger Set

By LAURETTE

PHILADELPHIA

Harley Pierce, of Lawnside, N.J., celebrated his birthday with a party January 5. Guests were: Eunice and Alice Moore, Jean Bryant, Grace Livingstone, Winnie, Carolyn, and Mildred Davenport, Clifford Moore, Bernice Sterrett, Alean Burrell, Leslie Harris, and Edwin Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Chew gave a dinner party for their son, Charles Chew 3rd, last Saturday evening. The centerpiece was a yule log with candles, and red roses were placed at each end of the table.

Guests included: Preston Johnson, Bill Ramsey, Edward Chew, Billy Johnson, Betty Hinkson, Beatrice Jervay, Gloria Truitt, Jean Upsure, and Betty Johnson.

Seen sporting at the Overbrook High prom, Friday, at the Manufacturers' Club, were:

Beatrice Jervay, George Carpenter, Marie Christmas and Bill Remsey. On the same night, the West Philadelphia High prom was held at the Brooklite Country Club. Seen dancing were: Elizabeth Gordon, Virginia Lewis, Mila Trent, John Boykins, Bill Jackson and Jim Law.

Preston Johnson seen in Norristown, Sunday, shopping in with cute little Jean Burrell, of Willow Street. Winnie Davenport is wearing Dr. Horace King's frat pin. Wonder what that means? Warner Baylor, of Lower Merion, and Christian Nowlin, of Norristown, are seen together quite a lot these days.

Club Vogue will meet at the home of Marie Christmas, of North Philly, Saturday.

Praise to James (Pete) Rollins of Bayton Street, Germantown, for his recent appointment as deputy commissioner of athletics in Pennsylvania. Fay Ashwood is the proud owner of an engagement ring from John Snow, of Harrisburg.

The Do-Chi-Ki's will be hosts at a formal soon. I heard from Lumberton, N.C., that Dorothy Dusenbury, of Greensboro, '37 graduate of Johnson C. Smith University, is getting her first experience in teaching as instructor in English.

Jimmie Howard entertained the Jim Kestons and Vivian Stephenson, at cards, Saturday.

Saw Mae Comegys, recently, Joe Sewell, of Washington, D.C., topmost in her mind at the present time. Alex Rivero is in Philly often. I don't know who she is.

The Q.C. basketball team of Mu chapter is getting in its stuffing: are: Urias Gates, guard; Elmer Calloway, forward; Allen Powell, forward; Bus Boston, forward; Bob Hazelwood, forward, and Thurmon Bailey, guard.

George Coverdale and Betty Howard drove out to see Laura Boyd, of Elmwood, the other night; everything was fine, except Betty picked up five nails and caused a blow-out.

See you next week.

Linton Employees Dance at Ball

Smartly gowned maids and matrons were among the guests at the mid-winter ball, given by the Linton Employees' Recreation Association at the O. Y. Catto Elks' auditorium Thursday evening.

Wending their way around the floor were noted:

Mrs. Lee Polk, smart in black crepe, red roses and rhinestone accessories; Mrs. Herman Hopkins, wearing white taffeta; Mrs. Chambers Pullem, distinctive in pink and black;

Mrs. Leola Murchison, looking well in black crepe with green and rhinestone accessories; Mrs. Ernest Lacy, chic in blue and white.

Black Lace

Mrs. Ella Hoffman, who chose black lace and gold accents; Mrs. Susie Wallace, outstanding in dubonnet velvet; Miss Lugertha Murchison, wearing a gay print;

Mrs. Edward Carter and Mrs. Melva Hopkins, both in black; Mrs. George Pitts, wearing green and gold with distinction; Mrs. Viola Williams, picturesque in black net and rhinestones, with a large yellow flower at the shoulder;

Miss Emily Bailey in black striped bombazine; Mrs. George Tarvis, smart in green crepe and gold accents; Mrs. Dewvese Green in royal blue taffeta spangled with gold flowers;

Mrs. Edward Mobely, wearing black crepe with tiny jet buttons down the front; Miss Lucy Ballard, modish in blue taffeta; Mrs. Isabella Hopkins in blue crepe, black taffeta and rhinestones;

Miss Elsie Fulchure, garbed in black novelty crepe with rhinestone clips at the neckline; Miss Marian Williams, who donned green satin and wool; Miss Della Ballard, featuring pink taffeta.

Among the guests were:

MESSRS. AND MESDAMES
H. Hopkins — D. Hudson
M. Hopkins — M. Higginbotham
G. Walker — Edward Carter
Chambers Pullum — Ernest Green
Hayman Robinson — Vance Green
Charcher Pullum — T. Lacey
S. Greenam — H. Ridgeway
J. Hopkins — K. Tally
S. Hogan

MESDAMES
L. Manse — Oliver Bond
Lee Polk — Mary Johnson
C. Cunningham — Fannie Bennett
France Hopkins — Leola Murchison
W. Barma — George Travis
F. Roper — Della Ballard
Hester M. Colbert — S. Cubbert
M. Mobley — L. Hunt
Inez Wilson — Rose Jones
Susie Colbert

MISSES
Elizabeth Jones — Ethel Henson
W. Davis — Rose Missouri
V. Miller — Ella Hoffman
Pauline Turner — S Harris
Nancy Smith — J. Murray
Aline Johnson — Jessie Coleman
Anna McCorrick — Mary Ellis
Ethel Bailey — Ruth Bailey
Mary Williams — Helen Foster
Arline Coleman — Elma Stevenson
Martha Payne — Edith Yerby
S. Hall — C. Fore
S. Hines — G. Jones
Anna Johnson — Elizabeth Taylor
Dorothy Eddicks — M. Williams
Mamie Canon — Viola Williams
May Beasley — Rebecca Johnson
Naomi Barber — Louise Johnson
Estelle Morton — Mary Young
M. Golos — Ida Ransome
Martha Pagene — Emily Bailey
Frances Hopkins — Catherine Lewis
Pauline Johnson — V. Dabney
Ruth Bailey — Janet Sprew
Maggie Lee — Jean Smith
C. Campbell — Bertha Dean
Earline Floyd — Jean Hartle
L. Reddy — C. Coleman
Irene Green — Dean
Alvina Devlin

MESSRS.
John Robinson, — Harold Britt
George Coleman — J. Coleman
Joseph Somers — Jack Jones
Albert Pignon — Frank Wolf
Kartion Mosley — Robert Covington
William Bryant — Richard Greaves
Jesse Davies — Edward Purnsee
H. David Dawson — William Purnsee
J. Martin — Pulcinella
Taylor Walker — Claude Brunson
R. Anthony — Oliver Porter
A. Dickson — William Johnson
Luther Perry — K. Vandon
C. Craig — Joseph Day
F. Hamilton — J. F. Mander
G. Stevenson — Jack Mander
M. Banks — Lorenzo Bedrich
Edward Cottman — Jonnie Martin, Jr.
Aaron Lewis — Roger Stevenson
Willie Townsend — Charles Jones
German White — Charles Caroline

The members of the Linton Employees' Recreation Association are: Lee Polk, president; Lawrence Polk, vice president; Hester Colbert, secretary; Hayman Hopkins, financial secretary; Oliver Bond, treasurer; John Travis, assistant secretary; John Chaney, business manager; James Gaines, publicity agent; Edward Gunter, sergeant-at-arms; James Wright, chaplain.

Other members are:

Richard Dyer, Frank Young, Bennie Hopkins, William Simmons, William Jones, Thomas Johnson, Sydney Madison, Herman H. Gunter;

Charles H. Wills, William Taylor, Isaac Robinson, Albert Burns, T. Butler, James Wheeler, Samuel Stokes, and Homer Lane.

SOCIETY

RAPPAHANNOCK ALUMNI CHAPTER IN SESSION

The Philadelphia Chapter of Rappahannock Academy Alumni held its regular monthly meeting last week at the residence of Mrs. Florence Maddison Hill, 2222 Montrose Street, Thursday. The vice president, George Moody, presided.

The journalist, Miss Edith Johnson, was absent because she had been called to the bedside of her ill mother in Virginia, who later died.

Following the completion of business, Homer Fauntleroy gave a resume of the "Event that Made History in 1937." The speaker was also the winner of the honors in the spelling bee and was presented with the January's silver key, while Miss Theresa Bryant and Howard Brooks were in close competition.

Frederick Guilford, guest of the chapter, joined the members in an after-club discussion and cocktails.

* * *

J. HARRIS KEYS ARE GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harris Key entertained, Thursday in the modernistic basement of their home, 5219 Pulaski Avenue, Germantown.

The guests played cards and danced among the novelty decorations. The hostess served dinner.

Among those present were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Lawrence Limbery, Leon Addington, Frank Wiggins, Harvey James, Richard Hamilton, Albert Budd, Raymond Pickett, Wendell Williams, Frazier Flemings, William Johnson;

Mrs. Sophie Rose, Mrs. Ethel Collick, Mrs. Mary Hill, Mrs. Susie Powell, Zack Johnson, Louis Blakely.

* * *

MRS. FRISBY IS HOST

Mrs. Marion Frisby of 1931 Mountain Street, feted Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Spiers of Philadelphia and New York at a dinner, Sunday.

The hostess was attired in a pale blue satin house coat which matched the attractive decorations.

Guests present were:

Misses Violet Marcus, Phylomena Rodriquez, Lillian and Margaret Frisby; Messrs. Linwood Jackson, William Johnson, Leon Williams and George Davies.

* * *

HOSTESS AT SOCIAL

Miss Ethel Dickerson of 3843 Olive Street, was hostess at a social Sunday following a recital given by the Young Peoples' Choral Society, which was held

John Mott Drews Hosts at Bon Voyage Dance

The bon voyage supper dance given in honor of Mrs. William Rodgers by Mr. and Mrs. John Mott on Tuesday, at the Fireman's Hall, No. 2, Darby, presented a colorful scene.

Red, white and blue was the motif of the evening, carried out in the decorations and by the youthful performers, who presented an excellent program of song and toe dancing, and instrumental numbers.

Appearing on the program were: Romaine Smith, in glittering silver lame and blue starred accessories; John and Andrew Drew; Valaide Smith, who did a tap specialty, garbed in orchid and mauveteen;

Gwendolyn Gates, violinist, accompanied by her sister, Miss Mabel Gates; Wanda, in a Russian toe dance and an interpretation of the modern dance; Miss Katherine Krause, pianist, and Mrs. Drew, the hostess, who was requested to sing 1: her guests.

Wore Old Rose

The honor guest was arrayed in a distinctive old rose satin gown, fashioned on quaint lines. Mrs. Drew donned royal blue chiffon with red accessories.

Among the guests who autographed the album that was presented to Mrs. Rodgers by her hosts were:

Mrs. Samuel Smith, garbed in silver lame and silver sequins with red accessories; Mrs. Russell Minton, who chose ebony net, gold sequins and gold accessories;

Mrs. Leroy Gates, smart in royal blue velvet accented with a gold flower; Mrs. Ottaway Evans, who chose a green gown with pearl accessories;

Mrs. Julia Stratton, in a becoming French blue model garnished with beads, with a silver and red adornment in her hair;

From Atlantic City

Mrs. Rupert Chase, of Atlantic City, smart in black lace over taffeta, with varicolored flowers at the high neckline; Mrs. Harrison Meekins, attractive in black taffeta;

Black and Peach

Mrs. James Lennon, in black topped by peach and silver beaded inset; Mrs. William Hamilton, striking in a black print splashed with red flowers and rhinestone accessories;

Velvet and Rhinestones

Mrs. Harry C. Hardwick, smart in black velvet and rhinestones;

Mrs. Leon Sarjeant, in black velvet with touches of silver lame; Mrs. Julius Baptiste, stunning in margu crepe and red sequins; Mrs. Andrew Drew, distinctive in a mahogany crepe with sequins;

Light Green

Mrs. Esquire Hawkins, in a light green empire model with dark green bands edging the skirt; Mrs. Leon Brown, who donned a gay print on a blue background;

Mrs. Allen West, who found black moire and net, worn with rhinestones, most becoming; Mrs. Waddie Belton, in white chiffon, rhinestone embellished; Mrs. Charles Chew, in the distinctive simplicity of black velvet and lace; Mrs. Wheeler, ever so smart in red velvet and silver accessories;

Satin Gowned

Mrs. Robert Artope, garbed in Nile green satin and rhinestones; Mrs. Rachel Baughn, who chose black lace topped by an old gold lame jacket for her gown;

Mrs. Lawrence Christman, wearing a pencil-slim black skirt topped by a white silver shot jacket; Mrs. Mozam Hosien, who looked well in royal blue satin;

Also among the guests were:

Messrs. and Mesdames

Daniel Minor	Ralph Baughn
J. Otis Fairfax	Julius Baptiste
Robert Arizona	John Chewer
Ottaway Evans	Charles Chew
Rupert Chase Jr.	Martin Bowser
George Hutchens	Morell Dorsey
Richard Hill

Drs. and Mesdames

Leon Brown	Waddie Belton
S. G. Smith	John Wee
Percy Bowser	W. L. Grissom
Edward Howell	William Hamilton

Messrs. and Mesdames

Harry Reynolds	M. Jones
Marie Hoagland	Marian Waters
Alice Fashion	Louise Lee
Thomas Stubbs	M. Dee
Elsie Reeves

Messrs.

R. Alexander	Robert Bentley
Maurice Davis	C. Harrington, Jr.
Howard Bascom	Julius Baptiste
Rupert Chase

Doctors

William Rodgers	Waddie Belton
H. C. Meekins	Maurice Hawkins
L. Chewning	Harrison Meekins
James Lennon	Guy Carrington
Mozam Hosein	Woodley Wells
Leon Sarjeant	LeRoy W. R. Gates
Howard Stratton

Miss Helen Main Weds R. Henderson

Miss Helen Main and Rufus Henderson of 1929 Turner Street, Philadelphia, were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melton Oglesby, 2064 S. Tenth Street, Camden, Sunday.

Attending the couple were: Mrs. Addie Main, her mother, and Miss May Rodriques. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ralsta Rodriques; Miss Jessie Colman, Mrs. Thomas Colman, Miss Evelyn Colman, Miss Edie Colman, Stonewall Hamilton, Edward W. Oglesby, David Ogleby and others.

The Rev. Aston McKenzie performed the ceremony.

TRENTON CRIME LEAGUE GIVES BANQUET

By ORLANDO COGDELL

TRENTON, N.J.—The Colored Women's Crime League affiliated with the State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, has its annual banquet on Thursday night at Zion AME Church, with Miss Juanita Jackson as speaker.

Mrs. William Rodgers Feted by Mrs. A Brown

Mrs. Arthur Brown was hostess at a dinner in honor of Mrs. William Rodgers, who will sail to South America in the near future Thursday evening at her home at 4101 Brown Street. Cards was played after dinner.

Among the guests that found placecards around the crystal and flower laden table were:

Mesdames James Lennon, William Pickland, John Modgett, Daniel Minor, Leon Brown, Ottaway Evans, Harrison Meekins, Rupert Chase, Jr., Robert Hunter, Marguerite Dover, John Clever, Maia Howell, Hattie Johnson, Marie Tyson, Rodger Wright and Jessie B. Sharpe.

The honor guest received a bon voyage gift from the hostess.

The prizes for the highest scores in the game went to Mrs. Pickland, first; Mrs. Brown, second; Mrs. Minor, third. Mrs. Hunter received a gift for keeping the score.

PO-KE-NO PARTY GIVEN

A Po-Ke-No party was given Sunday by Mrs. Charles Gibson at her apartment on North Street, in honor of her birthday.

Novelty games were played and a tasty midnight collation was served by the hostess.

Guests were:

Misses Bertha Lee, Nina Samuels, Anne Webster, Mabel Chance, Fredi Babcock, and Rowena Alexander; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dade, Mrs. Hazel Taylor.

Messrs. George James, Roland Johnson, Robert Herring, Edgar DuBrey, Charles Gibson, Elisha Starks, and Mr. and Mrs. William Brawner, parents of the hostess.

* * *

HOST TO PARTY

Charles H. Chew, 3rd, was host at a party at his home on Christian Street, last week. His guests were members of the school set.

They included: Misses Beatrice Jervay, Betty Hinkson, Gloria Truitt, Jean Upshur, Ursula Brown, Betty Johnson; William Ramsey, John Ramsey, Preston Johnson, William Johnson, and Edward Chew.

Rainey to Be Guest at "Birthday Ball"

PHILADELPHIA. — Magistrate Joseph H. Rainey will be the guest of honor at the "Birthday Ball for the President," at the Hi-Hat Inn, Lawnside, N.J., Saturday.

Funds from the affair will be sent to the national committee to aid in the establishment of a national foundation to fight infantile paralysis. Mrs. Robson' Reynolds, Philadelphia assemblyman, will also be a guest at the affair, to which artists from Camden and Philadelphia will participate.

Officers of the sponsoring committee are:

Mrs. C. T. Scotch, Saunders Spencer, Forrester Meekin, Camden; Joseph Inman, Berlin; William Lewdon, Cheatburg; Ralston Pou, Albion; Leonard Holsted, Florence; William Berry, Hammonton; Edward Pendleton, Moorestown; Mrs. Mozam Hodgin, Moorestown; Lillian Collins, Charles W. Moore, chairman, of Lawnside.

JOHN DAVIS FETED

John Davis was honor guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Whiteman at a dinner party, when they entertained friends on his birthday, Saturday.

The guests were:

Mrs. Milo Manly; Misses Ruby Young, Viola Sewell, and Hilda Chambers;

Ralph Landerway, Emory Swift, Rudolph Jeter, and Charles Upshur.

Eva (Pianist) VORHIES

outstanding, the event of the season—a debut

Wed. Eve., Feb. 2nd

Academy of Music

FOYER -:- 8:30 P. M.

Tickets $1.00, $1.50, $2.00

On Sale at HALY'S Weyman's Bldg.

1613 Chestnut Street

PERSONALS

EDWARD WASHINGTON of Fairview Avenue returned home last week from Abington Hospital where he was confined with double pneumonia.

MISS ARRALA PARROTT of 674 North Holly Street is planning to spend the week-end with relatives in Newark, N.J.

MISS RACHEL H. FLOWERS is spending several days in Harrisburg, Pa., attending a Teachers' Institute sponsored by the Bureau of Professional Licensing of the Department of Public Instruction.

MR. AND MRS. EMORY CORNISH of New York City are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cornish of West Philadelphia.

MISS IDA HARRIS of Lynchburg, Va., visited friends in the city last week.

MRS. J. OTIS FAIRFAX of North Forty-ninth Street, is spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Lucy Reed, who is ill in Lynchburg, Va.

MRS. J. H. MADISON of Lansdowne, Pa., is visiting in Springfield, Mass., where she will attend the marriage of her nephew, Dr. S. G. Foreman, Saturday. The ceremonial will be held in New Haven.

Hostess at Party

Miss Lucille E. Nelson, teacher at Charles Sumner School, Camden, N.J., of 1945 Croskey Street was hostess at an at-home of Miss Virginia Mae Lewis, singer, who plans to go abroad in two weeks to study. She will be presented at the Academy of Music in a recital.

SCENE OF PRESIDENT'S BALL

MRS. W. MITCHELL and family of New Castle, Del., visited her daughter, Olivia Cunningham of Baltimore, Md. last Sunday.

RUDOLF MYLES of Dover, Del., spent a week with his mother-in-law, and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shockley.

MRS. CONNETT PHILLIPS and mother, Mrs. E. Tart, entertained several friends at 2203 West Turner Street, last Thursday. Among the guests were: Mrs. M. L. Pittman, Mrs. Isaiah Lowe, Mrs. M. Mangum, Mrs. Edythe Wright, C. Branch, Sr., Mrs. Ethel Bailey, Mrs. Ethel Henson, Mrs. Ella Hoffman, Mrs. Ella Bailey, Mrs. Lucy Ballard, Mrs. Rose Jones, Mrs. Leola Murchison, Mrs. Viola Williams, Mrs. Ethel Bailey, Mrs. Ella Hoffman