LOCAL & PERSONAL.

WEDNESDAY,.....Mar. 13, 1872.

☞ Our friends throughout the county are earnestly requested to furnish us with all items of local interest transpiring in their immediate neighborhoods.

SCARCE—locals.

PLENTIFUL—Bad colds.

DAILY INCREASING.—Our subscription list.

Sunday next is St. Patrick's day.

IT PAYS! What? To advertise in the Chronicle.

Our Fishermen are making extensive preparations for the coming shad season.

FOR a week past Dorchester has been afflicted with snow, mud and rainy weather.

Two cases of small-pox have appeared in Chestertown.

You can buy cheap and handsome cravats at Chas. H. Barnett's. You can also get good oysters, good candy and most any thing in reason you want.

FIRE.—The store house of Clark & Co., in The Trappe, Talbot Co., caught fire on Tuesday the 5th inst, and was only saved by the timely and active assistance of the citizens. Loss about $150.

THE State election in New Hampshire came off yesterday. Result not heard, but looked for with considerable interest as the first skirmish of the Presidential Campaign.

SALE OF THE POINT.—Dr. Wm. R. Hayward has sold to the Manufacturing Company mentioned in a previous issue of our paper, a part of the well known town property known as "The Point," for $2000. The sale embraces all the land excepting the house and lawn.

TOWN ELECTION.—At the town election for Commissioner on Saturday last, Dr. A. H. Bayly received 69 votes, being the entire number of votes cast. It is the 6th consecutive election of this gentleman covering a space of 25 years, and is a well deserved tribute to one who may almost be called the Father of the town and is certainly the father of a good many of its children.

WHO SENT IT?—A well known bachelor of our town received the following "Leap Year" sentiment on St. Valentines day.

"It's a sin and a shame to keep lone women waitin,'
That ain't noways averse to the fashion of matin,'
And if men are too stingy or bashful to tell 'em,
The law ought to step in, and take and compel 'em."

☞ Mr. Wm. T. Phillips will shortly remove his place of business to the corner of High and Race Streets, fit up the premises in style and vend liquors by the wholesale to merchants as well as by retail to other classes of the community. [We must not be understood to be indulging in any oblique fling at the merchants, for it is well known that while they buy liquor wholesale they dispose of all their surplus stock to their customers—at a sufficient profit to pay for their own drinking.]

IN MEMORIAM.—We regret to have to announce the death of Felix End, a German citizen of our town who has been for the last 18 months one of the most industrious and honest residents among us. Thousands of miles from the place of his birth and the friends of his youth, this exile from the Fatherland now rests beneath the sod of the beautiful cemetery of Christ's Church, where so much of the intelligence, beauty and worth of Cambridge has preceded him, and shall follow him hereafter. He had the best medical attendance and was well cared for in his last moments.

A SMASH UP.—During the snow storm on Saturday an extra locomotive was sent up the Md. & Del. R. R. to assist the down train to make time and to force its way through the snow, and when just above Maryde the two collided. The result was a general smash up of the locomotives, doing considerable damage and rendering them unfit for service. The engineers and firemen on both locomotives were pretty badly bruised but no bones were broken or lives lost. The passengers escaped unharmed.—Easton Star.

POETICAL RETRIBUTION.—Forty years ago a blooming young girl of 16 married an old man of 60 for his money, expecting that he would soon die and leave her a wealthy young wife.—Last week the lady died at the respectable age of 56, leaving a husband aged 100 and four children to mourn her loss.

SMALL POX IN BALTIMORE.—Dr. Milton N. Taylor, Health Commissioner of Baltimore, in an official communication to the City Council, reports that small pox has appeared in epidemic form in that city, and that it is "fearfully on the increase." He says many cases of the confluent type are concealed in private residences, and he urges stringent legislation to secure prompt reports.

Three scamps have just been sentenced at Lyons, France, to undergo various terms of imprisonment for having made a business of robbing graves for the purpose of supplying the chignon markets of the world. They drove a thriving business until the discovery of their horrible desecrations was made.

☞ A man having been brought before a Dutch justice of the peace in Canada, on a charge of having four wives, the astonished magistrate exclaimed: "You let dat man go; if he lives mit four wives he has punmishment enuff. I lifs mit only von and dot's mor'en I can sthand."

INVESTIGATION.—The West Virginia Legislature has appointed a commission to investigate the alleged discrimination by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company in freight and passenger rates against citizens of that State.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

NOTICE EXTRAORDINARY.—Wm. C Littleton & Son are selling off their Fall and Winter stock of goods at prices astonishingly low, in order to prepare for the Spring season. Now is the time for prudent men to make a good bargain. Call and see.

Who wants a suit of good clothing, made up in the latest style, with expedition, and at as cheap rates as can be found in Dorchester County? Who wants any repairing, scouring &c, done cheaply and at once? He has only to call on SAM. R. PENNINGTON at his place of business on Poplar St., and his wishes will receive immediate attention.

UNLESS you wish a premature death you will let all the poisonous hair preparations alone. NATURE'S HAIR RESTORATIVE is perfectly harmless as any druggist will tell you. See Advertisement.

If you want a suit of well made clothing, or wish any repairing or scouring done in the clothing line, call on I. N. Elston, High St. Cambridge.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

Caspar Stœcklein, vs. John Williams, & Julia A. Williams, his wife. } In Equity in the Circuit Court for Dorchester County. No. 760 Chancery. In recess, Jan. Term 1872. Feb. 16, 1872.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for a sale of certain mortgaged premises in Dorchester County, State of Maryland, which were on the 31st day of March, in the year 1870, Mortgaged by the defendants to Core Haines and Henry C. Parsons, trading under the name of Haines and Parsons, whose interest in the mortgage these last named parties assigned and transferred to the Complainant in this Case, on the 15th day of October, in the year 1870.

The bill states that on the 31st day of March in the year 1870 the said John Williams and Julia A. Williams his wife, of the City of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, conveyed certain real estate, which is particularly described in the bill and its accompanying exhibit, unto the said Core Haines and Henry C. Parsons, trading together under the name of Haines and Parsons, also of the last mentioned City and state, by way of mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of $1400, with interest from the said 31st day of March in the year 1870, the same being the sum designated in a bill obligatory or bond executed at the same time by the said John Williams in favor of the said Haines and Parsons, and which was at the time due and owing from the said John Williams to the said Haines and Parsons, in one year from the date thereof, the interest being payable semi-annually. That on the 15th day of October, in the year 1870, the said Core Haines and Henry C. Parsons transferred, assigned and set over all their interest in said mortgage and writing obligatory or bond to the Complainant, Caspar Stœcklein, who is also a citizen of Philadelphia, and that no part of the said principal sum or the interest accrued thereon has been paid to any of said parties by the defendants, but that the whole debt and interest from the date of the mortgage remains due and owing to the complainant, and that he is entitled to and therefore prays for a sale of the mortgaged premises, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purpose of paying his said claim. The bill further states that the said defendants are non-residents of the state of Maryland.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published at Cambridge, in said Dorchester County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 21st day of March next, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this bill; and warn them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 22nd day of July next, to answer the premises and show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.

HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED,

JUST published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure of certain weaknesses, the effects of Errors and Abuses in early life.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of such errors and abuses may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, & effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

UNITED STATES HOTEL,
COR. FULTON, WATER AND PEARL STS., N. Y.

THIS well known favorite hotel has recently been renovated, remodeled and furnished new and elegantly throughout. It is kept on the European plan, and has ample accommodations for four hundred guests.

The location is more accessible to all parts of New York and Brooklyn than any other house in the city. The Broadway Stages pass the hotel every three minutes, besides various lines of Street Cars, one of which intersects every other route in New York.

It being but two blocks from Fulton Ferry, makes it convenient for those wishing to visit the "City of Churches," as from this ferry diverge all the principal Railroad routes in the city of Brooklyn.
