AT JUST WHAT ANGLE SHOULD MILADY TILT HER HAT? That is the most important decision that the well-dressed woman has to make because the line between what is chic and what is just another hat is so slight that all rests on this important decision. But these lovely ladies seemed to have mastered the secret without difficulty and Mrs. Jean Murray Smith (extreme left) seems to be contemplating the array with an expression of approval.

Evening High School Dance Provides Fun and Charity

Pupils of the Douglass Evening High School gave a barn dance at Odd Fellows' Hall, Tuesday night, in order to secure funds to provide needy families with Christmas dinners.

The place gave the appearance of a farmers' and milkmaids' holiday, with the guests all in costumes. With a nickelodian supplying the music there was no the need of a few cows in the hay to complete the picture of a perfect barn frolic.

Mrs. Lewis, Miss Baker and Mr. Richardson, teachers at the school, chaperoned the affair. Herbert M. Frisby is principal of the school.

Attending the affair were:

Misses Sadie Thomas, Eleonora Massey, Viola Gray, Susie Cook, Katherine Clark, Geraldine Smith, Vercia Norman, Zelma Greene, Dale Hawthorne, Mayme Dorsey, Pearl Ward, Rosetta Copeland, Dorothy Carberry, Alice Morse, Bernice Blackwell, Gwendolyn Weaver, Alice Wiggens, Marjorie Cooper;

Misses Anne Chaney, Esther Lee, Zelma Williams, Ellen Greene, Carrie Johnson, Thelma Bacon, Myrtle Richardson, Rosetta Tate, Amelia Briggs, Nina Wilson, Emma McQueen, Estelle Dye, Seneva Hill, Carrie Dawkins, Sadie Thomas, Gladys Thornton, Jessie Mickle, Ruth Hardy; Misses Evelyn Berry, Alice Spriggs, Ethel Cummings, Elsie Stepney, Elizabeth Bennet, Neomi Hope, and Elizabeth Sampson.

Wilson Brown, Floyd Hughette, Paul Scott, Theodore Marshall, Drewery Baskerville, William Hayes, Edward Mickle, Marian Maythe, Rondolph Brooks, Watson Pierce, Kurtas Hurtle;

Clifton Murray, Spencer Edwards, Sheridrick Dorsey, Elmer Sampson, Arron Cummings Harry Gentl, Cyrus Stevenson, Nathaniel Ford, William Mason.

Arnette Thomas, William Chew, Washington Flipper, John Berry, William Spriggs, James Campber, Jack Battle, Teddy Baron, Eugene Payne, Stanley Beckett, Oscar Newman;

Samuel Hurlen, Camden Bonds, Albert McKinney, James Spriggs, Henry Baker, Earle Spruill, Walter Jones, and Bernard James.

Says Support for NAACP Should Follow Decision

Dear AFRO:

The decision of the Supreme Court of the United States with respect to the Missouri case should teach our group everywhere a fundamental lesson.

To be perfectly plain it is the duty of sincere and hearty co-operation with the NAACP or any similar institution fighting for civic fraternity and equality.

Mary Jones's being refused accommodation at one of our large department stores down town is not simply refusal for Mary Jones, but a denial of right to an entire group.

Now Mary Jones is a poor person. She cannot afford to prosecute the case. The owners of the store know this.

Owners Feel Safe

They rest easy in continuing to insult the entire group. But if the people who compose the Masons, the Odd Fellows, the Pythians, the Elks, and all of the innumerable societies of our group sustain a true sense of self-respect, readily, without solicitation, from each would be proffered sufficient funds to employ not simply a lawyer, but the best that can be secured.

The result would be as indicated in the decision I have referred to, for the same instrument that contains the white man's rights contains the black man's rights.

Have Same Law

There is no difference whatever. But in the presentation of the case there are many loopholes to be avoided, and the real point at issue must be made so plaig to the court that no way of escape would be possible.

As long as we are so slow in reaching the point in civic education to insure united action, the white group will avail itself of our negligence.

If the innumerable colored societies do not feel a pressing interest in this matter, then they are good for nothing.

(The Rev.) GEORGE F. BRAGG
Baltimore.

ELKS-LINCOLN GAME

The Elks' game at the Albert last Friday night brought the old crowd together again, being so packed, it was impossible to remember who was who. Everyone had his time, regardless of being unable to rug-cut as they were used to doing when the hall was not so crowded.

Roberta Hackett was escorted by William Gross and Dorothy Webster by Joseph Robinson.

Dorothy Smith, Alma Dorsey, Alverta Jackson and Ada Hackett helped to add attraction to the front line.

Marie Edwards spent her time with Ma Johnson because Arthur was on the floor giving a big show.

Elaine Cooper was there with Vernon Newton trying to patch the heart after the announced date of Theodore May's marriage to Janet Day, who are now apartment hunting.

Ward Williams had one of his Peolas as usual.

Other couples about were:

Marie Hughes and Lewis Cooper; Elsie Wallace and Stewart Jones; Chink Smith and Lola Ware; Thelma Brisco and Elisha Butler.

Ober Mallory spent his evening with Ida Nixon. This isn't the first time this couple showed interest in each other.

Charles Diggs had his time trying to keep every girl's interest since Ethel Harrison changed her mind about him.

• • •

EVENING SCHOOL

The culture class gave their barn dance for charity at the Odd Fellows' Hall, with everyone in some type of costume.

Clifton Murray made his rounds but seemed to have been unable to find his choice.

Of course, Wilson Browne escorted Maymie Dorsey as every one expected. Anne Chaney chose Jack Battle as her escort, but seemed to regret it after changing her affections to Kayo Proctor.

The Christmas frolic will be held the twenty-ninth of this month at the Odd Fellows' Hall with Preston Duncan playing.

Les Bon Vinatesb will be the same date at the Strand with Bubby, Maynard Derrick is president of this popular club.

It seems the Floyd Owens-Dorsie Forest team cannot star in dramatics as they had planned. Neither will Leonard Watkins remain William Kellum's double, now that the club will be organized.

• • •

PETERS BUSINESS SCHOOL

This school will hold its open house, Thursday night, for the said its and their friends. Several exhibitions will be given by the students of the various classes.

Muriel Hines has been on the school's sick list for the past week.

Margretta Adams spends her evenings at the school; not because she's studious, but to wait for Tickle Landsley to leave Morgan. Incidentally, Tickle is still huffy over my stating he had to thumb his way, Thanksgiving. It must have been my error.

• • •

ABOUT TOWN

Elizabeth Roberts, young city nurse, will be found having her joys over passing the State board examination this week.

Collis Bryant missing Agnes Parker by a second and not knowing it.

Maymie Brown (HUT) was the only Baltimorean having a lead in the "Foolish Follies," given by the Washington Urban League last week.

Louis Gray has come out of hiding and is doing the various Hilfiger.

This reminds me that the Johnny Lomaxes haven't put in an appearance this fall at the different affairs. This also goes for the T. J. Woolridges.

Steve Brown is making it impossible for me to see him. Anyway, I'll be looking for him.

A certain Morgan student changed her expression when someone told her partner his flame had been looking for him.

Earl Bundy denies rumors of changing his affections to Olga Gilbert being his latest, but still I see him making his daily punches.

Leroy Tibbs made a terrific goal from the center of the floor the other night when night school played the faculty. After that, night school couldn't lose.

At Rebecca Whyall's party, Evelyn Travers's only interest was Evon Rawlings, who made her forget when the party really ended.

Curley Richardson and Bernice Chester have renewed their friendship. The same goes for Elenora Massey and Ted Johnson.

Rosetta Copeland finds it impossible to see enough of Albert Waters during school.

Junky Wood made me spill my business over some saying of years ago, now causing me to say—

So long.

Miss Collick Bride of Week

Miss Blanche V. Collick was married on Thursday at high noon to the Rev. Roy Wheeler of Germantown, Pa.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Simon Williamson at the residence of the bride, 1532 E. Biddle Street. Miss Collick was given in marriage by her brother, Randolph Collick.

After a brief honeymoon the couple will make their home in Philadelphia.

GET COMFORTING RELIEF FROM Runny HEAD COLD
DO THIS: Put some Vicks VapoRub up each nostril and sniff well back. You'll feel better right away. Next, melt a spoonful of VapoRub in a bowl of boiling water; then breathe in the steaming medicated vapors for several minutes. This loosens phlegm and further clears the air-passages. At bedtime, rub VapoRub on throat, chest, and back so that its long-continued double action can relive the misery of the cold while you sleep. VapoRub acts direct through the skin like a poultice; at the same time its medicated vapors, breathed in direct, bring comfort to the irritated air-passages. Try it.
