The same of the sa

JOSEPHR, ECCLESTON.]

NEW SERIES-VOL. 7.

CAMBRIDGE, MD.-SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 22, 1844.

[Editor & Proprietor

NUMBER 40

TERMS.

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING At two Dollars and Fifty Cents per annum, payable half Same day.—Mr. Bibb offered an amendment to limit until all arrears are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS inserted on the usual terms, and Webster, Frelinghuysen, &c.

WRITTEN FOR THE 'CHRONICLE.' VALLER HIVER.

This little book, with yaller kiver, Makes the Locos shake and shiver; For here they read upon its pages, The doom of Free-trade and low-wages. Hurrah! hurrah! the whigs are risin For Pratt and Clay and Freunghu, sen.

The Old Coon an its title page, Excites their Wrath—provokes their rage— They say it is a mortal sin-They cannot bear his awful grin. Hurrah! hurrah! the coons are risin &c.

They said that they would, very soon, Make mince-meat of that same old coon; They tried the skinning, but proved his spunk-Instead of the coon, they skinn'd a skunk. Hurrah! hurrah! they're agonizin, Because of Clay and Frelinghuysen.

That same old coon is living yet, And high upon a tree is set; We hear him singing night and day, "Let's clear the track for Harry Clay." Hurrah! hurrah! let's all be risin-And work for Clay and Frelinghuysen

Our Derset Lous are out again, They come from marsh and sandy plain; From North-west Fork to Hooper's Island, They come through wet, as well as dry-land. Hurrah! hurrah! old Dorset's risin, For Pract and Clay and Frelinghuysen.

Their Bonns bright they bear along-They come with joyous shout and song; Old Dessons will do their duty, Encourage by the smile of beauty. Hurrah! hurrah! my boys, be risin, For Pratt and Clay and Frelinghuysen.

When Dorset Lads begin to sing, They make the very welk'n ring; To put the Locos in a pucker, They sing the tune of Old Dan Tucker? Hurrah! hurrah! Old Dan is risin, For Harry Clay and Frelinghuysea.

A joyous day is coming fast-Our foes shall hear our Eugle blast-The arrows from our ample quiver Will send them, "Polking," up Salt River. Hurrah! hurrah! we all are risin, For Pratt and Clay and Frelinghuysen.

From the Philadelphia Daily Forum. MIE. DALLAS & THE U.S. BANK. CHRONOLOGY WITHOUT CBMMENT.

PREFACE. May 30, 1844.—Resolution of the Baltimose Convention which nominated Polk and Dallas:

one of deadly hostility to the best interests of the coun- Tazewell, Troup, Tyler, White.

MR. DALEAS AND A BANK OF THE U.S.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES. memorial of the Bank of the United states, praying for no topic too exciting for use, no passion too inflamable voting for it. a Re charter, and said "he could not but feel strongly for its address and solicitation." impressed by the recollection that the Legislature of July 13, 1832.—Mr. Benton spoke in favor of the verbefore, for the poor hope of exclaiming Ten-Pennsylvania recently and in effect unanimously had to, and a vote was taken on the passage of the Bank Huysen, Hendricks, Holmes, Johnston, Knight, beaten at last, and then beaten again! And so was nessee a proud State, that will glory in giving a majorrecommended the re-charter of the Bank. He became charter in spite of the veto, and Mr. Dallas voted for the Naudain, Poindexter, Prentiss, Robbins, Ruggles, Col. Polk! James C. Jones, a young man fresh from ity of at least five thousand against him. there a williand as he was virtually an instructed A- bill, and against the VETO. GENT in promoting to the extent of his ability, an object July 21, 1832.—Town Meeting in Philadelphia, at man, Webster, Wilkins.

cainst the deceased's estate, and that he course the the Tariff and the Judiciary. same to be published once in each week for the space of three successive weeks, in the Cambrida which was unanimously adopted: Chronicle, a paper selected by him.

I have hereunto set my name and s of my office affixed, this 19th day June in the year of our Lord, 1811.

In compliance with the above order This is Thomas Earle rive Notice, that the subscriber of Dorches: Resolved, That this meeting fully sustain the veto of Dorchester County, in maryland, letters of and ministration on the personal estate of Isaac Di nork, late of Dorchester Co. deceased. All Bil July 7, 1836 .- Mr. Dallas wrote his memorable letsaid estate

Given under my hand and seal this 19th das; June 1844. LEVIN DUNNOCK, acting X adm'r of Isaac Dunnock, dec'de June 22, 1841 3w.

States: agreed to, 26 to 18. Mr. Dallas, voting for it; Resolution of the Baltimore Convention that ered that the administration was not disposed to own course. He, he said, was where he always had Mr. Benton against it.

yearly in advance. No subscription will be recieved for a shorter period than six months, and no paper discontinued 25. Yeas—Benton, Grundy, &c. Nays—Dallas, specified in the Constitution; and that we are op June 22, 1932.—Senate

June 2, 1832.—Mr. Benton's amendment to strike out the exclusive privilege of the Bank, REJECTED-

Same day.—Benton's amendment to forbid foreigners Public Lands. holding stock in the Bank-rejected, Mr. Dallas voting against it.

ul liability of stockholders, rejected; Mr. Dallas voting lic Lands, known to be hostile to the bill. On Webster opposed the amendment. Rejected 15 against the Banks! He found himself exhibited, also, intended to make the Bank a specie paying Bank or not. affirmative. Rejected, 17 to 27 .- Mr. Dallas voting against it. Same day .- Mr. Marcy's amendment reserving the Same day.—Tazewell's amendment to shorten the one dollar per acre. term of the Charter from 15 years to 10; Dallas earnest- June 30, 1832.—A motion to postpone indefi- ate; are recorded 163 times. On these questions Atter Wise bissed that burning denunciation in Col. ly opposed it saying, "That the Bank heretotore had nitely Mr. CLAY'S Distribution Bill, after being Mr. Dallas recorded his vote 28 times with Mr. Polk's ear, in the lobby, as he was leaving the House

Mr. Dallas voling against it. June 5, 1832 .- Amendment to strike out the bonus and limit the rate of interest to 5 per cent. Mr. Dallas table rejected - 15 to 27, Mr. Dallas voting against and Mr. Frelinghuysen opposed it. It was rejected 18 it. to 29.—Mr. Dallas valing against it.

being $150,000, Mr. Marcy moved to increase it to lost, 21 to 26, Mr. Dallas dodged, but his brother-

Mr. Knight moved to increase it to 350,000. Re jected 20 to 28. Mr. Dallas voting against it.

Mr. Seymour moved to increase it to 300,000; Re jected 20 to 27. Mr. Dallas voting against it.

000. Rejected 20 to 27. Mr. Dallas voting against it. the price of the lands to one dollar per acre; Re-Finally 200,000 were agreed to, Mr. Dallas and Mr. jected 21 to 27. Mr. Dallas voting in the nega-Webster voting for it.

Same day .- Mr. Marcy's amendment reserving right

Bank interest to 5 per cent again rejected, 21 to 26; Mr. Dallas voting in the negative.

June 9, 1832 .- Mr. GRUNDY moved the indefini postponement of the bill; lost 20 to 24; Mr. Dallas voting against it.

20; Mr. DALLAS voting for it.

"Resolved. That Congress has no power to charter Dickerson, Dudley, Ellis, Forsyth, Grundy, Kane, against it. a National Bank; that we believe such an institution | Hayne, Hill, King, Mangum, Marcy, Miller, Moore,

Mr. Webster commencing the debate, sustaining the ordered to a 3d reading, 21 to 18. Mr. Dallas, by way of offset to the title Jimmy" which by broke his pledge, and afterwards maligned and tra-Bank bill, and opposing the views of the President - voting for it. Speaking of the message, he said—"It wantonly at July 3, 1832.—Mr. Clay's land distribution bill ling, he was claimed by his friends, and acknowledged Jackson where he has basked as much as a man, twice Monday, January 9, 1832.—Mr. Dallas presented the against them the prejudices of other classes. It finds finally passed the Senate, 26 to 18—Mr. Dallas presented the ers. He could grin and grimace harder, "cut up more has now succeeded in getting Old Hickory to a rill be a senate of turning by his opponents, to be the Napoleon of stump speak badly run down, could bask, ever since, and where he ers. He could grin and grimace harder, "cut up more has now succeeded in getting Old Hickory to a rill be a senate of turning by his opponents, to be the Napoleon of stump speak badly run down, could bask, ever since, and where he ers. He could grin and grimace harder, "cut up more has now succeeded in getting Old Hickory to a rill be a senate of turning by his opponents, to be the Napoleon of stump speak badly run down, could bask, ever since, and where he

of Isaac Dunnock, late of Duchester County, de has shown an utter contempt of the unantmous voice of ceased it is ordered, that he give the notice require Pennsylvania, expressed through her Legislature and ed by law for all creditors to exhibit their claims " Delegation in Congress, both with regard to the Bank,

Daniel W. Coxe offered the following resolution,

In testimony That the foregoing is truly copis and are hereby tendered to George M. Dallas and Wilfrom the minutes of the proceeding liam Wilkins, for having, after a full discussion and of Dorchester County Orphans' Count deliberation being had on the Executive Veto to the bill rechartering the Bank, continued to vote for the passage nominated Polk and Wright. of the Bill.

County, he h obtained from the Orphans' Cost and the reasons by which it is sustained in the Presilent's excellent message.

the 19th day of December next, they may only Congress to create such a Bank as would be a safe ma- for it. wise by law be excluded from all benefit of chine of finance and a serviceable agent in preserving May 29, 1832 .- Motion to consider he Balti- Chair. a sound currency, I was then, as I still am, convin- more and Ohio Railroad Bill. Mr. Miller, of S.

> The end of Chapter I!!! CHAPTER 11. MR. DALLAS AND DISTRIBUTION:

nominated Polk and Dallas:

Resolved, That the proceeds of the public lands ted 18 to 23—Mr. Dallas voting for it; Benton, change! Well, he beat Gov. Cannon 2500 votes.—
But when he next run for the same office, he found his specified in the Constitution; and that we are op June 22, 1932.—Senate considered the bill ma- and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

this question there was a tie vote-22 to 22, Mr. to 29 -Mr. Dallas voting against it. Same day.—Benton's amendment forbidding the issue Dallas voting with Mr. Clay, Webster, Fre- Same day-Internal Improvement Bill ordered fee, when there was no tax on those articles, and subof any currency by the bank not redeemable in specie LINGHUYSEN, &c. in the negative. The Vice Pres to a third reading and passed, 26 to 13. Mr. Dal- sequently ridiculing and denouncing and slandering a

May 18, 1832.—Committee on Public Lands right of repeal of the Bank Charter to Congress—re- reported against Mr. CLAY's bill, and in favor of last, that he never had changed—never found it condone no mischief, and could not hereafter," and that opposed by Mr. Clay and Mr. Ewing, and advo"in his opinion nothing was so weak, so contemptibly cated by Mr. Benton, was lost—17 to 25; Mr. Clay, Webster, Frelinghuysen, &c.!!!

Clay, Webster, Frelinghuysen, &c.!!! weak as a moneyed corporation." Mr. Clay & Web-ster sustained Mr. Dallas. It was rejected 20 to 27— DVLLAS voting in the negative with Mr. CLAY. For proof of this see the Journals. WEBSTER, FRELINGHUYSEN, &c.

Same day-Motion to lay Mr. Clay's bill on the June 2, 1832.—Amendment of Mr. Hayne to June 6, 1832.—The Bank Bonus in Mr. Dallas' bill allow the new States 15 instead of 10 per cent, the people, to know more than is yet known, generally, 525,000. Rejected 10 to 36. Mr. Dallas voling against in-law, Mr. Wilkins, voted in the negative.

Same day.—Amendment of Mr. King, of Alaba- body else, but as aid to a former Governor. ma, to strike out the distribution clause, rejected, The Democratic Review, and other eulogists of Col. to have been written by Gen. Jackson, declaring that 21 to 26; Mr. Dallas dodged, Mr. Wilkins voted in Polk, try hard to make a Hero of him by proclaiming the negative.

Same day.—Mr. Benton's amendment to reduce and curiously nominated candidate for the Presidency, Polk! Whereupon, Balie Peyton, before some ten thou to the States to ox, rejected 22 to 25; Mr. Dallas and to 50 cents per acre all lards which had been that Ezekiel Polk, the grand-father of Col. James K.

Dallas voling ugainst it. | Same day .- Mr. romacker's andendment to al- matter the better. "By gones are by gones." Same day.-Mr. White's amendment to require the low the new States 12 1-2 per cent, instead of 10; As a member of Congress, Col. Polk ranked, it is Bank to pay 3 pr ct. interest on surplus public deposits, Agreed to 27 to 20. Mr. Benton and Mr. Clay | presumed all will admit, as a third-rate statesman. He

to the Secretary of the Treasury (Gen. Jackson's to re- allow Mississippi, Louisiana, Missouri, Indiana, which Old Hickory then cherished against John Bell-Alabama and Illinois 600,000 acres each, Agreed who had previously beaten Col. P. for the same station Polk will never be forgotten by those who had the good

Same day.—Eank bill ordered to third reading, 25 to Same day.—Mr. Hayne's amendment to strike the merit or qualifications of the individual who by well remembered that Col. Bell and Col. Polk were out the objects in which the States are to apply the such means and for such ends gained the woolsack, considered as rivals whilst in Congress together. It is

Same day.—Mr. Robinson's amendment to re- tizan servility. try; dangerous to our Republican institutions and the July 10, 1832.—Andrew Jackson vetoed the Bank duce the price lands over 10 years in market to But Col. Polk, as a stump-speaker in Tennessee, committed: and he succeeded. The Colonel fully las was not instructed.

| Seymour, Silsbee, Sprague, Tomlinson. Wagga- | the plough-handles, with only four months legislative |

The end of chapter 11!! CHAPTER 111. Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting are due, MR. DALLAS AND INTERNAL IMPROVE Register of Wills, Dorchester co. ry Horn, President. Mr. Dallas spoke. On motion of mence and carry on a system of internal improve.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

cut down these wasteful expenditures. Rejec- been-he never changed-never found it convenient to where the number of insertions is not limited, they will be where the number of insertions is not limited, they will be and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people, in Col. Polk's own thun-the distribution of such and proclaiming to the people and jected, 10 to 35; Yeas—Benton, Bibb, Ellis, Haynes, the distribution of such proceeds among the States, the General Government. Mr. Forsyth's amend there saw and heard read an old circular, which he is-Hill, Kane, Marcy, Moore and White. Nays—Clay, as alike inexpedient in policy and repugnant to ment to strike out appropriation for the Cumber- sued, under his own name, when first a candidate for land river, which he said he meant to be a test | Congress, in 1825, in which circular he boldly advocaquestion, as it was an appropriation for new work. ted the constitutionality of the General Government's tribution among the States of the proceeds of the this work was to be authorized, every outlet and river be Union could be. If this were done Orleans! He there saw, too, his speeches in 1834-5 May 9, 1832.—Mr. King, of Alabama moved the Covernment would be called on to make against the Sub treasury and in favor of Banks, contrast-Same day.—Benton's amendment asserting individu- to refer Mr. CLAY's bill to the Committee on Pub- roots from one water course to another." Mr. ed with his subsequent speeches for the Sub-treasury &

> huysen, &c. Forsyth, Grundy, &c. against it. RECAPITULATION.

reducing the price of the lands to a minimum of of the Bank, the Tariff, Land Distribution, Internal venient to change, but was where he always had been! Improvement, &c, the year and nays, in the Sen | "Old documents are dangerous things!"

COL. JAMES K. POLK.

To the Editor of the Baltimore Patriot:

he never fought under or with Gen. Jackson, or any that his ancestors were glorious fellows in the days of in the affair with Wise! This at once subjected Col. Mr. Dickenson of N. J. moved to increase it to 250,- Same day.—Mr. Benton's amendment to reduce the Revolution, and were conspicuous in getting up Polk to the charge of having procured a certificate from the celebrated Meckienburg Declaration of Indepen- Gen. Jackson of his bravery! and such was the handle dence. So some, aye most, of them were; but it is not made of it to the Colonel's prejudice, that Old Hickory, too much to say, seeing the subject has been opened "by the eternal," came out in the Nashville Union des friends roting against it.

Same day.—Mr. Forsyrn's amendment to limit Deller actions in the reguling in the leaded Grand or Too. This came say about that old ceted 23 to 24; Mr. Dallas voting against it.

Same day.—Mr. Benton's motion to refer the Bill

Same day.—Amendment of Mr. Hendricks, to Chair was more a subservient oblation to the spite did I," &c. &c. The castigation which the gallant to 28 to 16. Benton, Clay and Frelinghuysen, and was the leader of the movement in favor of Judge fortune to listen to it. Oh, it was terrible! voting for it Mr. Dallas voting against it. White's election to the Presidency—than a tribute to June 11, 1832.—Bank bill finally passed, 28 to 20; land fund, so as to allow them to use it as they of "size ties" committees, his decisions in the New Jersey case, and his disgusting partiality in awarding to bring out Judge White for the Presidency, by the the floor on all occasions to his co-laboring tools in par- Tennessee delegation, Mr. Bell purposely, for some which however dangerously timed its introduction which Daniel Groves was President; Charles J. Jack, and never been beaten, in 1841, face to face, travelled to every consideration.

Which Daniel Groves was President; Charles J. Jack, which Daniel Groves was President; Charles J experience in his life, met the boastful Napoleon who " (See Register of Debates Vol. viii, Part Resolved, That in the veto of President Jackson, he before the glorious Tennesseans, and beat him at his coming temptation when it plainly meets us in the path of duty. By becoming christains we do not own game, and with his own weapons! The fallen Na- path of duty. By becoming christains, we do not N. B. On this subject of Distribution Mr. Dal- poleon, not satisfied with the result, attributing it to the las was not instructed.

| Cease to be men. The world has its temptations, and the world is every where. It is in the recessdeclared himself a candidate for another race last year, | and took the field with renewed vigor. Gov. Jones met deep in our own hearts. We shall find the world him again, face to face, before the people, and beat him wherever we find our own unhallowed passionsby a handsomely increased majority, in the largest vote passions which no solitude extinguishes, and ever cast in the State!

Resolution at the Baltimore Convention that I am disposed to do Col. Polk justice. As a private man can run away from the world without runcitizen he is amiable, courteous and kind, and is as ning away from himself. The presumptuous chris-Resolved. That the Constitution does not confer honest and upright, no doubt, in all his social relations, tain will find the world following him into his THOMAS H. HICKS, Linky 28, 1832.—Veto Meeting in Philadelphia; Hen- upon the General Government the power to com- as it is possible for such an unscrupulous demagogue retirement; while the subdued and chastened chris-in politics, as he has ever been, to be. Polk made a speech and declared himself a candidate inaccessable than his closit, where, while his bofor Governer against Gov. Cannon, at the ensuing elec- dy is occupied in its ten thousand labors, his soul May 25, 1832.—Mr. Chambers' motion to con- tion in August, 1839. He made a few speeches that lives for God, and where amid all the confusions sider a bill to subscribe, on the part of the United fall, and re-opened the campaign in earnest in the of earth, he possesses his mind in peace. There States, to the stock of the Baltimore and Ohio spring following. He could have been re-elected to is such a thing as living in the world while in nork, late of Dorchester Co. deceased. It is such a thing spring following. He could have been re-elected to its such a thing as hving in the world while in Railroad—rejected, 18 to 21. Messis. Benton, Congress, but he had a proper presentment from the the deepest solitude; and there is such a thing vouchers thereof, to the subscriber on or bef then, nor do I now entertain a doubt. Of the ability of Marcy. &c. voling against it -Mr. Dalas voting tone of the World.

April 16, 1832.—Mr. CLAY, from the Committile. Hayne also said "that he was glad that this making internal improvements in the States, if I recolyeas 16—Benton, Grundy, & c.; nays 26—Dallas, Clay, tee on manufactures, reported his bill for the dis- question was now solemnly and fairly raised. If lect aright, for I have seen and read the circular more than once, and maintained that a branch of the Nation--Mr. Benton said he offered this to test whether it was ident (Mr. Calhoun) gave the casting vote in the las voting for it, with Mr. Clay, Webster, Freling- Whig Congress for taxing Tea and Coffee, when in fact no tax of the kind had been levied! And at the conclusion of all this, and much more like it, the people > from this city—describing the scene, and saying Gen. JACKSON was so much vexed because Col. Polk did Washington, June 8, 1844. | not resent the gross insult in some, way, by throwing his bundle of papers at Wise, if nothing else,—that he would not fulfil his intention of making the submissive Considerable curiosity is manifested, on the part of Nashville papers. Balie Peyton also commented upon about the Jackson-Van Buren candidate for the Presi- elsewhere, and such was the ridicule heaped upon Col. dency—Colonel James K. Polk, not Colonel because Polk in the matter that he deemed it meet, when next canvassing for Congress, to read to a portion of his he was no coward, but behaved bravely and prudently men from Shelbyville or Bedford county there present, who heard Col. Polk read at the time referred to, the said certificate from Gen. Jackson, that they would liberties of the people, and calculated to place the business of the country within the control of a concentrated money power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power, and above the laws and will of the peomoney power power power.

The next day, the veto was considered in the Senate, and the peomoney power power power power power Col. Polk dubbed himself with, and delighted in wear- duced the venerable White almost into his very grave! ers. He could grin and grimace harder, "cut up more has now succeeded in getting Old Hickory to will his Yeas—Bell, Chambers, Clay Clayton, Dat- ladies, kiss more children, ride further and talk longer sent to his being a third time beaten, and far worse ses of the wilderness. It is in the solitude of the which often gather strength from seclusion. No lian will find, amid all the complications and In 1838, at a Barbecue in Murfreesborough, Colonel little world of tranquility within, a retreat more ken place, that he could no more fill the Speaker's This will destroy their usefulness. If their treasure is on earth, their hearts will be there. If this world is In his campaign with Gov. Cannon he produced their aim and object, they can accomplish little as chrismany old documents to prove, as he exultingly pro- trans. If they would be useful, their great end and C. (Democrat) said he had viewed the tote of the claimed, the inconsistency of John Bell, Balle Peyton, aim must be things unseen. They must not forget the proof of John Bell, Balle Peyton, their high calling. They must not forget why nor for other day as indicating a determination not to go Judge White and others. On these occasions he would whom they were seat into the world, but every where any further into these expenditures for internal say "old documents are dangerous things!" and then so set their affections on things above, that they shall improvements. If taken up, it would be consid- contrast the course of those he was traducing with his appear like pilgrims and strangers on the earth-ib.

POTOMAC.