CHARLESTON, December 21.

The bill prescribing the times, places, and manner of holding elections for representatives in congress, on the part of this state, has passed into an act dividing the state into eight election districts, as follows: The district of Charleston shall compose one district: the united districts of Beaufort, Barnwell and Edgefield, one district; the united districts of Georgetown, Horry, Marion, Darlington and Marlborough, one district; the united districts of Orangeburgh, Colleton and Richland, one district; the united districts of Sumpter, Kershaw, Lancaster, Fairfield and Chesterfield, one district; the united districts of Abbeville, Laurens and Newberry, one district; the united districts of Chester, Spartanburg, Union and York, one district; and the united districts of Pendleton and Grenville, one district. Each of the said districts to send one representative to the house of representatives of the United States.

By this act the election of representatives to congress is to be held on the first Monday and Tuesday in February next, by the same managers and at the same places as the elections of members for the state legislature.

December 23.

We have authority for stating that John Taylor, esq. of Columbia, will offer himself as a candidate to represent the united districts of Orangeburgh, Colleton and Richard, in the house of representatives of the United States, at the election to be held next February.

On Saturday last, the legislature elected Samuel Wilds, jun. esq. Solicitor for the Northern circuit, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the appointment of William D. James, esq. to the equity bench. He had every vote except three.

The legislature of this state closed its session at Columbia, on Saturday evening last. Nineteen laws were enacted, among which is the law for incorporating the State Bank, by which the state subscribes the sum of 300,000 dollars, offered by the Bank, and has chosen 3 directors. The gentlemen chosen are, Henry Deas, William S. Smith, and Felix Warley, esq's.

HAVING this day taken into partnership my two sons WILLIAM and ROBERT, our commercial business will be conducted under the firm of William Patterson and Sons.

For Sale,

SELBY MILLS, with 330 Acres of LAND, 8 miles from this city, near Elk-Ridge Landing, and about half a mile from the road leading to the city of Washington. The mills are in good repair, capable of manufacturing 50,000 bushels of wheat yearly, to the best advantage, having water carriage to the spot, which renders this situation one of the best in this state, as the business can be carried on at an inconsiderable expence. The mill house is 40 by 50 feet, four stories, the lower parts stone and the two upper stories of brick; the other improvements are a good two-story brick dwelling house and kitchen, stone barn and stables, cooper's shop, a small house for a miller or farmer, and a two-story brick dwelling house, suitable for a master cooper. The land is of an agreeable soil, capable of improvement, being well adapted to plaster of Paris; about 100 acres of which are cleared, the remainder is well covered with thriving young timber. This valuable property may be purchased on accommodating terms, on application to

FEDERAL GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 6.

On the 30th ultimo, arrived at Fredericksburg, the schooner Atlantic, captain Hill, in 17 days from St. Christophers and 11 from St. Eustatia. The captain informs, that on the day before he left St. Christophers, an express arrived from Barbados to apprize them of the prospect of a War between France and Great-Britain, and departed to the Leeward islands with great expedition. This information was received at Barbados by the Racoon brig, which was dispatched from England for the purpose of giving it, and had a passage of 24 days. This news caused very active preparations for the defence of the island. The Dutch took possession of St. Eustatia a few days before captain Hill left it, and trade began to flourish.

From an Alexandria paper.

The house of representatives were engaged on Friday, with closed doors on the New-Orleans affair. We are informed that this unpleasant business was occasioned by a combination between Don ——, at the Havanna, and the intendant at New-Orleans, without the knowledge of the court of Spain. These noble Spaniards expected by this honest manœuvre to have reduced the price of produce bro't down the river Mississippi, and to have filled their pockets at the expense of thousands whom they hoped to have defrauded, tho' thereby they hazarded the peace of the two countries. It may be remembered that the Don at the Havanna, has a monopoly granted him by the Spanish court for the supply of flour to that place, which by this plan he is thought to have purchased at a much reduced price. If this be a true state of the case, there can be no doubt but the rights of our western citizens will speedily be acknowledged; if not, we are satisfied they will be very speedily asserted, and resolutely defended.

From BRYDEN'S MARINE LIST.
January 5.

Arrived, brig Viper, Chamberlain, 12 days from Cape-Francois—ballast—Von Kapff, Anspach and Brune. Left there, on the 21st December, ship Henry, Venn, of Baltimore, condemned; schooner Sophia, Driscoll, of do. Flying Fish, Shock, of do. Brig Nancy, Mason, of Philadelphia, sailed on the 24th for Jamaica; schooner American, Johnson, of do on the 22d, for New-Orleans; schooner Mary, Richards, of do. the 21st for Charleston; brig Eliza Myers, Gildey, of do. do. for jamaica; ship Fanny, French, do. do. 20th, for do. Lat. 35, 30, long. 75, spoke ship Fame, Murphy, from Baltimore bound to Jamaica. Yesterday morning, off the Capes, brig Alexandria, bound to Alexandria.

The ports of Cape Francois, Port Republican, and Saint Domingo, are again opened for the importation of dry goods, and all kinds of commodities, by paying the duty of twenty per cent on foreign bottoms.

Business dull at Cape-Francois—but few arrivals from France, although daily expected—except such articles as stock and vegetables—Hams are scarce and in demand—Cod fish very low.

Also arrived, schooner Harriot, from Boston.

[The following ARRETE was received at the Coffee house, per the Viper, from Cape Francois.]

THE GENERAL IN CHIEF AND GENERAL CAPTAIN OF THE COLONY OF ST. DOMINGO,

Considering that the imports of the French trade are not adequate to the wants of the troops and the colony; that the nature of its cargoes calculated for prosperous times does not offer such measures necessary to restore a country laid waste by rebellion; that under the existing circumstances the supreme administrative, essentially responsible for the preservation both of men and things, ought to meet eagerly with every measure that will revive commerce and agriculture; Orders what follows:—

Article 1. The arrete of the general captain of the 15th Fructidor, year ten, whereby several articles of our consumption are permitted to be imported into the colony in foreign bottoms, on paying ten per cent. duty, is maintained.

2. It shall be lawful to the foreign trade to import into the colony all kinds of goods and commodities not enumerated in the above said arrete, on paying for the same a duty of twenty per cent. ad valorem.

3. The colonial prefect will cause a tarif of the value of the goods and commodities mentioned in the foregoing article, to be made every six months; after which tarif the duty of twenty per cent. is to be regulated.

4. Cape-Francois, Port-Republican and Santo Domingo, are the only ports into which the commodities permitted by the first and second articles of the present arrete can be imported.

5. The present arrete shall be executed on, and from the day of its publication.

6. The colonial prefect is charged to enforce the execution of the present arrete, which shall be printed, published, posted up, and inserted in the official Gazette.

The general captain,

Hotel and Coffee-House,

Corner of Bond and Fell's-street, Fell's Point.

To the Merchants and Traders of the city of Baltimore.

GENTLEMEN,

SINCE my removal from my late situation, the Columbian Inn, I have been repeatedly encouraged, by the opinion of many gentlemen extensively engaged in the shipping business, to believe that very great advantages would result to the interest and establishment of my house by adding to my other accommodations a MARINE REGISTER, &c. The situation being immediately contiguous to where most of the shipping take in and discharge their cargoes at all seasons of the year, and where the owners and masters of vessels continually resort to transact business—these motives, together with the repeated assurances of support which my friends have proffered me, has induced me to lay the following proposals before you for your consideration, at the same time pledging myself, that should my plan meet your support, no exertions on my part shall be wanting to render the institution a desirable object to its patrons.

It may be considered needless in this place to point out the numerous advantages to be derived by the mercantile interest from institutions of this nature, as well in Europe as in America—almost every sea-port town in all countries has its exchange or coffee-house. For many years, institutions of this nature have been considered so indispensibly necessary as to have been very ably supported in New-York, Philadelphia, &c. Within the last two years Mr. James Bryden, notwithstanding the many fruitiess attempts which have been previously made, has, in a considerable degree, succeeded in establishing a house of this kind in the city; and so sensible are the merchants of the very great advantages which they derive from the undertaking, that although the list of subscribers are by no means so numerous, as at the first establishment, yet do we find that the sum subscribed the last, exceeds the first years subscription. The plan which I now propose will not, it is presumed, nor do I wish that it should, interfere with the before mentioned establishment. The increased population of our city, the distance of the respective situations as well as the more immediate relation which Fell's-Point bears to commercial affairs, will, it is presumed, at least justify me in making an attempt. My necessary avocations will very probably render it impracticable for me to make a general personal application; therefore propose, as soon as my proposals have obtained a general circulation, to open subscription-books for the receipt of signatures in different places of public resort in the city and Fell's-Point—leaving it optional with every person to subscribe such sum as he conceives the undertaking merits.

I again take the oppportunity to thank my friends and customers for that liberal support which I received during a four years residence at the Columbian Inn, and hope by the exertions I am determined to exercise, to merit the patronage of all who may in future favor my house with their custom.

After submitting the annexed proposals for your consideration, I take the liberty to subscribe myself, The public's

Most obedient humble servant,
H. PECK.

PROPOSALS

1. The room of the hotel shall be appropriated for the use of the mercantile interest generally, furnished in the most commodious manner.

2. A clerk shall be employed to collect and record all interesting marine intelligence, a regular list of all entries and clearances from this port, receive and forward ship letters, for which purpose bags will be provided, and carefully sealed and delivered to the captains.

3. The newspapers from all the different ports on the continent shall be immediately procured and regularly filed, and should sufficient encouragement be given, a correspondence will be opened and the most generally interesting European papers be obtained.

If the encouragement given to the above proposals, equals my ardor to render my house an interesting place of resort to my fellow-citizens, I hope to carry my plan into complete effect, by the first day of February next.

Hotel, Fell's-Point, Jan. 5.

DANCING.

MR. DUPORT respectfully informs the ladies and gentlemen of Baltimore, that after an absence of eleven years, during which he has taught with considerable success in the principal cities of the United States, he has returned to offer his services to the fashionable youth of both sexes in this city. The success he formerly experienced here, in informing a number of accomplished dancers, and the flattering encouragement he then received, have induced him to decline many advantageous offers, for the sake of coming to a place where his pupils have been so distinguished for their superior elegance and grace in dancing.

Mr. Duport hopes that his old pupils have not so much forgotten his past exertions or their improvement, as to view his return with indifference; of this he will be enabled to judge by the encouragement he shall receive during this season, which he wishes may be such as will induce him to form a permanent establishment in this city.

Ladies and gentlemen who wish it, have now an opportunity of perfecting themselves by private lessons, in different characters of dances, as allemands, waltz, de la cour minuet, and gavotts with the Devonshire minuet, English plain minuet, or any fancy dance, and a great variety of steps given upon principle, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

A peculiar advantage enjoyed by the pupils of Mr. Duport, is, that after six months instruction from him, they never require the assistance of any other master, but become themselves competent judges of the performance of others.

Those who may honor Mr. Duport with their commands, or require further particulars, will please to apply at Mr. Bryden's hotel, Light-street; where the school will be held and commenced on Monday, 17th instant.

The hours for young pupils will be from half past 2 to half past 5, and for grown persons from 7 to 9 A. M.

TAKE this method to inform their friends in particular and the public in general, that they still continue the manufactory of Stone Ware, at their old stand corner of Pitt and Green-streets, Old-Town, where they have on hand, a large quantity at present of the best kind, and well assorted; and as they have lately enlarged their works, so as to make double the quantity they have usually done, they expect to be able to supply any demand they may be favored with, at the shortest notice. They likewise return their thanks for former favors, and hope a continuance thereof, as they shall make it their constant study to merit it. July 2. 12aw

PECK's HOTEL.

THE want of a proper house for the transaction of commercial business, at Fell's Point, being long evident and much called for; the subscriber, impressed with the idea that a more acceptable establishment could not be made for that part of the community, whose intercourse is so continual between the western part of the city and the shipping, has purchased the property heretofore owned by Mr. Archibald Stewart, at the corner of Bond and Fell's-street, Fell's Point, which he has now so nearly fitted up in a style of gentility, as to be fit for the reception of those who may please to honor him with their company.

Having been for several years the keeper of the Columbian Inn, he feels too sensibly the favors of his old friends not to return them his best thanks, for their liberal patronage, and not to hope that in future he may still continue to receive their support. The encouragement of the public generally, and especially of merchants and captains of vessels, is also respectfully solicited in his new establishment, which, besides the customary accommodations of a public house will, as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made, be furnished with a Marine Register, and the best commercial papers of the union, as well as every other desideratum which can render more convenient an intercourse between the merchant and his captain.
