Boy Wanted

Somwhere in this town is one boy who is a "go-getter" spirit, full of grit and ambition, and absolutely honest. We want that boy. He will be the only boy agent in this town for the famous MOVIE WEEKLY MAGAZINE. He will work after school and other spare time. His pay will be what he makes it; besides fine prizes and free Movie Tickets. When he makes good, he will be promoted. If you are between 14 and 19 years old, determined to "make good" and truly think you are the boy for this job, then apply by letter to Mr. E. L. Gilbert, "Personal," 3d floor, 119 West 40th street, New York City. Give full details of any past selling experience; your age; parent's full name and business; your school grade and at least two references.

Out of writing paper? We have just what you would like, no matter who you are. Come and see! The American Union.

LESSON FOR JUNE 18

THE DOWNFALL OF JUDAH

LESSON TEXT—II Kings 25:1-21.

GOLDEN TEXT—Be not deceived: God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.—Gal. 6:7.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Deut. 28:15-19; 25, 36, 37; II Chron. 36:11-23; Luke 19:41-44.

PRIMARY TOPIC—God Punishing Disobedient People.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Capture of Jerusalem.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—A Nation That Disobeyed God.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Results of National Disobedience to God.

Zedekiah was made king of Judah by the king of Babylon (24:17), but in spite of this kindness and the word of the Lord spoken to him by Jeremiah (Jer. 38:17, 18: cf. Jer. 52:3), he rebelled against the king of Babylon. He relied upon the help of Egypt, but all that Egypt could do was to cause temporary interruption of the siege of Jerusalem.

I. The Seige of Jerusalem (vv. 1-3).

1. Time of (vv. 1, 2). It began on the tenth day of the tenth month of the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign and lasted about eighteen months. The tenth month according to the Jewish calendar corresponds to our December-January, as their calendar year began about the middle of March. The reason the exact time is given is that this was to be an event of great importance to the Jews in their exile.

2. The Method (v. 1). Nebuchadnezzar came in person with a large army and encamped against Jerusalem and built forts against it round about. It is thought that siege walls were built around the city, shutting it in. On the tops of these walls forts were built from which missiles of destruction could be hurled by their engines of war against the city. With the city shut in its fall was only a question of time.

3. The Famine (v. 3). It is estimated that one-third of the people of Jerusalem died of starvation.

II. Zedekiah's Flight and Fate (vv. 4-7).

1. "The City was Broken Up" (v. 4). The Chaldeans had succeeded in making an opening in the wall so large that they could make their way into the city in spite of all that the Hebrews could do. Resistance was carried on to the bitter end.

2. Zedekiah's Flight (v. 4). The king with his men of war fled by night toward the plain. His object, no doubt, was to cross the Jordan at Jericho and hide in the mountains east of Jordan.

3. Zedekiah's Fate (vv. 5-7). (1) He was overtaken in the plains of Jericho (v. 5). When his flight was discovered the Chaldean army pursued and captured him. (2) He was brought to the king of Babylon at Riblah (v. 6). Riblah was a town north of Damascus. It was the king's headquarters from which he directed his armies against Tyre and Jerusalem. Before Nebuchadnezzar, Zedekiah was tried as a criminal. (3) His fate (v. 7). His sons were slain in his sight; his eyes were put out; he was bound with fetters of brass; and they carried him to Babylon where he remained prisoner until the day of his death (Jer. 52:11).

III. Jerusalem Destroyed (vv. 8-10).

The dismantling of the city was delayed a month, perhaps awaiting instructions from Nebuchadnezzar, who was at Riblah.

1. They Burnt the House of the Lord (v. 9). This was the sacred temple built by Solomon with additions and modifications. Before burning it they plundered it of all its sacred contents.

2. Burnt the King's House (v. 9). This was doubtless the palace built by Solomon.

3. Burnt All the Houses of Jerusalem (v. 9). The implication is that the common houses were left for the people (v. 12).

4. They Broke Down the Walls of Jerusalem. The aim was to render the walls useless as a means of defense.

IV. The Disposition of the People (vv. 11, 12).

1. Carried Them into Captivity (v. 11). The people who were left in the city and those who had deserted to the Babylonians were carried to Babylon; all such as would be of use in Babylon.

2. The Poorest of the Land Were Left (v. 12). The people who would not likely make any trouble were left as vine-dressers and husbandmen. Doubtless they were looking forward to colonization by foreign peoples. The object in leaving these people was that the country might be ready for their coming. Over these people Gedaliah was appointed as governor, with headquarters at Mizpah.

To the Thief.

Let him that stole, steal no more; but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.—Ephesians 4:28.

The Greatness of God's Mercy.

Remember me, O my God, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy.—Nehemiah 13:22.

No Peace for Them.

There is no peace, saith the Lord, unto the wicked.—Isaiah 48:22.

"Home Sweet Home" For Our Doughboys

American troops step lively on the long miles of German roads as they leave Coblenz on their way back to the land of liberty. Soon they will be back with their folks who, maybe, won't be glad to see them.

FARMER JONES was progressive. He believed in good barns, good outbuildings. But there he stopped. He thought that fire insurance was too expensive. "Would never need it, either."

One day a pile of straw and litter caught fire. From a small fire it became a big one. It consumed his barn, and seriously damaged his homestead.

—and Farmer Jones lost EVERYTHING! He was not insured!

Are You Farmer Jones? Where would you be if your property was consumed? Remember, every day of the year fires are busy devouring the work of years. It may visit you tonight. Tomorrow——?

Be safe—be sure—INSURE—at once, Today. Let us tell you how little fire insurance really costs.

IT'S THE FASHION NOWADAYS

to "advise" the farmer. The less a man knows about farming problems the more capable he thinks himself of solving them.

There are times, however, when a farmer seeks reliable information.

At such times—at all times, in fact—the facilities of this bank are at the disposal of our farmer-friends.
