FIFTY YEARS IN MINISTRY Approaching Anniversary of Rev. S.

Owing to a slight indisposition, Rev. S. A. Hoblitzell will not formally celebrate his fiftieth anniversary on April 2 as a member of the Maryland Annual Conference, of Methodist Protestant Church. He has been under the care of a physician for the past several days and it is not believed he will be strong enough to stand the strain incident to such an important event in his career. Stuff, Virginia Pire Frame The event will be quietly observed by the minister at his home, with his family. April 2 also marks the forty eighth anniversary of his wedding to Miss Elenora Virginia Fohin and the birthday of one of his sons. Rev. Mr. Hoblitzell retired from active work three years ago and occupies a superannuate relation with the Maryland Conference. He served as pastor of the Belair Church for 10 years, and after leaving there and filling several other pulpits in the state, he returned. and now makes it his permanent home. He is well remembered in Chestertown.
