Postal Clerks' Annual Dance Is Week's Swankiest Sociality

The Pofe Club, postal clerks' organization, entertained at the annual formal dance given by the group at Odd Fellows' Hall, Wednesday evening.

Very few decorative schemes can be more attractive than arrangements of varicolored balloons. The Pofes employed these, with hundreds of them forming a criss-cross covering from the ceiling and hanging in clusters at the orchestra stand across which was also the club insignia.

The hosts wore the national colors, red, white and blue, in their lapels. The International Orchestra, with Preston Dunean, provided dance music and punch was poured throughout the evening.

The club roster included:

Messrs. Lester Fauntleroy, Joshua Kelley, George Evans, Samuel Aquilla, Charles Cooper, Francis Gray, Leroy Coles, Phillip Scott, John Manning, Charles Cooper, Clarence Carter, Charles Proctor, Archell Morrell, William Camper and Ringgold Dorsey.

Day Nursery Association Holds First Open House

On Sunday afternoon the board of managers and the advisory board of the Day Nursery Association held open house at the nursery, 953 Druid Hill Avenue.

Cut flowers and potted plants made the nursery gay for the affair.

The guests were greeted at the door by Miss Flossie E. White, then presented to Mrs. Jennie H. Rosa, president of the association, and Mrs. Laura V. Garrett, treasurer. They were then led on an inspection of the building by Mrs. Edward S. Lewis, member of the advisory board. Mrs. Rena Simms, and Mrs. Cora L. Banks, of the board of managers.

The two main features of interest were the Nursery School, presided over by Mrs. Braxton and the newly added isolation room. The third floor was presided over by Mrs. Daisey Jolley.

The guests were then taken into the dining room, where tea was served from beautifully decorated tables.

Tea was poured by Mrs. Sarah Bailey of the board of managers and Mrs. Bibs Porbush of the advisory board.

Among the guests present were:

Mesdames H. Milton Wagner, Fannie Johnson, Maggie Wilson, Carrie Cornish, Agnes Aquilla, Bertha White, H. Ella Overton, Maggie Brown, Laura Bantum, M. Hall, S. Skinner.

Henry Sorrell, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Owens, Mrs. Bettie Wise, Mrs. Bell, Miss Forbush, Edward Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. James Springs, Miss Dorsey, Mrs. Charlotte McNeal, the Rev. Mr. Tomlin, Mrs. Freeland, Mrs. Regina Thomas;

Dr. and Mrs. T. I. Brown, Mrs. Pezavia O'Connell, Mrs. Blackiston, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Lillie Leavercck, William Alfred, Mrs. Alfred, Mrs. Wise, Miss Mabel Whiting, Miss Helen Holt, Miss Anita Williams, Miss Hattie Williams, Miss Bella Mallory, Miss Thalia Mallory, Walter Dixon, Mrs. Montrey English, Mrs. M. Estella Carr;

Miss Lavinia Watkins, George B. Murphy, J. Anderson, Mrs. Grace Blackiston, the Rev. William H. Dean, Edward S. Lewis, Miss Rosetta Lawrence, Miss Hazel Bailey, Mrs. Ella Bailey, Mrs. Frances Bell, Mrs. Alice Jackson, Mrs. Ida Robinson.

Mrs. Fetcher, Mr. Griffin, Mrs. Sarah Bailey, Mrs. Braxton, and Edward R. Bunch.

New members added to the Nursery Association are Mrs. Maggie Brown, Mrs. M. Estella Carr, and Miss Louise Penn.

The public will be welcome at any time to see the nursery and help with equipment that is needed to make it as it is desired.

Judson Durrant Pleases in Lyric Tenor Recital

BY LILLIAN JOHNSON

A comfortably well-filled house heard Judson Durrant, lyric tenor, in recital, given under the auspices of the Girl Reserve Committee of the YWCA, at Sharp Street M.E. Church, Tuesday.

Miss Lillian Hervey is Girl Reserve secretary, and the concert was given for the benefit of the camp and conference fund.

The recital on the whole reflected credit upon Mr. Durrant although some of his selections seemed to have been too ambitiously chosen. This was especially true of the selections which called for runs of notes in the higher octaves.

He possesses a pleasant, well modulated voice, but his tones in the lower register were plainly better than those higher in the scale.

His concert manner is very pleasing. Of more than average height, slender, and immaculately dressed in tails, white collar and tie, he made a very pleased appearance followed by a natural smile, that easily won for him the sympathy of his listeners.

Gave Encores

At the close of the concert, he responded very graciously to the applause with three encores.

Perhaps the thing that detracted most from his renditions in German, and they constituted the greater part of the program, was the fact that he did not seem too sure of the Germanic pronunciations, and the words of some of the selections were apparently being read from cards that he held.

This took the attention of the audience from the singer, and perhaps took the attention of the singer from the notes.

The best selection of the evening was the well known aria "M'Appari Tutt' Amor," from the opera "Martha," by Flotow.

A group of songs in English was well done. These included "The Poet Sings" by Winter Watts; "The Crying of Water" by Campbell-Tipton; "Shoes," by Kathleen Manning, and "The Minstrel" from the "Montebanks," by Easthope Martin.

Montague Phillips's Selection from Handel: "Where'er Y o u Walk," an aria from "Semele"; aria from "Serse" (largo), and "Sound an Alarm," from "Judas Maccabeus."

From Schumann

He sang two selections from Robert Schumann, "Du Bist Wie Eine Blume," and "Widmung." From Schumann-Liszt, "Der Nussbaum" and "O Lieibliche Wangen."

Very sympathetic support was given Mr. Durrant by the home companist, R. Earl Anderson, Howard University student.

At the end of the recital, Mrs. Gladys Randolph, chairman of the Girl Reserve committee, thanked the audience for its presence, and presented a watch to Miss Sarah Hughes, junior Girl Reserve, for having sold the largest number of tickets for the recital.

Mr. Durrant is a former student of the Central University School of Music, a graduate of the Boston Conservatory of Music, and has studied under John Layne, leading opera star of Convent Garden, London, England.

Mr. Anderson is a senior in the Howard School of Music.

Miss Murphy Tells History of AFRO

The history of the AFRO-AMERICAN was related by Miss Frances Murphy, junior page editor, last Thursday, at School 107 when the sixth grade class entertained the intermediate classes at a program for National Negro History Week.

Over a race's progress in science, art, poetry, and music was studied during the week in all classes. On Friday, Miss Eva Rawlings's third grade class gave a program at the primary assembly.

The regular monthly meeting of the P.-T.A. was held on Thursday with Mrs. Lillian Lawrence as speaker. She discussed "The Teacher's Part in Training Children in Character Education."
