LESSON FOR OCTOBER 22

JESUS TEMPTED

LESSON TEXT—Luke 4:1-13.

GOLDEN TEXT—For in that He Himself hath suffered being tempted, He is able to succor them that are tempted. —Heb. 2:18.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Phil. 2:5-11; Heb. 2:14-18; 4:14-16.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Overcomes Temptation.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Tempted to Do Wrong.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC —Overcoming Temptation.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC —What Christ's Victory Means to Us.

I. The Place of (v. 1.).

The wilderness of Judea. The first man, Adam, was tempted in a garden with the most pleasant surroundings. The second man, Jesus Christ, was tempted in a barren wilderness surrounded by wild beasts (Mark 1:13).

II. The Purpose of (v. 1). He was led into a wilderness by the Spirit. Christ's temptation was Messianic. Though He was "tempted in all points like as we are," we are not tempted as He was in this instance, but the same methods are employed on us. During the eighteen years of retirement Satan surely tempted Christ as he tempts us. Satan, no doubt, would have gladly escaped this hour, but the time had come for the Redeemer to enter upon His mediatorial work; therefore He went from the place of anointing and heavenly recognition as the Son of God to meet and despoil the arch enemy (Heb. 2:4).

1. It was not a preparation for His work, but rather its first conflict. In baptism we have the symbolic act of dedication of himself to the work of redemption through the cross—the making full a righteousness. In the temptation, the strong man is spoiling the enemy.

2. It was not to see if Christ would stand fast—would fail under the most crucial test. Christ could not fail. To so postulate would make God's scheme of redemption to have been unsettled until after this temptation, and would have made God guilty of setting forth a scheme of redemption on the basis of a possible overthrow.

3. It was to show Christ as an object upon which we may rest our faith with unshaken confidence. He came as the second Man, the head of a new race, its very source and life. It was a demonstration of the inseparableness of the divine and human natures in the incarnation.

III. The Method of (vv. 2-12).

Christ as the world's Redeemer sustained a threefold relation—Son of Man; Son of God; and Messiah, therefore Satan made each one a ground of attack.

1. As Son of Man (vv. 2-4). Satan made his first assault upon Him as a man by appealing to the instinct of hunger. Satan urged Him to use His divine power and convert a stone into bread. Hunger is natural and sinless. The temptation was in satisfying a right hunger in a wrong way. To have yielded in this case would have been to renounce the human limitations which He had taken for our sakes. To use divine power to satisfy human needs would have been to fail as Saviour and Redeemer.

2. As Messiah (vv. 5-8). Here the temptation was to grasp His rightful dominion by false means. The devil offered to surrender unto Him the world if He would worship him. The force of this temptation was in the fact that the kingdoms of the world are Christ's by God's covenant with Him. God's method by which Jesus was to possess the world was the cross. The temptation Satan is pressing upon the church today is to get possession of the world by other means than the cross.

3. As Son of God (vv. 9-12). Here Satan tries to induce Christ to presume upon God's care. He quotes a Messianic Psalm to induce Him to so act. To do the spectacular thing in order to get notice is to fall into Satan's temptation. For Jesus to have placed himself in danger in order to get God's special help in delivering Him would have been to sin. To put one's self in moral and spiritual peril in order to test God's faithfulness is to sin. Satan is never quite so danerous as when he quotes Scripture.

IV. Christ's Defense (vv. 4, 8, 12).

It was the Word of God. He met and repulsed the enemy with "It is written." Our defense is God's Word. May every Sunday school teacher know how to use it!

V. The Issue (v. 13).

Satan is vanquished. If we will but trust God and use His Word we too can overcome.

Superior and Inferior.

You may fail to shine in the opinion of others, both in your conversation and actions, from being superior, as well as inferior to them.—Greville.

Faith.

Now faith is the substance of things to be hoped for, the evidence of things that appear not.—Hebrews 2:1.

The Lord's Day.

Ye shall keep my Sabbaths and reverence my sanctuary; I am the Lord.—Leviticus 19:30.

VERNON

Rev. A. W. Betts has commenced his revival services at Ames Church.

Rev. Mr. Diehl has given up coming to Wesley M. E. Church. The ladies, particularly Mesdames Berta Ross and Wright have the parsonage in fine condition.

Mrs. Bringhurst, of Felton and Mrs. Alice Ross have organized a Junior Loyal Temperance Legion at Rice's school with which the children are much pleased and they are taking a great deal of interest in it. It is a branch of the Felton L. T. L. of which Mrs. Bringhurst is president.

The harvest home at Union M. P. Church was fine, the donation being a very large one. It was donated to the pastor, the Rev. Mr. A. W. Betts.

A surprise birthday party in honor of William Blessing was held at his home Tuesday evening. All enjoyed the affair and wished him many more happy returns of the day.

Miss Lucy Pierson is away from home indefinitely, having obtained a position.

Allen Runions is expecting to leave his home at Mrs. Maggie Simpson's shortly, to go to Philadelphia to work in a machine shop as he is mechanically inclined.

Frank Hanson, of Wilmington, has been spending several days here with relatives.

Mrs. Maggie Simpson and relatives have been Seaford visitors.

Miss Vertie Melvin has been spending a week or two at home.

There is talk of having a new white school building here which would be good sized and up-to-date. The colored people have a fine school building here and it is up-to-date. The white people should hustle around and also get a good building.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Wesley Ross attended the harvest home services at Harrington M. P. Church which was fine. The donation was sent to the home of the aged at Westminster which was a fine idea.

Ralph Stevens of Wilmington has visited his sister, Mrs. Berta Ross here He was accompanied home by their father John Stevens, of Hickman.

Revival services are in progress at the Harrington M. P. Church.

We are glad to note that Miss Ellen Hopkins has improved since her recent operation at the Milford hospital.

Lewis Outten has improved since the accident at Maple Grove school in which he was hurt.

Mrs. Lewis Slaughter delightfully entertained the Mite Society Friday evening.

Mrs. Eugene Wix is having the home which she has occupied for a number of years repainted in attractive colors.

Miss Blanche Gustavson has entered Harrington high school. The Misses Louise Tatman and Mary Smith are also attending high school.

Mrs. Florence Dill Jester one of our most popular school teachers has purchased the Robert Raughley farm. This is two farms Mrs. Jester has purchased in this section.

The wedding of William Sharp our popular druggist in Harrington and Miss Olive Steele, one of Harrington's popular former teachers, has been announced. Congratulations are extended. The happy couple are home at Harrington from their honeymoon.

The regular parent teacher association meeting of Rice's school has been held in October. After the reading of the minutes by the former teacher, Miss Lena Kent, a fine program, consisting of a solo, duet, sextette, recitations, dialogues and a playlet, talk by Mrs. Ross on good attendance and an excellent address by the state president, Mrs. Cleaver, was rendered. Elizabeth Wilson, Irene Wooters and Namoi Layton deserve especial mention for rendering their parts so well. There was victrola music and the yell by the Felton high school girls. Delicious refreshments were made by the ladies and served by the pupils. All had an entertaining as well as instructive time.

Why Your Electric Light Bill May Be Higher Now

Last Summer you only used electric light on an average of three hours each evening. But this witner you'll use it for at least an hour around breakfast time, and probably four and a half hours during the evening.

But you CAN economize on electric current. One way is to use the right sized lamp in every fixture, and keep the lamp and shade clean. This will give you better lighting for the same amount of money. Try it.
