LOCAL MATTERS.

WEDNESDAY, May 17, 1871.

TALBOT.—The Rev. Robert Wilson. M. D. was on Thursday, the 4th inst. duly instituted as Rector of St. Peter's Parish at Christ Church, Easton, by the Rt. Rev. H. C. Lay, Bishop of the Diocese, with all the ceremonies appropriate to so solemn an occasion.

Dr. Wilson is an old and cherished friend of the writer, and we have been delighted to hear of his removal to our neighboring county and of the more than favorable impression made by him on his new parishioners. May he live long to honor God and serve his fellow man in his noble calling.

COMPLIMENTARY.—The extract from "The Local Messenger" of Snow Hill, which we publish below is given to our readers for the purpose of showing them the estimation in which the Chronicle is held abroad, and is particularly valuable as coming from the pen of John H. Handy Esq., one of the most talented lawyers and most rising politicians on the Eastern Shore.

CAMBRIDGE CHRONICLE.—This is the title of a new paper in Cambridge, Md., edited by Clement Sulivane, Esq. The Editor is a man of fine talent, a lawyer by profession, a gentleman by practice, a democrat in faith, and generally worthy of the confidence and patronage of the public. His paper is well edited, well printed, and we hope well sustained. If there is anything else can be said we are prepared to assume before hand to say it, for we are sure the Chronicle and its editor will deserve it.

EASTERN SHORE STEAMBOAT DISASTER.—As the Steamer Isaac P. Smith, bound for Church Creek, The Little Choptank river, and intermediate points in Dorchester Co. was about to leave her wharf on Light St., Balt. on Saturday morning last, her boiler exploded scalding the engineer and several other persons severely, and breaking the leg of one of the hands. Fortunately no lives were lost, but the Steamer is much injured and some time must elapse before she can be put on the line. Up to going to press we have not been able to learn what arrangements, if any, the Company have made to supply her place.

Rev. A. G. Brown, P. E. of Norfolk District, Va. Conference, of M.E. Church, South, will hold the 2nd Quarterly Conference, for Dorchester Circuit, at Bethlehem church, Taylor's Island, on Saturday next.

Preaching at 11 o'clock of that day and on the following day (sunday) also at 11 o'clock by the P. E. The official members of the circuit are earnestly requested to be present, and the public invited to attend the public services. In behalf of the pastor.

L. D. TRAVERS, R. S.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—The Bishop of the Diocese, the Rt. Rev. Henry C. Lay, D. D. will officiate in St Stephen's Church, East New Market on Sunday the 21st inst. at 10½ A. M., at Christ Church Cambridge, the 21st at 8. P. M., at St Paul's Vienna, on the 22nd at 11. A. M. The Holy Rite of Confirmation will be administered on each occasion.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev Alexr G. Brown, Presiding Elder of the Norfolk District, Va., Conference, will preach in the Southern Methodist Church, Cambridge, next Friday night, at 7. 30 o'clock, also at the same place the next Sabbath at 7. 30 P. M. The public are invited to attend.

CHURCH FESTIVAL.—The members and friends of the M. E. Church, of this place, intend holding a Festival and Supper, on Wednesday and Thursday the 24th and 25th, inst. The proceeds to be appropriated towards fixing fence and repairing Sunday School Room.

IMPROVEMENT.—In addition to the erection of the finest stable on the shore, Sol. T. Wilson, Esq., has greatly adorned the front of his Hotel, by painting;, a handsome new sign, &c. James Millis, painter, deserves the greatest credit for the style in which he has performed the work.

We observe that Wm. T. Goldsborough Jr., a member of the enterprising and popular firm of Goldsborough & Co. No 56 S. Gay St., is now in our county. No whiskey dealer can do better in Baltimore City than to give them an order for anything in their line.

The U. S. Senate has convened to consider the Report of the Joint High Commission, but no steps have been taken beyond the appointment of a Committee.

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL.—The trade over this canal is now very brisk.—The Cumberland Alleganian says there were cleared at the Cumberland office within the month of April, just closed, 955 boats, carrying 105,751 tons of coal, 201 tons of fire-brick, 1,542 bushels of potatoes 26,200 feet of lumber, and 18½ tons of sundries. The coal shipments were 29,550 tons in excess of those of the corresponding month last year, and 7,075 tons greater than for the Month of May last, which showed the largest month's business in the history of the canal previous to that of the month just closed.

TOWN BAILIFF.—Our friend Wm. A. Cook Esq. was on Saturday last elected town bailiff by The City Fathers, and we can congratulate Cambridge on having secured the services of so efficient an officer. The appointment has given universal satisfaction.

THE WHEAT CROP.—Our hopes of a fine wheat crop have been utterly overthrown by the ravages of the fly.—We cannot now expect more than a half-crop.

HOW IS IT?—There are two brothers in Talbot Co. each named Henry G. and they have neither the same father nor same mother. How is it?

The Democrats have carried nearly all the municipal elections in North Carolina:

The entire Democratic Ticket is elected in Cumberland.

QUESTION for debating societies—Which has done the most for the other—Grant for the country, or the country for Grant? And if so, how much?

The following speech is attributed to a member of the Legislature of Pennsylvania: "I know wimun Mr. Speaker; I say it in no disrespect; I know um; I have had a heap to do with um.—They're a useful class, and—and yet, with the best of 'em you may have trouble."

An old villain in Dover, Ill., abducted an innocent little maiden of 32, the other day, but they were pursued and the tender dove rescued.

The Augusta Journal speaks of raising pigs as "hogriculture."

BUSINESS LOCALS.

TAKE NOTICE.—All who wish any painting done with neatness, despatch and upon most reasonable terms, that Mr. S. G. A. Burnett, painter, has returned from Phila., where he has been for a few weeks for the express purpose of learning the latest styles &c., and is prepared to give entire satisfaction in every branch of his business.—His performances in all parts of our town are standing testimonials of his skill.

Samuel R. Pennington can always be found early and late at his place of business on Poplar Street next door to Bramble's Hotel prepared to give satisfaction in every department of the tailoring business. No words of commendation are necessary to his old customers, and all he asks of others is that they will give him a trial.

PHOTOGRAPHIC GALLERY.—Mr. J. J. Pattison is at his old stand above the Post office prepared to execute faithful photographs &c, in the latest styles and upon the most reasonable terms. This is the best season of the year, when the sky is bright and the atmosphere is clear and pure, to obtain life-like picturs of those we love, and let everybody who loves anybody give him a call.

MESSRS. WM. C. LITTLETON & SON, are still on hand with a handsome stock of spring goods, and utterly defy any man to come to their shop and go away dissatisfied with either the quality of their goods or the excellence of their fit.

☞I. N. Elston. fashionable tailor, knows that nobody can go to his shop, be fitted with a suit of clothes and leave dissatisfied. Then, why not give him a trial?

The great cause of so many young people being gray headed is on account of their having used the vile compounds which have flooded the market so long. NATURE'S HAIR RESTORATIVE is a sure remedy for this. Clear as crystal; no poison; perfectly sweet, clean and reliable. All druggists sell it. See advertisement.

MARRIED.

In Baltimore, on Thursday last, the 11th inst., GEORGE W. CORKRAN, Esq., to Miss SUSAN PRITCHETT, daughter of the late Thomas Pritchett, all of this county.

DIED.

In Baltimore, on the 12th instant, at the residence of his father-in-law, (R. E. Phillips) WILLIAM B. PHILLIPS, formerly of this county, aged 34 years.

☞IF YOU CANNOT READ FROM THIS END TO PHYSICIANS.

NEW YORK, August 15th, 1868.
Allow me to call your attention to my Preparation of Compound Extract Buchu.
The component parts are BUCHU, LONG LEAF, CUBEBS, JUNIPER BERRIES.
MODE OF PREPARATION.—Buchu, in vacuo. Juniper Berries, by distillation, to form a fine gin. Cubebs extracted by displacement with spirits obtained from Juniper Berries; very little sugar is used, and a small proportion of spirit. It is more palatable than any now in use.
Buchu, as prepared by Druggists, is of a dark color. It is a plant that emits its fragrance; the action of a flame destroys this (its active principle), leaving a dark and glutinous decoction. Mine is the color of ingredients. The Buchu in my preparation predominates; the smallest quantity of the other ingredients are added, to prevent fermentation; upon inspection, it will be found not to be a Tincture, as made in Pharmacopœa, nor is it a Syrup—and therefore can be used in cases where fever or inflammation exist. In this, you have the knowledge of the ingredients and the mode of preparation.
Hoping that you will favor it with a trial, and that upon inspection it will meet with your approbation,
With a feeling of confidence,
I am, very respectfully,
H. T. HELMBOLD,
Chemist and Druggist, of 16 Years' Experience.

[From the Largest Manufacturing Chemist in the World.]

NOVEMBER 4, 1854.
"I am acquainted with Mr. H. T. HELMBOLD; he occupied the Drug Store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise."
WILLIAM WEIGHTMAN,
Firm of Powers & Weightman,
Manufacturing Chemists,
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu
Is the great specific for Universal Lassitude, Prostration, &c.
The constitution, once affected with Organic Weakness, requires the aid of Medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or insanity ensues.

Helmbold's Fluid Extract of Buchu,
In affections peculiar to Females, is unequalled by any other preparation, as in Chlorosis, or Retention, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrus State of the Uterus, and all complaints incident to the sex, or the decline or change of life.

Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu and Improved Rose Wash
Will radically exterminate from the system diseases arising from habits of dissipation, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience or exposure; completely superceding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiva and Mercury, in all these diseases.

Use Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu
In all diseases of these organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant in taste and odor, "immediate" in action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron.
Those suffering from broken-down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once.
The reader must be aware that, however slight may be the attack of the above diseases, it is certain to affect the bodily health and mental powers.
All the above diseases require the aid of a Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic.
Sold by Druggists everywhere. PRICE —$1.25 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $6.50. Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications.

Trustees Sale.
BY virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court for Dorchester County, sitting as a court of Equity, the undersigned as Trustees will offer at public sale, in the town of Federalsburg, in front of the Hotel of S. H. Smith, Esq., on SATURDAY the 20th day of MAY, 1871, between the hours of 11 o'clock A. M., and 3 o'clock P. M.
All those tracts or parts of land, lying and being in Dorchester county, whereof Joseph Vickers, died seized, and which were after his death laid off and assigned to Mary H. Vickers, his widow, as her dower under and by virtue of a commission issued out of the Circuit Court for Caroline, Co., viz:
All that tract or parcel of land known as "THE ARTHUR WILLIS TRACT," situated on the county road leading from Federalsburg to Johnson's Cross Roads, containing 234 acres of land, more or less.
Another tract or parcel of land adjoining the first mentioned tract, and containing 253 acres, more or less.
And all that tract or parcel of land adjacent to the aforementioned tracts, called "SMALL PART OF THE BRILEY LAND," containing 26 acres, more or less.
These lands are situated in a good neighborhood in the Fork District of the county aforesaid, within a mile of the Oak Grove Station of the Dorchester and Delaware rail road. They are well set with valuable Timber, have a due proportion of arable land, are finely adapted to the growth of corn, fruits, vegetables, &c., and have the usual farm buildings upon them.
The terms of sale as prescribed by the decree are $400, in cash on the day of sale, the balance of the purchase money to be paid in four equal annual instalments, the interest on the whole of the deferred purchase money to be paid annually, and to be secured by the bonds of the purchaser or purchasers with sureties at be approved by the trustees. Deeds and stamps to the expense of the purchaser.

Manhood:
How Lost, How Restored.
Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, IMPOTENCY, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY, and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.
☞Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.
The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
☞This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt six cents or two post stamps.

COMMENCE FROM THIS.

A rather honest-thinking man, but somehow very reduced in circumstances, was overheard a few nights since, soliloquising a la Hamlet in a manner such as follows:

To buy or not to buy, that is the question:
Whether 'tis more suitable to the body, to suffer
The drenching and pelting of contending elements;
Or draw my straightened purse against a sea of troubles,
And by buying, end them? To shed—to dress anew:
No more:—and, by dressing anew, to say we gratify
The taste of man, and other necessities that flesh
Is heir to—'tis a consummation devoutly to be wished.
To buy;—to sweat;—to dress anew; perchance at the Expense of other wants;—Ay, there's the rub;
For after this new outfit, what's next to come?
When I have shaken off these time worn
shreds and patches,
Must give pause: There's the world's optimism
That makes us so many inconveniences in life:
For who would bear the scoffs and jeers of a popinjay,
The street boys ridicule, the ladies sneer,
Fool's downlook, the fop's contumely, and the spurns
That patient modesty of the unworthy takes,
When he himself might his quietus make,
By the bare outlay of some paltry trash?
Who wear such rags and battle with contempt
For and decency,
But that the dread of something after a new harness—
The all absorbing stomach, against whose stern demands,
No appeal stands current,—puzzles the pocket;
And makes us rather content with our old clothes,
Than strut about in new ones when means are short?

GREEN PAYING FOR A FEW MINUTES, HE RESUMED

Let me not despair, and trust to Providence, I'll also above the occasion cheer up—and screw
My courage to the sticking place,—clothes I
Must have, and as I have often heard

He has also on hand
It is better than ever before.
