Peels Spuds and Asks for Senate Vote

From spuds to Senate is quite some hurdle, but the confident Mrs. Annie D. Olson, of Minnesota, is not afraid to pose in kitchen frock in asking the voters ot the state to send her to the U. S. Senate in place of Frank B. Kellog, the present Republican Senator. Mrs. Olson does not let her campaign interfere with housework, as one wide awake photographer found when he called at the home. Political wiseacres say Mrs. Olson is piling up hundreds of votes in her campaign.

EYE COMFORT

Fitting your eyes to nature is nothing more nor less than scientifically finding which of your optical muscles are undeveloped and so equipping you that all unnatural strain is relieved. Then you have eye comfort.

Eye comfort is much to be desired at all times. None of us can do our best work unless we SEE correctly.
