Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living at Popis creek, in the county of Westmoreland, and state of Virginia, on the 19th instant, a negro man named FRANK, by trade a blacksmith, of a tawny complexion, long visage, and remarkably fine soft voice; about 45 years of age, 5 feet 4 or 6 inches high, straight limbed. Frank generally wore a long tailed coat, but it is not known certainly what clothes he took with him: he may easily be detected, as he has taken with him one of his youngest sons named John, who is not more than 9 years of age, and is of a very black complexion, and long visage like his father. I am induced to think Frank has made for some of the large towns, particularly Alexandria or Baltimore, in the former of which, or its neighborhood, he has a free brother, by the name of Rogers, who did live near Dr. Smith's, upon Ravensworth, in the county of Fairfax. The above reward will be given to any person who will secure said Frank, with his son, and give information thereof to the subscriber; and 100 dollars if taken out of the state, and the money paid as soon as I get him.

This day is opened

At the store of GEORGE HILL,

A book of subscription, to proposals for publishing

LECTURES ON NATURAL PHILOSOPHY,

By the reverend John Ewing, D. D.

Late provost of the university of Pennsylvania, and senior pastor of the first Presbyterian congregation in Philadelphia.

It is also intended to publish, by subscription, a selection of his Sermons, on the most evangelical and instructive subjects, at the earnest solicitation of a large portion of his stated hearers; as also, of a number of friends, eminent for their taste in elegant composition and sound doctrine.

Eulogy is intentionally avoided here. Gentlemen who wish to be possessors of the valuable works of the late Dr. Ewing, are respectfully invited to call and examine the proposals early, as the number of subscribers required is only 400—and to non-subscribers, the price will be considerably raised.

July 2. eo
