Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living at Popis creek, in the county of Westmoreland, and state of Virginia, on the 19th instant, a negro man named FRANK, by trade a blacksmith, of a tawny complexion, long visage, and remarkably fine soft voice; about 45 years of age, 5 feet 4 or 6 inches high, straight limbed. Frank generally wore a long tailed coat, but it is not known certainly what clothes he took with him: he may easily be detected, as he has taken with him one of his youngest sons named John, who is not more than 9 years of age, and is of a very black complexion, and long visage like his father. I am induced to think Frank has made for some of the large towns, particularly Alexandria or Baltimore, in the former of which, or its neighborhood, he has a free brother, by the name of Rogers, who did live near Dr. Smith's, upon Ravensworth, in the county of Fairfax. The above reward will be given to any person who will secure said Frank, with his son, and give information thereof to the subscriber; and 100 dollars if taken out of the state, and the money paid as soon as I get him.
