Mrs. Robert Baynard and young son, Bobbie returned from Baltimore on the extremely crowded Love Point Ferry Thanksgiving Eve. Master Bobbie's tonsils and adenoid operations was successful.

Mr. Lewis L. Clogg, of Baltimore, brother-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Reynolds was a holiday visitor on the Shore and one of the four guests attending the Lions Club supper on Wednesday evening. Mr. T. Urban Golt was also a guest diner.

Miss Kate Cockey, of Towson, spent Thursday with her mother, Mrs. B. E. Cockey who later returned to Baltimore with her for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bishop are spending a few days in Baltimore. They were accompanied over on Saturday by Mrs. Harry F. Roberts and son, Gene.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Faulkner have moved from the Pryor home overlooking the Chester to the Perry apartment in the center of town. This apartment had just been vacated by Louis Crouch who has taken up his bachelor quarters atop his newly and thoroughly up-to-date garage.

This new garage standing beside the new firehouse certainly is more pleasant to see than the two firetrap buildings which formerly reared their ugly structures to the first view of strangers entering town from the north artery. You subscribers from afar who have been unable to get back home frequently will hardly recognize your home town if improvements continue. We are about ready to open a modern moving picture house and with lunches served at the drugstore, what next?

Miss Edith Ginsberg is spending a few days with relatives and friends in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman R. Htch spent Thanksgiving in the City of Brotherly Love.

BILL HERSON

Every morning except Sunday from 7:00 to 7:40, Bill Herson presents "The Radio Bluebook". Bill's inimitable line of chatter while acting as master of ceremonies adds pep and zest to the list of selections brought to you direct from radio's "bluebook of music".

As a special augmented feature, the correct time will be announced at intervals throughout the program.

Such special features are merely a habit with W F B R. This station has become so used to doing things that will prove beneficial to its listening audience that the only thoughts on the subject are directed toward devising other means of being helpful. For sincere service and varied entertainment—
