TWO TONS OF CLOTHING FOR NEAR EAST RELIEF

To land at Constantinople and from there to make an inspection of Russian Transcaucasia, Syria and Egypt, a Maryland party, headed by Harold F. Pellegrin, Near East Relief, State Director, will leave New York June 10. The others of the party are Miss Katherine Raynolds McCormick, Miss Elizabeth Nixon and Miss Katherine Ellis, all volunteer workers and all of whom will pay all the expenses of the trip themselves. Miss McCormick who has been speaking in Maryland recently ,has worked as a volunteer in a number of the states under auspices of National Headquarters. Mr. Pellegrin is one of the four official delegates who will go as the National Near East Relief Commission. The Maryland party will carry clothing given on Maryland Bundle Day and will take pictures of the orphans in the Near East wearing the garments, also official pictures of actual conditions.

While the Maryland clothing appeal has met with success, yet the need for money must be emphasized, says Mr. Pellegrin, who makes the following statement:

"The response to the appeal for clothing, made on Bundle Day, has been magnificent, but all communities have not responded and it is hoped each will heed the call of the near naked in the Near East. Clothes, old here, are new over there. Only when each community does its part can the need be met. There must be no confusion between the need for clothing and the need for money. When drafts are made on New York for cash with which to buy things, clothing cannot be paid out. Money alone will keep the credit of the Near East where it ought to be. Maryland has not reached her quota in money. Every church and school, every organization, is asked individually to raise the maximum amount to save those whom the Near East Relief has sheltered."

To the farmers of Maryland, Mr. Pellegrin says: "For the farms of Armenia, seed corn and wheat are badly needed, and the farmers of Maryland are asked to contribute grain this summer as they did last summer."

Last Thursday in the neighborhood of two tons of clothing were shipped from Denton as Caroline county's contribution to Bundle Day, held on May 17th to the Near East.

WEATHER REPORT

The week ending Tuesday, June 6 was characterized by mild, cloudy, humid, and showery weather. Heavy showers were general from June 1st to 3d, and also in Frederick and southeastern Washington counties on the 4th. They terminated the dry spell of the last decade of May. The total amount of rain over some portions of the section was close to the monthly normal for June.

The weather of the week was markedly favorable for plant growth, although it interfered with farming operations. All crops and grasses made good growth, and are in good to excellent condition generally.

Wheat and rye are filling out nicely, and are beginning to ripen in some of the southern counties. Oats are growing nicely, and are from 6 to 10 inches in height.

Corn has made a good stand, is growing well, and is being cultivated as weather, permits.

Early potatoes are growing nicely, and are being cultivated. The plants are 6 to 8 inches in height, and are coming into bloom in the southern counties.

Gardens and truck are doing well.

Peas continue in good condition west of Chesapeake Bay, and pods are filling satisfactorily in southern and north-central Maryland. Picking of peas has become general on the Eastern Shore, where the crop was cut short by lice and the dry weather of the last decade of May.

Picking of strawberries continues on the Eastern Shore and in southern Maryland, and has begun in north-central Maryland. Some damage has been done by the high humidity and excessive rainfall.

Alfalfa continues to be cut. Prospects for hay are good.

Setting out of tomato, sweet potato, and tobacco plants continues; those previously set out have improved.

Naturalization Meeting

It is rumored that a naturalization meeting of the Ku Klux Klan will be held somewhere in this section on Friday night and that about 500 new members will be naturalized.
